Weekend of January 11/12 - Team A
Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

There is a question that has occupied my thoughts for a number of years now: what is it that inspires someone to follow Christ? We can think about the first spark in an unbaptized adult that leads the soul to seek to know more about Christianity, maybe by picking up a Bible, asking a faithful friend, or attending Mass. We can also consider that which would lead a couple to bring their child forward for Baptism, even if the couple hasn't participated in other sacraments for some time. One can also think about the decision that every young adult is faced with, when he or she needs to decide to practice the faith of their own free will, no longer relying simply on what their family has told them to do. Finally, we can consider the spiritual movement of a soul that has been progressing well in the faith, and decides to take some further steps closer to God. What is it that inspires all of these people? If we had an answer, then surely we would have a clearer vision as to what we are to do as a community of faith, since it is our mission to help people draw closer to God.

On the feast of the Epiphany we celebrate certain moments in which inspiration came through the revelation of Jesus Christ, and who He is. The history of this feast is very interesting: different events in Christ's life were celebrated in different regions of the world, but all around the same time (early January). In its current form, the feast has three main focal points: the visitation of the magi, the baptism of the Lord, and the miracle at Cana. For us there is a heavy emphasis on the first point, which makes historical sense because we are Roman Catholic, and the development of the feast in the Western regions tended to focus on the magi. In all three, groups of people are inspired by an encounter with Christ in which the Lord reveals His majesty in some way (the star, the Holy Spirit seen in the dove and the voice of the Father, and the water changed into wine). In fact, a good translation for the Greek word Epiphany is "manifestation;" the Lord manifests His presence in special glorious ways.

Perhaps the Feast of the Epiphany can teach us something about inspiration. As I consider my life, the lives of those I have gotten to know, and the lives of the saints it seems that there is one thing that inspires faith: it is God, Himself. When we encounter His light, manifested to us in so many different ways, but above all in the Sacraments, there is a moment for Him to affect our souls, guiding them closer to Himself. If it is an experience of the Lord that truly inspires, then our mission can be described as a perpetual epiphany: to continually manifest God through the way we live our lives. May we encounter the light of Christ this week, and be ready to bring others to that same light.

Sincerely,
fr. Jason

“Thank You”

On behalf of all of the families who assisted our families in need during Thanksgiving & Christmas, Parish Outreach says THANK YOU VERY MUCH for your generosity. We are grateful to those who adopted a family through our Angel Brigade and to all of you who took tags from our Giving Tree. The families were overwhelmed by your generosity.

In partnership with St. Vincent De Paul, we were able to supply food and food cards. We are blessed to work closely with our SVDP conference and truly appreciate its work in meeting the needs of our local families.

We thank Margot Denza for her hard work putting together our Angel Brigade program and Adriana Mascari and Kathy Smith who worked next to me, hand in hand until late hours for several days, checking files and putting together our different programs and to all our Parish Social Ministry volunteers. Thank you so much for your dedication and compassion. You make a positive difference in many peoples lives!!

Our special thank you to Joe and Tom the owners of “Torta Fina Bakery” who supplied baked goods to all of our families to sweeten their holiday. Torta Fina bakes more than 150 delicious bread loaves, every year, between Thanksgiving and Christmas.

We thank the Nursery School and Faith Formation for the food drive. We thank The American Legion for filling up our Pantry and also for the food card donations. We thank all of you for the many wonderful gifts, toys, gift cards and donations. With your help, Parish Social Ministry was able to brighten “Thanksgiving & Christmas” for over 150 families.

We are truly blessed

MONTH FOUR – Developing Baby Spiritual Adoption Program

Well, your little baby now weighs six ounces. He has fingernails and eyelashes. He has his own unique fingerprints, which will remain the same until he dies. His taste buds are working. His sense of hearing is developing and present at 14 weeks. There are no major developments anymore. Your spiritually adopted baby is already well-formed, internally and externally. At this stage rapid eye movements have been observed—a sign of dreaming. What a miracle he is!

Deacon’s Corner

Valuable

{from A World of Stories for Preachers and Teachers by William Bausch}

In his book Raising Your Child to Be a Messiah, Neil Kurshan tells about the medical student who went to see a counselor about whether she should complete medical school or drop out to raise a family. The counselor suggested that she could do both with a little outside help. The student explained that she had vowed never to entrust her children to a housekeeper. The counselor asked why, and the young woman explained that when she was a young child, her wealthy parents would vacation in Europe each summer and leave her with a nanny.

One year, when the girl was eleven, the housekeeper quit shortly before the parents were to leave for Europe. The parents were upset that their vacation was jeopardized, but a few days before their intended departure, they found a replacement. When the daughter noticed her mother wrapping up all the family silverware and jewels, she asked why, since it had never been done before. Her mother explained that she could not trust the new maid with the family valuables. That insensitive remark stabbed the little girl in the heart. Was she not a ‘family valuable’ of more worth that knives and forks? She never forgot the incident, and as she grew up, she promised herself that she would bring up her own children.

Reflections

A NEW LOOK FOR THE NEW YEAR

One of my more defining characteristics is procrastination. I have penned about this on numerous occasions, and, although I have made some progress in certain areas, my penchant for all things at the last minute is in the forefront of my brain. That is why New Year’s resolutions were abandoned years ago and why I have great admiration for people who can get things done in a timely manner.

Despite this shortcoming, I do see the advantage of getting an early start on, say, planning a party or arranging a trip or coordinating a family reunion. Social activities are important and are best done when planned and carried out in a timely manner. I have been on many a committee for events which were conceived, organized, fined tuned, and completed a year or so in advance. Of course, I still usually did my part a week before the proceedings.

What about things are less pleasant to address? My friend Megan has breast cancer, and the medical plan included four months of chemotherapy. When the first wisps of her beautiful hair started to depart, she called her two young daughters into the room, got her electric clippers, and had a “buzzing” party, with the girls helping, and Megan “smiling through it so they did not have to worry.”

When we embrace moments which challenge us, we are acknowledging we are not alone, that God is with us with at each step, filling our hearts with the Grace needed to handle it all. Megan, though initially having some understandably depressing moments, made the decision to take control and actually turn the obvious side effect of her treatment into a celebratory moment and positively share her family in it.

Certainly, the new year gives us an opportunity to face some challenge in our lives. But trials can arise at any time of the year, so we must be prepared. Knowing God is always there makes any challenge beatable.

Just ask Megan.

Deacon John
Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo,

Hace unos años, una pregunta me vuelve otra y otra vez: ¿Qué inspira a alguien para seguir a Cristo? Yo hablo de la primera chispa en el alma de un adulto que no es bautizado, que le guía a buscar por Cristo, posiblemente a través de la Biblia, un amigo fiel, o la Misa. Yo hablo de la inspiración que guía a una pareja a pedir a la Iglesia por bautismo para su infante. Hablo del momento cuando un joven adulto tenga que decidir a practicar la fe por su propia voluntad, no confía solamente en sus padres ya. Por último, hablo del alma fiel que se acerca del Señor más. ¿Qué inspira a estas personas? Si podemos contestar esta pregunta, también entenderemos la misión de la comunidad Cristiana mejor, porque es nuestra misión a ayudar al mundo conocer y seguir a Dios.

En la fiesta de la Epifanía, celebramos unos momentos cuando personas estuvieron inspirados por la revelación de Jesucristo. La historia de la celebración de la fiesta es muy interesante: diferentes regiones del mundo celebraban diferentes eventos de la vida de Jesús, pero todos celebraban al mismo tiempo (las primeras semanas del año). En nuestro tiempo, la Epifanía es una celebración de tres momentos especiales: la visita de los magos, el bautismo del Señor, el primer milagro a Cana. Para nosotros, el énfasis usualmente es en el primero, que es lógico porque somos Católicos Romanos, y el desarrollo de la fiesta en las regiones occidentales se enfocó en la visita de los magos. Sin embargo, en las tres, la gente está inspirada por un encuentro con Cristo donde el Señor se releva su majestad en una manera especial (por la estrella, por la presencia del Espíritu Santo como una paloma y del Padre en su voz, y por convertir el agua en vino). De hecho, una traducción de la palabra griega "Epifanía" es "manifestación;" el Señor se manifiesta su presencia en una manera gloriosa.

Quizás la fiesta de la Epifanía puede enseñarnos de inspiración. Cuando pienso en mi vida, en las vidas de los que conozco bien, y en las vidas de los santos, puedo ver que lo que inspira a todos es Dios mismo. Cuando encontramos su luz, manifestada en maneras diversas, pero sobre todo en los Sacramentos, Él afecta a nuestras almas en ese momento, guiándolas mas cerca a sí mismo. Si una experiencia del Señor es lo que inspira, entonces se puede describir nuestra misión como una Epifanía perpetua: para manifestar a Dios continuo por una vida santa. ¿Qué encontramos la luz de Cristo esta semana, y estemos listos para compartir la misma luz a nuestro mundo!

En Cristo,

p. Jason
