

Moses stood in front of the Elders of Israel, and as God instructed him to do, struck the rock. Water poured forth just as God said it would.