Eucharistic Minister Teams:
Weekend of February 1/2 - Team B
Weekend of February 8/9 - Team A
Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I would like to use this week's column to give an update on some of the ongoing repair projects taking place in the parish. I would also like to share about some new areas of concern, so that all of us can be praying for guidance on how to be good stewards of parish property.

The two main heating projects are progressing, albeit slowly. Since the standoff regarding natural gas in lower NY state has ended, we can proceed with the project to remove and replace the broken rectory boiler, which requires us to apply for an expansion to our existing natural gas line. In addition, an engineering firm has created a plan to replace the broken steam pipe that carries steam from the school boilers to the part of the building which heats the O'Connell Room and Nolan Hall. Next week, contractors will come to make bids on that project. We have budgeted for these two projects, though it will require us to use money from our reserves to pay for them.

The parking lot has developed some sizable potholes during the start of this Winter season. We have contracted to fix those issues. However, I have found that the last time the parking lot was completely replaced was 14 years ago; which means that we’re getting near the end of the life-span of our parking lot (this is different than any resurfacing or repainting which may have happened more recently). You may also note that the ground around the sewer drains is sinking. Within the next few years there will be the need to build up those areas and repave the parking lot. We may also remove old oil tanks at that time, as well.

Over the past two weeks, some significant issues have developed in the old convent building, where we have the thrift shop, food pantry, outreach services, St. Vincent de Paul, and Eucharistic exposition. First, the blowers for the PTAC units, which are used to heat and cool the thrift shop, broke. This forced us to close the thrift shop due to our inability to heat the space at that time. Our HVAC company is looking into the possibility of retrofitting motors onto the units (there are 2 motors per blower). These units are old - the company that made them has been out of business for over 20 years - and so we are hoping that something can be found as replacing the units would be costly. I also asked the HVAC company how much longer was left on the boiler for the building. His response was "a few to 5 years" before it would need a complete replacement.

On Friday of that same week, there was a flood on the first floor and the basement. The flood affected an area of the thrift shop that had been flooded before, though from a different, but related, source. After investigation, it is believed that the condition of the waste return pipes is so poor that normal water flow is not always possible. That, combined with a toilet lever that got stuck in the depressed position, led water to overflow in an excessive way. It is likely that we will need to replace the flooring on the first floor, which was just replaced after the last flood, and that we will need to replace the flooring of the basement, which would also require abatement work. Shelving units, molding, sheet rock, and paint on the walls all need to be redone. Around two dumpsters of clothing donations were destroyed. We are still working with our insurance company to determine the total loss, cost of repairs, and the amount that insurance will cover.

Other issues still remain, most importantly the need to replace the entirety of the flat roof of the school building, and the roof of the convent building. Also, it is still unclear why the church leaks sometimes when it rains. Please know that all of these issues are under constant surveillance. That being said, we will need to come to some important decisions soon. While we conducted a survey back in June regarding the use of buildings, I remain open to any suggestions that you may have. Should you be so inclined to make one, please submit it in writing to the main office.

Sincerely,
fr. Jason

MONTH FIVE – Developing Baby Spiritual Adoption Program

Your spiritually adopted baby weighs over one pound now, and his mother can feel his movement. Before this time he was too small for her to feel. Although he swam with ease in his watery world, he needed to be big and strong enough to kick hard against the outside wall and dent it - - the inside wall of the uterus has little feeling. We are mid-way through the pregnancy now. Your prayers have helped your baby’s mother continue with her pregnancy and seek the help she needs.

Deacon’s Corner

Elsa Joseph

{From A World of Stories for Preachers and Teachers by William Bausch}

Elsa Joseph was a Jewish woman who was cut off from her two children, both girls, during the Second World War. Years later, she discovered that both her daughters had been gassed at Auschwitz. A former concert violinist, Elsa’s response to this tragic news was to pick up her violin and go and play it in Germany. And there in the halls of the homeland of her children’s murderers, she played her violin and told her story that cried out to heaven for vengeance. But she did not seek vengeance. She spoke of the world’s deep need for reconciliation and forgiveness, without which it was tearing itself apart.

“If I, a Jewish mother, can forgive what happened,” she said to her audiences not only in Germany, but in Northern Ireland, and in Lebanon and in Israel, “then why can you not sink your differences and be reconciled to on another?”

Reflections

MY HERO

I think it started when I was in fourth grade. Hero worship, that is. Growing up in a Brooklyn Dodger family, I first attached myself to Gil Hodges, the All Star first baseman. When I was in 7th grade I made the CYO basketball team, so Bob Cousy of the Boston Celtics was my main man.

I guess the first hero I actually knew was my Philosophy instructor freshman year, Fr. Walter Heath, O.P., possessor of perhaps the most unique personality I have ever experienced. Over the years, there were others, but always a generation ahead of me. Fifteen years ago, I found a contemporary who was really a hero…decorated in fact by the United States with the Navy Cross. His heroism in the Vietnam War cost George Sullivan, USMC, the loss of his left leg above the knee, but he continued to enjoy life as much as anyone I have known for the next 52 years. “Sully”, as he liked being called, had an exceptional life on many levels, most importantly with his friends, his family, and his faith. Accomplished, yet humble; brave, yet gentle; competitive, yet gracious, Sully was dedicated to the principles the Founding Fathers and the Catholic Church and quite openly defended both. He was a devoted husband, a loving father, an adored grandfather, an involved community leader, an engaged Catholic, a true believer to the end, and a real hero to so many.

Part of being Irish is knowing that one day the world will break your heart. The hearts of many were a bit broken last Thursday when George Robert Sullivan took his final breath. His legacy, however, will help those broken pieces be reassembled so those hearts will be even stronger. Such is the effect of heroes.

Semper Fi, good friend.

Becem Maher
Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo,

Esta semana quiero compartir con ustedes información de la propiedad de nuestra parroquia y más información de unos proyectos.

Hay dos proyectos para arreglar el sistema de calefacción. Este es el progreso de los proyectos. Podemos remover el calentador viejo y poner un nuevo calentador en la casa de los sacerdotes. El calentador se ha quebrado el año pasado, pero no pusimos un nuevo porque teníamos que ampliar el caño del gas natural. Pero, la empresa de gas natural no permitía nuevos proyectos hasta el término de Noviembre. Además, una empresa de ingeniería hizo un plan para reemplazar el caño del vapor que se quebró. El vapor de este caño lo usamos para calentar el O’Connell Room y el Nolan Hall. Esta semana, los contratistas van a venir para hacer una oferta por el proyecto. Pusimos los dos proyectos en el presupuesto de este año, sin embargo tenemos que pagar con fondos de nuestra reserva de dinero.

El estacionamiento tenía unos baches, pero los hemos arreglado. Sin embargo, yo supe que la última vez que reemplazamos el recubrimiento del estacionamiento fue en 2006. Entonces, estamos al término de la duración del recubrimiento del estacionamiento y tendremos que poner uno nuevo en los próximos años. También, se puede ver que el suelo cerca de los desagües de alcantarillado está hundido . Tenemos que reconstruirlo. Y cuando pongamos un nuevo recubrimiento del estacionamiento, vamos a remover un antiguo tanque de petróleo.

Durante las dos semanas pasadas, nuevos problemas se presentaron en el convento, donde tenemos la dispensa de comidas, la tienda de segunda mano, los servicios sociales, la oficina de San Vicente de Paúl, y la exposición del Santísimo Sacramento. Primero, los ventiladores de dos radiadores (PTAC) pararon. Estos radiadores calientan la tienda de segunda mano. Pues, cerramos la tienda hasta que podamos tener calefacción. Una empresa está investigando si podemos usar motores nuevos para propulsar los ventiladores. Pero, los radiadores son muy viejos - la compañía que los hizo cerro su negocio hace 20 años. Es bastante caro comprar nuevos radiadores. El dueño de la empresa HVAC me dijo que el calentador de ese edificio va a parar de trabajar "en unos 5 años."

El viernes de la misma semana, era un diluvio en el primer piso y en el sótano. El agua afectó parte de la tienda de segunda mano. Después de una investigación creemos que la condición de los caños es tan mala que el agua no corre bien. También, la balanza del inodoro se atascó, creando el diluvio. Es probable que necesitemos poner un nuevo piso en el primer piso y en el sótano. También, perdemos muchas donaciones de ropa porque estaba mojada por mucho tiempo. Estamos trabajando con la compañía de seguros para establecer cuanto podemos recuperar.

Hay otros problemas. Lo más grande es el techo de la escuela y el techo del convento. También, no sabemos por qué el techo del templo principal gotea. Por favor, sepán que estas cosas están bajo nuestra vigilancia continuamente. Sin embargo, tenemos que decidir pronto lo que vamos a hacer, porque no tenemos fondos suficientes para salvar todo. Aunque pregunte a los parroquianos en Junio sobre lo que podemos hacer, si tiene más ideas por favor mándamelas por escrito a la oficina.

En Cristo,

p. Jason
