Towel Collection Drive

Once again the parishioners at St. Denis and Our Lady of the Wayside have come through to help those we're here to serve. We had our Annual Towel Collection for St. Anthony’s kitchen and because of everyone’s generosity, we were able to give two bags of wonderful bath towels to Maple Street Shelter, two boxes and 3 large bags to St. Anthony’s Kitchen to be used for dish towels (some were brand new), and then quite by accident, but I assume through a little divine intervention, I learned that many of the men are given vouchers for a shower, but don’t have a towel. So we were able to leave more bath towels with Pat who heads the clothing distribution center at St. Anthony’s.

Thank you one and all for answering the call and helping those who may not always be able to help themselves.

BIG SENS vs LITTLE SINS

The Gospel today reminds us that we are all sinners, we can all be forgiven, and we should all be grateful for that forgiveness.

But my sins aren’t big ones. I have little sins, what we used to call venial sins. I lie a little, or cheat a little, or gossip a little, or love too little. Nothing big, nothing mortal.

Because I sin in little ways, I can ignore the ways sin can hurt me and others around me. I skip confession, or reconciliation, because I don’t need it that much. And so I’m not that grateful for the forgiveness I receive either.

Sound familiar?

Jesus calls me out today.

I am reminded that all sin separates me from God and from others. All sin needs to be confronted and confessed. All sinners need forgiveness, and we should be as grateful as the woman in the Gospel today.

We do a lot of soul-searching during Lent, but why not spend some time right now examining our consciences, admitting our sins, and celebrating God’s forgiveness?

Yours in the Lord, Lucy Soltau
