Eucharistic Minister Teams:
Weekend of December 14/15 - Team A
Weekend of December 21/22 - Team B
Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

If you found out that the Lord, Himself, was going to start His glorious return by visiting your home, what would you do? How would you prepare to receive Him? During the Advent season, we reflect on the way that others prepared for the first coming of Christ, in order that we may be prepared for His second coming. We see how prophets like Isaiah and Jeremiah spoke God's prophetic message so that the Hebrew people could be vigilant. Mary and St. Joseph are called upon in a special way to make room in their lives for the birth of Jesus, and aided by the angel Gabriel they take steps to prepare for their exalted vocation. Some of what they had to do to prepare was very difficult. Years later, John the Baptist continued this proclamation right before Jesus made Himself known through His public ministry. John also included a ritual that people could take part in: a baptism that called the people to repent and convert. How blessed we are to have the example of these saints to aid our meditation and to serve as models for us. Blessed, too, are we to have a rite, indeed a Sacrament, in which God's mercy is made known to those who are repentant.

I would like to use this week's column as an invitation to make the Sacrament of Penance part of your preparation this Advent season. While we may not know how we would prepare our physical homes for the coming of Christ, we do know, through the light of the Holy Spirit, ways that we can prepare a place for Christ to dwell in our souls. Growth in virtue, works of charity, acts of penance, all of these align the soul more closely with God, or to use a different image from Scripture, they make the soul that fertile soil for the seed of the Word of God to come in, take root, and produce an abundant harvest. The idea of doing penance is not a popular one, and I don't think that's just because of the culture we live in. The Fall has left us with a certain egotistical bent that wants us to deride the idea of penance. But this challenge is thwarted in the very act of penance. It directly combats the ever-present temptation towards pride, allows us to practice the virtue of humility, puts us in solidarity with others as we see God's mercy reach out towards all, and calms our interior passions that toss us about on the inside with a sobriety and peace that comes from Christ.

And so, I invite all of you to prepare for Christ by receiving the Father's mercy in the Sacrament of Penance. Our priests are setting aside a special period of time, 3pm - 9pm on Monday, December 23rd, to hear confessions in the Church. Invite a friend; come as a family. Enter the season of Christmas with the strength of God's grace. If it's been a long time, have faith: God is ready! If you don't remember what to do, don't worry: the priests are here to guide you! If you don't know what to say, reflect: there's still a week to examine your conscience. Some good confession guides can be found in the church. The USCCB website has numerous examinations of conscience that one can use, too. Let us come to the fountain of God's mercy, and be prepared by the Good Shepherd, Himself, for the celebration of Christmas.

In Christ,
fr. Jason

She also helped her grandma prepare the Thanksgiving table and she cleaned her play room before her cousin and aunt came to visit. Sarah altar served and volunteered at the soup kitchen, Alexa did the laundry, Shawn collected books for the poor, Amanda baked pies for the homeless shelter, James spent time at his grandparents’ house and helped them around the house, Blake helped his sister, Jack helped his mom make dinner, Reese washed the dishes, Brody helped decorate for Christmas and Elaina played with someone at recess when they were lonely.

Memorial Poinsettias

Each year during the Advent season, as we prepare for the celebration of the Birth of our Savior, our thoughts turn to memories we hold dear in our hearts. For so many of us who have lost a beloved family member or someone dear to us, it is also a time of remembrance of our departed loved ones. As a way of commemorating their memory at this joyous time, we invite you to memorialize one of the many Poinsettia plants that will grace our altars in the coming weeks.

Poinsettias will be placed in our Church, Hall, and Capilla. Your contribution of $20 will make this effort possible.

A list of all Poinsettia donations will be published in our Parish bulletin in January.

The closing date is Wednesday, December 18, 2019. Please drop off your donation and order form to the Parish office or place it in the collection by the weekend of December 14/15. Know that you and all your loved ones will be remembered as our generous benefactors as we celebrate the Christmas season!

With sincere thanks.....

Thank you for your generosity at Thanksgiving time. We were blessed with food donations, supermarket gift cards, and turkeys. Our Parish Social Ministry clients were met warmly by St. Vincent de Paul volunteers who walked them through our new Pantry gathering all their Thanksgiving needs. We are thankful to work closely with these compassionate, good-hearted Vincentians who work relentlessly to keep the pantry stocked and then reach out to the families in such a loving way. As well we would like to send a special thank you to the American Legion for the food drive and food cards. We thank the St. Joseph Nursery School for the food donations and to our faithful friends at Torta Fina Bakery who baked 75 delicious loaves that we distributed to our Parish Social Ministry families.

In addition we want extend our thanks to Tres Palms for providing Thanksgiving deluxe dinners for 30 families in their restaurant, to the Salcapotano Family for their generosity, to all P.S.M Volunteers for their unconditional work, and to all St. Joseph parishioners for your ongoing support. Thanks to you we can fulfill our mission.

We are truly blessed!
A friend shared a memory that has haunted him for decades. It was an early Saturday morning in November, the day of the high school cross-country championship for the state of Pennsylvania. He was just 17 years old and he was walking from his home to his high school where he would climb onto the bus that would take him and his fellow runners to State College. They were one of the favorite teams to win the championship, and he was excited, nervous, and freezing. It was a bitterly cold morning, snowing hard with several inches already on the ground. As he reached the end of the wooden footbridge over the railroad yard that divided the city in two, he saw a little boy, maybe five or six years old. The boy was just standing there next to the bridge, shivering. He has no gloves on and his nose was running.

My friend didn’t know what to do. He had no money on him and even if he did, he doesn’t know what he would have done with it. So he pulled out his handkerchief and wiped the little fellow’s nose and then walked on.

He says that he’s never talked about that moment until now, but he has thought about it often. He wonders whatever became of that little guy. He has said to himself many times: I should have done more. But what? He does not presume that God placed the little boy there for an encounter, but he does believe that, through the little boy, God touched his heart to teach him that religion is not primarily a set of beliefs; that Christianity, if it makes any sense at all, is not about how confidently we can affirm lines of a creed, but what we do about a little boy shivering in the cold at the foot of the bridge.

His was the type of experience that ought to get under our skin. Not in order to beat up on ourselves and to ratchet up our level of guilt for not responding better, but to serve as a life lesson so that on future occasions when we encounter human need we will act differently.

The pain and suffering we encounter can make us callous and indifferent. We can train ourselves avert our gaze from people who are hurting and to focus only on pleasant thoughts. Or, we can be empathetic to the suffering of others and reach out to them as best we can.

Deacon John
Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo,

¿Qué haría si un ángel le dijera que el Señor va a empezar su venida gloriosa visitando su casa? ¿Cómo se prepararía para recibirlo? Durante el tiempo de Adviento, las lecturas de la misa nos ayudan a reflexionar sobre la preparación de los que recibieron a Jesús en su primera venida para que estemos preparados para su segunda venida. Profetas como Isaías y Jeremías proclamaron el mensaje de Dios para preparar al pueblo de Israel. María y San José tenían que prepararse de una manera muy especial para recibir el niño Jesús. Ayudados por el ángel Gabriel, ellos hicieron lo que era necesario para vivir su llamada exaltada. A veces, fue muy difícil para ellos. Después de unos años, San Juan Bautista continuó la proclamación de los profetas antes de que Jesús se manifestara en su ministerio público. Además, Juan tuvo un ritual para el pueblo: un bautismo que llamó a la gente a convertirse. Que bendecidos somos porque tenemos el ejemplo de estos santos. También somos bendecidos porque tenemos un ritual, un sacramento, para recibir la misericordia de Dios, para convertirnos, para estar listos para la venida de Jesús.

Quiero invitar a cada uno de ustedes a prepararse para este adviento recibiendo la misericordia del Padre en el Sacramento de la Penitencia. Aunque no sepamos como prepararíamos nuestra casa física cuando Cristo venga otra vez, la luz del Espíritu Santo nos ha informado como podemos preparar un lugar en nuestra alma para Él. Creando en la virtud, haciendo obras de caridad, viviendo en penitencia, todas estas cosas preparan el alma para ser como tierra fértil para recibir la semilla de la Palabra del Señor. Yo sé que la idea de hacer penitencia no es popular. El Caído nos ha dejado con cierto egoísmo que no le gusta la penitencia. Pero, este desafío contra la santidad se conquista con la penitencia. La penitencia combate la tentación a la soberbia, nos ayuda a practicar la humildad, nos unifica con nuestro prójimo cuando reconocemos que todos necesitamos la misericordia de Dios, calma la pasión del alma para crear en nosotros una paz que es de Cristo.

Entonces, les invito a prepararse para Cristo a través de recibir la misericordia de Dios en el Sacramento de la Penitencia. Nuestros sacerdotes van estar en el templo principal por un tiempo especial para confesar a todos: 3pm - 9pm del Lunes, 23º de Diciembre. Invite a un amigo; venga con un familiar. Comience la celebración de la Navidad con la fuerza de la gracia de Dios. Si hace muchos años de que no se confiesa, tenga fe: ¡Dios está listo! Si no recuerde como confesarse, no se preocupe: ¡los sacerdotes quieren guiarle! Si no sabe lo que debe decir, reflexione: tiene una semana para hacer un examen de conciencia. Hay unas guías por el Internet, y voy a poner otras en español en la iglesia. ¡Vamos fuente de la misericordia de Dios, y dejémonos preparar por el mismo Buen Pastor, para celebrar su Navidad dignamente.

En Cristo,

p. Jason
