I have always loved snow! As a boy, there was no better feeling than to wake up to the realization that, due to the fluffy white stuff, school had been cancelled. When that happened, my mother used to wake us Turner kids up just to tell us ... we could sleep in! When I did get up, the first thing I would do is look out the window at the beautiful snow. The sight of the blanket of white was so peaceful. That is God ... peaceful. He is quiet. This new week -- the second week of Advent -- can you and I spend some quiet time with God? Let us be not afraid to be still with Him, the God of Love, Jesus. Peace and blessings!
--Father Chris
