Dear Parishioners,

Greetings to you from Fr. John Peter Swaminathan. The Fourth of July this year falls on Sunday and therefore it will be celebrated on Monday as a National Holiday. The Fourth of July stands for independence and freedom. This day is for us to look back and see the good our country has done instead of the bad. We look at the average day people who are seen as heroes by so many. People make up our country, and they are the ones who decide if they want to make it great or not.

America in 1776 used this day to celebrate our independence after signing the Declaration of Independence. During this time, we had finally been free from the British Empire and from then on, we have lived on as our own country. We as a nation live our life, and we are given more rights than many other countries. We are given the right to speak and express ourselves. We are given the right to love. We may not be the perfect nation but we, the people, are still correcting and attempting to make life better.

The Fourth of July is a day to look at our loved ones and be happy that history brought you here today. Our family's descendants have different backgrounds, and without our independence, they may have never immigrated to America. Our differences and clashing beliefs are what makes us Americans. We are allowed to think and speak out. We are allowed to change something we don't like collectively. We are allowed to show emotion whether it be sadness, hatred or love. We are allowed to become whoever we set our minds to. We are allowed to be ourselves.

The Fourth of July is a day to contemplate and think of how far we've come as a nation and how far we will go as a nation. The people get to make our future. The next generation gets to make America better than where we left off. The Fourth of July is a special day to not only celebrate the history of our independence but a day to believe in the future of our country and what we as people can accomplish.

Therefore, on this day we thank the Lord for this great country that we are in and for all the sacrifices that so many have made for our freedom and for our safety. May we also do our part to make this country great in our own way and be proud that we also have contributed to the greatness of this country.

Please consider joining other members of the Church to worship together. Thank You for all that you do to the Church.

God bless us all,
Fr. John Peter Swaminathan

Estimados feligreses,

Saludos de parte del P. John Peter Swaminathan. El 4 de julio de este año cae en domingo y por lo tanto se celebrará el lunes como Fiesta Nacional. El cuatro de julio representa la independencia y la libertad. Este día es para que miremos hacia atrás y veamos lo bueno que ha hecho nuestro país en lugar de lo malo. Nos fijamos en la gente corriente que muchos consideran héroes. La gente forma nuestro país, y son ellos los que deciden si quieren hacerlo grande o no.

Estados Unidos en 1776 utilizó este día para celebrar nuestra independencia después de firmar la Declaración de Independencia. Durante este tiempo, finalmente habíamos sido libres del Imperio Británico y desde entonces, hemos vivido como nuestro propio país. Nosotros, como nación, vivimos nuestra vida y tenemos más derechos que muchos otros países. Tenemos derecho a hablar y expresarnos. Se nos concede el derecho a amar. Puede que no seamos la nación perfecta, pero nosotros, la gente, todavía estamos corrigiendo e intentando mejorar la vida.

El 4 de julio es un día para mirar a nuestros seres queridos y alegrarnos de que la historia los haya traído aquí hoy. Los descendientes de nuestra familia tienen diferentes antecedentes y, sin nuestra independencia, es posible que nunca hubieran emigrado a Estados Unidos. Nuestras diferencias y creencias enfrentadas son lo que nos hace estadounidenses. Se nos permite pensar y hablar. Se nos permite cambiar algo que no nos gusta colectivamente. Se nos permite mostrar emoción, ya sea tristeza, odio o amor. Se nos permite convertirnos en quien nos proponemos. Se nos permite ser nosotros mismos.

El 4 de julio es un día para contemplar y pensar en lo lejos que hemos llegado como nación y lo lejos que llegaremos como nación. La gente puede hacer nuestro futuro. La próxima generación puede hacer que Estados Unidos sea mejor que donde lo dejamos. El 4 de julio es un día especial no solo para celebrar la historia de nuestra independencia, sino también un día para creer en el futuro de nuestro país y en lo que nosotros, como personas, podemos lograr.

Por lo tanto, en este día agradecemos al Señor por este gran país en el que estamos y por todos los sacrificios que tantos han hecho por nuestra libertad y por nuestra seguridad. Que también podamos hacer nuestra parte para hacer que este país sea grandioso a nuestra manera y estar orgullosos de haber contribuido también a la grandeza de este país.

Considere unirse a otros miembros de la Iglesia para adorar juntos. Gracias por todo lo que le hace a la Iglesia.

Dios nos bendiga a todos,
P. John Peter Swaminathan

OLV Building Renovation Fundraiser

Members of our Building Committee will be contacting parishioners to seek a personal meeting to discuss plans for the Church’s renovation projects. They will come with my letter, pledge card and the photos of the church projects. We have put in a lot of time and effort in this venture and we invite you to be receptive to them. Please note that to receive approval from the Archdiocese to move forward, we must collect half of the donations in cash and half in pledges. I request you graciously inviting a committee member into your home and your financial contribution in the renovation. Fr. John Peter
