Dear fellow members of St. Denis and Our Lady of the Wayside,

In the Gospel reading of today Jesus tells the Pharisees who tried to trap him, “Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God.” Jesus defied human authorities when he had to, but he was not against authority in principle. Our first obligation is to God because everything belongs to him. The state has a role too and it does not supplant God. As Christians we enjoy dual citizenship. But, we render worship to God alone. In other things we acknowledge and serve our country, praying that those responsible will rule us wisely and justly. But Jesus has the ultimate words on authority, “The Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve.”

I would like to thank Dede Masters and her helpers for the wonderful Italian Dinner. I would like to thank Craig and Margaret London for donating their award winning Merlo from their winery to the Dinner. My thanks I would like to extend to John and Jo De Luca for their generosity in paying for the white wines that were served at the Italian Dinner. Thank you!

Yours sincerely,
Fr. Jose Shaji

Gospel Reading

The Pharisees went off and plotted how they might entrap Jesus in speech. They sent their disciples to him, with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are a truthful man and that you teach the way of God in accordance with the truth. And you are not concerned with anyone’s opinion, for you do not regard a person's status. Tell us, then, what is your opinion: Is it lawful to pay the census tax to Caesar or not?" Knowing their malice, Jesus said, "Why are you testing me, you hypocrites? Show me the coin that pays the census tax." Then they handed him the Roman coin. He said to them, "Whose image is this and whose inscription?" They replied, "Caesar's." At that he said to them, "Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God."

Lucile Packard Children’s Hospital
AT STANFORD

Religious Ed Family Service Project
To support and give encouragement to families who have babies in the NICU at Lucile Packard Children's Hospital, we, as a Religious Ed community, will be creating Blessing Bags.

How can you help?
First and foremost, save Sunday, November 2nd 10:30am -11:30am on your calendar. That is when we will have our family service workshop where you and your kids will gather to assemble the NICU Blessing Bags and make a card for the parents who will be receiving the bag. We will also have a guest speaker from Lucile Packard. Whether you make a donation (see below) or not, please attend this great opportunity to serve alongside your children in a simple project that makes a big difference.

Second, during the month of October, which the Church recognizes as Respect Life Month, we will be gathering the supplies which will make up the blessing bags (we are accepting items now through October 30th).

If you don't have time to gather supplies, you can make a monetary donation instead which will be used to purchase the supplies needed to make our blessing bags - the cost is about $8/blessing bag.

If you want to gather supplies, we're looking for:
- Travel toiletries (Shampoo, toothpaste, etc.)
- Lotion (hands get dry from sanitizing constantly)
- Pads
- Notebook and Pens
- Books to read to the babies
- Water bottles
- Non-Perishable Snacks

Thank you in advance for participating in this service project. If you have questions, please contact me (lwest@stdenisparish.org)

MOPS is a grassroots movement that believes moms are world influencers. MOPS stands for Mothers of Preschoolers, and by preschoolers we mean kiddos from birth and up. We know it's a little confusing so let's just stick with "MOPS." If you are interested in our new ministry for moms, MOPS, contact Lindsey: lwest@stdenisparish.org.

Saint of the Week: St. John Cantius

October 20 - Born at Kenty, near Oswiecim, Diocese of Krakow, Poland, 1412 (or 1403); died at Krakow, 1473, and was buried there under the church of St. Anne; his feast is on 20 October. He was the son of Stanislaus and Anne who were pious country people; he received his primary education at his native town, and then being sent by his parents to the Academy of Krakow, he soon impressed his professors and colleagues with his pleasant and amiable disposition; always happy, but serious, humble, and godly, he won the hearts of all who came in contact with him. Having made excellent progress in the study of philosophical and theological sciences, he was graduated first as bachelor, then as master and doctor, was ordained priest and then appointed professor of theology at the Academy of Krakow, from where he was sent, after a short time, by his superiors to Olkusz, Diocese of Krakow, to be parish priest. Being afraid of the great responsibility of parish work, he very soon left the parish, and was again appointed professor of Sacred Scripture at the Academy of Krakow, which position he held without interruption until his death. As testified by Michael Miechowita, the medieval Polish historian and the saint's first biographer, extreme humility and charity were conspicuous in his life. He distributed to the poor all the money and clothes he had, retaining only what was absolutely necessary to support himself. He slept but little, and on the floor, ate very sparingly, and was a total abstainer from meat after he became a doctor. He made one pilgrimage to Jerusalem with the desire of becoming a martyr among the Turks, and four pilgrimages to Rome on foot. During his life he performed various miracles, which were multiplied after his death at his tomb. He was canonized by Clement XIII in 1767. The Roman Breviary distinguishes him with three hymns; he is the only confessor not a bishop who is thus honored.

Today’s second collection is for the World Mission Sunday Appeal. Your prayers and generous support offered to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith on World Mission Sunday directly benefit the mission Church - places like Mongolia where the young church is growing, filled with zeal for the faith, but lacking resources for its outreach to families and those in need. Please be generous.

The classes started on Sunday, October 5. It’s not too late to join. Each of the six classes will last about one hour and meet about 10 minutes after the end of the 9:30 Mass. In the first part of the class, we will explain the Bible readings for that particular Sunday with their historical background and meanings. Then we will give some applications for these readings for today’s world. In the second part of the class, we will discuss what may be of interest to the class in the Church’s ongoing activities in today’s world. In the last part of the class, we will be going over the Councils of the Church up to and including Vatican II.

Everyone is invited to come. There is no preparation needed. If you have any questions, just pick up the phone and call John Lippert at (650) 854-3278.

Winter Clothing Drive

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul of San Mateo County (SvDP) serves the forgotten, suffering or deprived in our midst. Annually, SvDP helps over 31,000 people - almost half of whom are children. November 2nd, 9th, and 16th at St. Denis, there will be a barrel in the Church available for donations of winter clothing for children such as coats or jackets, socks, hats, or gloves. Your donations will be gratefully received to help families and neighbors in need. Thank you in advance, and may God bless you for your generosity.
