“My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me”

John 10:14
To be known personally is a very human desire. It is a need that we have as human beings. When we are not known, we feel alone, abandoned and forgotten. As your pastor, I believe it is very important to know the names of my parishioners. As I get older, I find it a little more difficult to remember names. In my younger days, it was a lot easier. I was much better at it. The names of trouble makers, though, are easier to remember for some reason. Unfortunately, there are no trouble makers here.

Jesus is more than a Shepherd. He is our Good Shepherd. He knows each and every one of us and calls us by name. He knows who we are for we are his. We belong to him. There is also the human need to be held, tenderly and lovingly. And so we are by Jesus and by God.

In your private prayer, try to imagine and feel this. Feel being held by the hands of our Good Shepherd, and believe in your heart that you are cared for by him. Jesus and by God.

The Prayers of the Faithful

One of the features of the Synagogue liturgy was a group of 18 prayer requests that considered both general and individual needs. So, from the earliest times in our Christian history, we have had prayers of petition. In the mid-second century Justin the Martyr instructed: "Offer prayers in common for ourselves... and for people everywhere." These prayers were originally so connected with the faithful, that the catechumens had to leave the Church before they were uttered as part of the Eucharistic celebration. Gradually these prayers developed into formalized litanies and it wasn’t until the reforms of Vatican II that the Prayers of the Faithful were revived as we know them today.

When we write the Prayers of the Faithful each week, we try to use the following format: the needs of the Church, public authorities and the salvation of the world, those who are oppressed in some way, and the local community. Every few weeks there is a prayer intention that seeks to remind folks that we have a prayer intention book where parishioners can write special intentions. Hopefully all of us in our parish community will take time to pray for those prayerful intentions of our fellow parishioners!
