

Flow on altar

- EMHC's will line up at the bottom stairs by ambo near the hand rail after "Lord I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed".
- Once the priest has consumed the sacred host, go up the stairs and stand behind the rug in front of the priest and deacon chairs.
- EMHC Lead (Choir) will go up last and pew-bound 2nd to the last.
- The priest will give communion to the deacon, altar servers , Right Host 1 (Choir), pew bound and the remaining EMHCs.

WITH A DEACON

- After receiving communion, walk up to the altar server standing closet to the ambo; they will sanitize your hands then proceed to the deacon to receive your ciborium.
- If serving RH1(Choir) and pew bound you will go directly to your positions to serve once you receive your ciborium from the deacon
- All other EMHCs after receiving your ciborium from the deacon will return to where they were standing and wait for the priest to leave the altar before distributing communion.

WITHOUT A DEACON

- All EMHCs after receiving communion from the priest will sanitize their hands by an altar server and then proceed back to the line and wait for the priest to distribute their ciborium.
- If serving RH1(Choir) and pew bound you will go directly to your positions to serve once you receive your ciborium from the priest.
