A Message from fr. Jason

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

It’s hard to believe it, but we’ve already arrived at Advent for another year. I want to use the bulletin column this week to let you know about some of the things to look forward to this Advent here at St. Joseph parish.

Starting with the most spectacular, I do invite all parishioners to make time to visit the Winter Wonderland that has been created in the O’Connell Room. I don’t want to give away all the secrets, but it suffices to say that the experience goes beyond awe-inspiring to hope-inspiring. If you have a family with young children you should not miss our Winter Wonderland! It will be running Fridays & Saturdays from 5:30pm - 9pm until the feast of the Holy Family. More details can be found on the website. Registration is necessary due to high demand for the event.

We will continue to have exposition of the Blessed Sacrament on Mondays. Do look for upcoming information about increasing the number of hours of exposition. We will need to make sure at least two people are available at all times!

On Wednesdays of Advent we will conduct a mission in the church from 7pm - 8pm featuring the different priests in the parish. Our theme will be “The Light of Hope in the Midst of Darkness.”

We will participate, once again, in the National Night of Prayer for Life. This is an extended time of exposition accompanied by various prayers, hymns, and ritual actions. This will take place from 9pm on the night of December 8th until 1am the morning of December 9th. These hours permit Catholics from all US time zones to be praying together for the final hour.

As in the past, we will have a day of reconciliation on Monday of Christmas week, which is December 21st this year. Confessions will be heard in the church from 3pm until 9pm. This is the perfect way to prepare for the Christmas holy day!

May the coming of the Prince of Peace fill you and your homes with hope this Advent season!

Sincerely,
fr. Jason

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo,

¿Puede creer que hemos empezado de nuevo el tiempo del Adviento? Quiero compartir con ustedes unas de las actividades que vamos a ofrecer en nuestra parroquia este Adviento.

Empezamos con la más espectacular: invito a todos a visitar nuestro paraíso invernal que está en el O’Connell Room. La experiencia es más que impresionante, es una oportunidad para recibir la esperanza nueva. Si tiene niños, ¡no se pierda esta actividad! Va a correr hasta la fiesta de la Sagrada Familia los viernes y sábados de las 5:30pm a las 9pm. Se encuentra más información en nuestro website. Tiene que registrarse porque prevemos mucha gente va a venir.

Continuamos orar con Jesús en el Santísimo los Lunes. Queremos añadir más horas. En las próximas semanas vamos a pedir al pueblo a inscribirse para adorar. Necesitamos dos personas por cada hora.

Los Miércoles del Adviento, tendremos una hora de oración y predicación de las 7pm a las 8pm en la iglesia. Las primeras tres semanas serán conducidas en inglés, la última en español. El tema es, "La luz de la esperanza entre las tinieblas."

Participaremos en [la noche de oración nacional por la vida." Es un tiempo de adoración, oración, alabanzas, y rituales. Será de las 9pm la noche del 8 de Diciembre a la 1am de la mañana del 9 de Diciembre. La última hora, todo de los Estados Unidos está en oración al mismo tiempo.

Como en los años pasados, el lunes de la semana de la Navidad, los sacerdotes vamos a confesar a la gente de las 3pm a las 9pm en la iglesia. ¡No puedo pensar en una mejor manera de prepararse para la Navidad!

¡Qué el Adviento del Príncipe de la Paz llene a ustedes y sus hogares con la esperanza!

En Cristo,
p. Jason

Better Watch Out, Better Not Cry, Better Not Pout….

You know the rest of the song, don’t you? This is the song we learned as children as we anticipated the coming of Santa Claus. Parents used the song for behavior modification during Advent because no child wants to be found whining or crying when Santa comes. Who wants to disappoint Santa? There is too much at stake. And in the light of the risk, children dry their eyes and cease their complaining—at least during December.

Active, hopeful waiting makes all the difference in our spirits and behavior, and not just when we are children. The Church begins a new year of worship today, the First Sunday of Advent. During the next four weeks we will join the children in the exercise of waiting, hoping and anticipating. But it is not Santa’s coming for which we wait. It is the coming of Christ. Advent marks the recognition of Christ in Bethlehem 2000 years ago. But Advent also looks forward to the hope and anticipation of the final coming of Christ at the close of history. The Church has designated these weeks as a season of preparation for our souls, lest the mystery and majesty of the coming of Christ be missed amid the hustle and bustle of the holiday season.

Our Gospel lesson today begins that journey of waiting. Jesus addresses the disciples, both in the first and twenty-first centuries, with a call to stay awake and alert. It is a wake-up call for the soul.

But we wait also with hope. Waiting, if it is to build faith and character, must be more than marking time, pacing floors, or watching clocks. It must be energized by hope. Waiting that builds faith points forward with eager anticipation. Preparing our hearts during Advent requires, and builds, just this type of waiting.

Jesus compared this waiting to household servants who are charged with supervision and stewardship of the master’s house while he is gone. They have too much to do running the master’s home to be idle, which also helps pass the time. But they are also responsible to the master when he returns, for he has entrusted them to take care of all that is precious to him. They want to please him, and they work tirelessly, awaiting his return. If they do the work well, they do not dread the master’s return. They are eager for it. They work to see the smile on his face. They do not know the hour of the return, but they are hopeful, nonetheless. In the same way, Jesus teaches us that he has left this world, and our lives within it, as his faithful trust in us to manage what is his until his return. We can be hopeful if we serve in the spirit of the servants in Jesus’ parable.

He knows if we have been bad or good, so be good for goodness sake…

Peace To All

Deacon Mike

How are we coping as a Parish?  How are YOU coping as a Family?
As we enter the seasons of Thanksgiving & Advent & Christmas
Let’s help one another look at the blessings in our lives.

We all realize that life has changed dramatically since March 2020 and we are constantly adapting to a ‘new normal’

As a parish—we have put Mass on-line and instituted a Mass Reservation System so that when people do attend, we can do our best to keep everyone safe.

Fr. Jason has offered on line workshops on Christology, the Saints, and documents by Saint JPII.

Our Faith Formation Department is working on a syllabus for at home learning, while our Nursery School has opened its doors with many COVID Safety Protocols in place.

We have Parishioners calling other Parishioners to check in and see how they are doing or to register them for Mass.

How are our families coping? Our Parish Families are made up of Singles living on their own, newlywed couples starting out, young families, senior families, and everything in between.

In the next couple of weeks, we will be highlighting some of those families here in the bulletin; sharing stories so we can get to know one another and also so we can remember that we are not alone in our struggles—and although our circumstances may not be identical to our neighbors, our Catholic Faith is a Universal Faith and perhaps by getting to know one another a little better, we can become just a little closer to Christ.

Care to share your blessings?
Email Barbara at bmcnulty@stjbabylon.org to share your story! Or call: 669-0068 ext 108
This pandemic has affected many families, many are gone and others like mine are here to share our experience. Despite our care, we were affected by this virus.

I work as a Nurse Assistant in a facility I was infected with the virus and days later my husband, my mother and my daughters were also infected with the fear of everything that this new evil brought, but with faith in God we faced this nightmare. Our complications took us to the hospital from where with very little hope and because she was the most risky, my mother survived. Thank God, my husband and I are recovering and we are here sharing our experience during these difficult times of the pandemic, and today to tell you that do not be afraid that you are not alone that we communicate to our community of San Jose de Babylon they are always there to help us spiritually and economically.

In my case, I have been blessed, my community has been praying for my family, they have helped me morally and have been watching my family by telephone and attending to my basic needs that at that time we could not face. Our earthly angels are here to support us, special thank you Ana from the Hispanic community for all your help. Anyone who needs my support I will be here to share my experience and help as much as possible.

God keep you healthy and bless you. God gives his best warriors hard times.

Have you noticed the Christmas Giving Trees?

There is one at the Church entrance and another in the Monsignor Nolan breezeway. Perhaps you would like to donate a gift for a child or homeless person this Christmas. If so, please take a tag and return it with your unwrapped gift to the Outreach Center by December 10th. These gifts will help our Outreach families and homeless people to have a warm and happy Christmas. In case you can’t drop it off during Outreach hours you can also bring presents to the Parish Center or leave them in the breezeway gift bin next to the Giving Tree.

Thanks for your support.

With sincere thanks.....

Thank you for your generosity during this year’s Thanksgiving season. We were blessed with food donations, supermarket gift cards, and turkeys. Our Parish Social Ministry clients were met warmly by St. Vincent de Paul volunteers who brought meals to our clients in the parking lot. We are thankful for being able to work with these compassionate, good-hearted Vincentians who work relentlessly to keep the pantry stocked and at the same time reach out to families in such a loving way. We would also like to send a special thank you to the Garvey family for their generous support in bringing tons of food, not only during the pandemic but also for Thanksgiving. Additionally, we want to extend our gratitude to the American Legion for the food drive and turkeys, the St. Joseph Nursery School for food donations and to our faithful friends of Torta Fina Bakery, who baked 90 delicious loaves that we distributed to our Parish Social Ministry families. Also we are grateful to the Pititto family for bringing 10 large boxes with a whole meal for Thanksgiving, to all Parish Social Ministry Volunteers for their faithful work and most importantly we wish to express our gratitude to all St. Joseph Parishioners for their ongoing support. Thanks to you, we can fulfill our mission. May the Lord fill your home with love and happiness.

Memorial Poinsettias

Each year during the Advent season, as we prepare for the celebration of the Birth of our Savior, our thoughts turn to memories we hold dear in our hearts. For so many of us who have lost a beloved family member or someone dear to us, it is also a time of remembrance of our departed loved ones. As a way of commemorating their memory at this joyous time, we invite you to memorialize one of the many Poinsettia plants that will grace our altars in the coming weeks.

Poinsettias will be placed in our Church and Nolan Hall.
Your contribution of $20 will make this effort possible.
(Please make check payable to St. Joseph Church.)

A list of all Poinsettia donations will be published in our Parish bulletin in the December 20, 2020 bulletin.

The closing date is Wednesday, December 9, 2020. Please drop off your order form and donation in the mailbox outside the Parish Office or mail order form and donation to St. Joseph Church, 39 No. Carll Ave., Babylon, NY 11702; Attention: Theresa.

Know that you and all your loved ones will be remembered as our generous benefactors as we celebrate the Christmas season.

When I arrived at Providence College with my parents freshman year, I was the first to walk into 426 Aquinas Hall. Room assignments were alphabetical in those days, so I wound up with a McMahon and a McNamara, both of whom arrived shortly later. Intimated almost immediately, I barely spoke for the first week. Over the year, however, life-long friendships developed, as they did with my other roommates during my time at PC. Roommate bonds can be lasting.

Few such connections have been as remarkable, however, as those of Bill Kennedy and his wife Megan. College sweethearts who later married, Bill had John and Dave, while Megan roomed with Denise and Maureen. The two groups had great times together and saw no reason things should change after graduation. Separated geographically, these friends were still able to stay together, if not in person, at least in spirit. They were tight through thick and thin, though thin came sooner than they ever imagined.

Bill had an illness which he was unable to address, even with a happy marriage and two loving children. At age 39, Bill died, leaving Megan an early widow and a single parent. This is where his roommates came up big.

John and Dave sat down with Megan and pledged their total support emotionally and spiritually while she raised her children, being at their special occasions and availing a fatherly presence when needed; they were as good to Megan as they had been to Bill. The promise worked, and the children are now adults, on their own, and doing well.

The support of Denise and Maureen was equally important to Megan when she battled clear cell cancer: being with her, securing the children’s future, and praying for her each day until mid-autumn when her battle ended peacefully.

We are called to love our neighbor, often in ways we never imagined. A virtue which helps is loyalty. During Advent, let us ask God for the Grace we need to understand His commandment to love and to realize, like these roommates, the scope this may entail.

Poinsettias Conmemorativas

Cada año durante la temporada de Adviento, mientras nos preparamos para la celebración del Nacimiento de nuestro Salvador, nuestros pensamientos se vuelven hacia los recuerdos que apreciamos en nuestro corazón. Para muchos de nosotros que hemos perdido a un familiar querido o un ser querido, también es un momento de recuerdo de nuestros seres queridos fallecidos. Como una forma de conmemorar su memoria en este momento feliz, te invitamos a conmemorar una de las muchas plantas de Poinsettia que adornarán nuestros altares en las próximas semanas.

Poinsettias se colocarán en nuestra Iglesia y Nolan Hall. Su contribución de $ 20 hará posible este esfuerzo. (Haga el cheque pagadero a St. Joseph Church).

Se publicará una lista de todas las donaciones de Poinsettia en nuestro boletín parroquial en el boletín del 20 de Diciembre del 2020.

La fecha de cierre es el miércoles 9 de diciembre del 2020. Por favor, deje su formulario de pedido y donación en el buzón fuera de la oficina parroquial o formulario de pedido por correo y donación a la iglesia St. Joseph, 39 No. Carll Ave., Babylon, NY 11702 - Atención: Theresa.

¡Sepa que usted y todos sus seres queridos serán recordados como nuestros generosos benefactores mientras celebramos la temporada navideña!
