CCD is our Catholic Church's religious education program. CCD not only educates children about Jesus and our Catholic faith but prepares children to receive the sacraments of Confession (Reconciliation), the Holy Eucharist (Holy Communion), and Confirmation. Along with celebrating Mass, CCD provides a glorious opportunity to begin and grow our relationship with Jesus. In order to promote good learning, a safe, considerate, and positive classroom environment is necessary. The following rules and measures are in place for parents and students to establish and maintain this environment:

- Please treat others with respect , come prepared for class, and behave in class
- Please follow directions from CCD teachers and aides
- Please make every attempt to attend each class. Teachers will provide opportunities for makeup/take home work and quizzes/tests, as the teacher sees fit. However, excessive absences are not acceptable. Three (3) or more unexcused/unmade-up absences will require a consultation with the teacher and Father Matt to determine that student's future CCD participation.
- Please make every attempt to attend Sunday Mass with your child, to reinforce the lessons learned in CCD class and grow their Catholic faith. Prolonged absence from Mass will also require a consultation with the CCD teacher and Father Matt.
- Please review your child's lessons and homework assignments, before and after each class.
- Please follow Archdiocese rules and guidelines for safe COVID-19 participation, including wearing masks.

If you have any questions regarding these CCD rules please see or contact Mary Ellen Heinze, Tracey Wade, or Nils Anderson. Inappropriate behavior or poor attendance may involve a note home to the parent/guardian, a meeting with our Pastor, Father Matt Fish, and Mrs. Heinze.
