Pastor's Corner

Dear Beloved Parishioners,

The only time I was ever sent to the principal's office was when I was in fourth grade. This kid and I got into a tussle. I do not remember what the tussle was about, but I definitely remember that I did not start it. Believe it or not, I am a lover not a fighter. I do not start fights just end them. As the principal is asking us some questions about what happened, I begin to cry profusely. I could not stop crying and shaking. It was probably because I was so scared. I thought that I was going to be in big trouble.

The principal is basically judge, juror and executioner. The principal could see that these tears of mine were tears of innocence. He could obviously see that I was the innocent one. He told me that I could go back to class. When I left his office, I was amazed that he did not yell at us nor did he make us feel bad. All that I remember from being in the hot seat was that the principal was so incredibly kind, compassionate and merciful to me.

That is how our God is as well. Today's Responsorial Psalm reminds us of this absolute truth about God. It mentions that our God pardons all of our iniquities and redeems us. Merciful and gracious is the Lord, slow to anger and does not deal with us according to our sins. No matter what we do, even if we are sent to the principal's office, God forgives us and loves us unconditionally. This does not mean that we can do whatever we want. Being human, we are bound to sin. With confidence in God's compassion, we can return to him and ask for forgiveness and he will forgive us. He is not going to banish us nor are we going to be exiled. God, by his very nature, is a gatherer. What is scattered by sin is gathered by God. May you always believe in your heart that our God is kind and merciful.

God bless,
Fr. Paul

We Believe

Discovering the Reservoir

Today's "Discourse on the Plain" Jesus sums up the world view we are called to follow. "Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful." Jesus tells us that we are the receptors of divine grace and blessing. As believers we are asked to acknowledge and accept those precious gifts for ourselves and to give them freely without payback to others.

Culturally we are a contractual people. We do for others and they, in turn, do for us. Equity, equality, democracy, and leadership are values meant for the deserving. We are taught to measure and then repay kindness and mercy by the same measure we receive it.

Jesus calls us to a different viewpoint when He challenges us to measure our love to others by his Father's boundless standards. The first step to this challenge is to awaken up our own awareness, gratitude, and ability to graciously receive what is graciously given. Only in the belief that God unconditionally loves each one of us in our uniqueness, can we find the reservoir of love and caring Jesus asks us to bestow on others in His name. The upcoming season of Lent gives us all an opportunity to examine how we receive God's unconditional love and how we give it to others. Here is a short prayer from Joyce Rupp's "Giving and Receiving" to get us in the right frame of mind:

Gracious Giver, so much has been bestowed upon me. I lack for little and yearn for so much. Continue to teach me to appreciate what has come to me as blessing and gift. Keep on urging and challenging me to share what I have. Help me to give generously and freely of my bounty. I offer you my thanks for all that has been granted to me. Amen.

St. Anthony's 5th Saturday Team

The Outreach Committee is looking to put a team together to help out at St. Anthony's Padua Dining Room in Redwood City for 2019.

We are needed on the 5th Saturdays which include March 30, June 29, August 31 and November 30.

The hours could vary, but they would like someone there between 9:00 for prep work, set-up and service to 1:00 for clean-up and grocery distribution. Lunches are served every day but Sunday from 11:00 to 1:00 and no one is turned away.

The Dining Room first opened its' doors in September 1974 to serve the low-income elderly with a week-end meal. Since then it has expanded to provide hot, nourishing meals Monday to Saturday year-round to all who come seeking a meal and safe place to eat. They also provide groceries to take home.
