How am I preparing for our 20th Anniversary of the Adoration Chapel? We have a team of 2 weeding the flower beds in the parking lot; trying to power wash the cement tops of the 12 brick pillars at the top of the parking lot along Pike Street; our in-house decorator has put a festive look on the outside of the Chapel including lights at night; on the inside, all the chairs and pew cushions have been professionally cleaned (We thank those who weekly clean this space); preparing for the Eucharistic Procession from the church to the Chapel and the luncheon to follow as a thank you to our adorers; some are taking advantage of our Adult Education on the elements/parts of the Mass; and this is a time to deepen our great love of the risen Lord among us in His Eucharistic Real Presence. May we spend time and visit our Best Friend who is waiting patiently in every Tabernacle and especially in our Chapel. This is a time of grace for us. There are still four (4) hours open for your personal adoration if you would like to choose one.

Our Parish is invited to participate in Our Lady of Fatima Annual National Rosary Crusade at the Clarksburg City Park/ Nutter Fort, WV on Saturday, October 12, 2019 at Noon. In 1917, at Fatima, Portugal, our Blessed Mother appeared to three children with some important messages of terrible events to come and how those events could be prevented. Her request was that we pray the rosary for the conversion of sinners and for peace.
