

Two Missions with Four Wings in India

Mission 1 – Support to the Poor Students and the Teachers

1. Education of the Poor Students: Under the umbrella of the Little Angels Service Team, 120 poor rural children (Hindus, Muslims and Christians) are getting financial help to foster their education.

Just $ 25 per month per child ($ 300 per year) will meet the major portion of their tuition fee, uniform and books.

There are millions and millions of bright students in and around our mission area, but just because of their financial constraints, they are unable to go to school to fulfill their dreams. The Little Angels is trying to bring change at least in the lives of some deserving children. With your help, we can fulfill the dreams of many more poor children.

2. Supporting the Teachers: 26 teachers working directly or indirectly with our sponsored students are getting $ 50 per month as special support to their families. All these teachers are working in rural private schools for very low wages ($ 55 - $ 85 per month) and due to the pandemic, they are unable to get even that amount. Most of their families are surviving only on the $ 50 help provided by us.

Just $ 50 per month per teacher ($ 600 per year) can meet the basic needs of their families.

Note: We are helping the students and the teachers through The Little Angels Service Team, a nonprofit organization registered here in Austin with 501(C) (3).

2. Motorbikes for the Catholic Priests: Kurnool Catholic Diocese comprises of two civil districts (Kurnool and Anantapur) with 92,500 Catholics in 60 rural parishes and 300 missions spread in 17000 square miles. Since the people are very poor and go for work during the day, priests visit the missions only in the evenings to administer the sacraments. They are in need of transportation to cover all the missions and the best transportation will be having their own Motorbikes. Each motorbike costs 1700 – 1800 USD.

Note: We are helping the sisters for their activities and the priests for their own motorbikes through The KCST India (Kurnool Catholic Support Team), a nonprofit organization registered here in Austin with 501(C) (3).

Your contributions for the good works of Religious Sisters and for the Priests motorbikes can be addressed in the name of KCST India (Kurnool Catholic Support Team India) and reach to
