With all the chaos and uncertainty in the world right now, I'm growing concerned about how it's all affecting the children. Here are some ways we can let them know they are safe and loved: 1) Notice and pay attention to them 2) Smile a lot 3) Acknowledge them 4) Ask them about their day 5) Engage and play with them 6) Really listen to them 7) Look in their eyes when you're talking with them 8) Listen to their stories 9) Surprise them 10) Share in their excitement 11) Discuss their dreams and concerns 12) Thank them 13) Display their artwork in your home 14) Compliment them on doing something right 15) Ask for their opinion 16) Tell them how much you enjoy being with them 17) Let them express to you how they feel 18) Tell them how proud you are of them 19) Hug them, and 20) Tell them every day that you love them. May God continue to bless us all. Peace!

--Father Chris

Congratulations and God's choicest blessings on Frankie Bowen and Cameron Kellar, who received our Lord for the very first time recently. Frankie received his on Sept. 5 and Cameron received his on Oct. 25. May we all -- their parish family -- always support them and show God's love by example as they continue on their journey with Christ.

The Pastoral Council will meet at 6:40 pm, after Mass, on Tuesday, Nov. 24, in the social hall. Parishioners are welcome to attend as guests to listen, but will not be permitted to actively participate in the discussion.

The Altar Society will be putting together 10 Christmas food baskets for the needy this year, which will be distributed on a first-come, first-served basis. Food has been donated by parishioners. Please call the office at 304-592-2733 by Dec. 10, to provide the name of someone in need. The baskets are scheduled to be given out on Dec. 19.

In continuing efforts to enforce safety precautions amid the Covid pandemic, the church office and rectory are closed to the public and will remain locked at this time. If you need to speak to someone in the office, call 304-592-2733, or contact Father Chris at 304-312-6377. Any appointments will be conducted in the church social hall, where social distancing can be better maintained. We apologize for any inconvenience and thank you for your cooperation as we navigate this pandemic together.

Also, please remember that masks MUST be worn upon entering the church and continue throughout the Mass. The masks must completely cover the mouth and nose. The only time they can be pulled away is when receiving communion. If you do not have a mask, the ushers can provide one. If you cannot wear a mask for health reasons, we ask that you please remain at home.

More volunteers are needed to help in the cleaning/sanitizing of the church after each gathering, as well as others to help in ushering/hospitality. Please consider adding your name to the weekly rotation.

The phone system in the office is still in the process of being repaired. We hope to have it operating properly soon. We appreciate your patience!

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: "Be more concerned with your character than your reputation, because your character is what you REALLY are, while your reputation is merely what others THINK you are."

--John Wooden
