SOCIAL JUSTICE CORNER

Mother's Day Blessings

Lord, we ask your abundant blessings on all those who 'mother'. They join you in the miracle of bringing forth new life. Their lives speak of love and sacrifice, joys and pains. Let us especially remember today: mothers-to-be...women who patiently wait to conceive and those who are unable to give birth...step-mothers...foster mothers...single mothers...teenage mothers...mothers who courageously choose to give birth and not abort...mothers who have aborted who seek healing...those who lovingly 'mother' children who are not their own...those who are caregivers...mothers of special needs children...mothers who work two and three jobs to provide for their families...mothers who sacrifice food and personal needs to feed their children...mothers who suffer personal hardships and addictions...mothers of those in jail and prison...immigrant and refugee mothers...and those separated from their children. We especially remember mothers who grieve the deaths of their children, grandchildren and their own mothers, who gave them the gift of life. We pray for mothers whose hearts are broken by disharmony among their family members-who yearn for forgiveness and to be forgiven. Lord bless all mothers with every spiritual blessing they need in their special vocation. Give them patience, courage and strength. Let mothers look to You and Our Blessed Mothers for guidance. She especially understands the joys, pains, and sorrow of mothers, always leading them to you. We wish all mothers, grandmothers and those who 'mother in any way. a very Happy Mother's Day!

Sandwiches for the Homeless Thank you for your donations to the sandwich-making ministry here at Queen of Apostles. We meet twice a month to prepare sandwiches, fruit and snack for the homeless who come to Casa De Clara, a Catholic Worker House in San Jose. We gladly accept donations of peanut butter, jam, granola bars and cash donations. Please bring the food to Fr. Jim's garage. Cash donations may be left at the Rectory. Thank you for your generosity.

Ascension Sunday (Mother's Day)

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Today, we celebrate Mothers' Day, a great holiday because it honors the person who first showed each of us the love that reflects the love of God for each of us. Next month we will repeat this celebration for Dads but this Sunday is for Mom's and for us to show our special love for them. For those of us who have Moms now in Heaven we remember them with love in our hearts and share that love with others in our lives. And for those of us who never knew our earthly mother, we have the Blessed Mother Mary who will always show us her maternal love if we but ask for it.

My Friends, too often we are presented the message of God's love in terms of obligation and duty rather than in terms of joy that Jesus tried to show us. Many times our churches set up rules for us to follow. They tell us that we must do this or that to remain in a state of grace, to be saved, to go to Heaven. Some of these rules actually diminish us and/or create distinctions among us that God never intended. They do not come from His love. Most times I believe the authorities act out of good intentions but it seems to me they overlook the central relationship of friendship that we all have with God so long as we love one another. We are called to the same relationship Jesus has with us. It is one of love and acceptance for each other with all our flaws and defects.

We are passionately loved by our Heavenly Father and it has nothing to do with whether we are good or bad. Rather it is because we simply exist. All he asks of us is to love Him in return. And just as we love the newborn child in our lives without any effort on behalf that child, so does Abba love each and everyone of us without any effort on our part.

The message of God's unconditional love for us is amply demonstrated in today's scripture readings. Peter is summoned to Cornelius' home, a Roman officer in the despised conqueror's army. Cornelius is not a Jew though he is a good man who distributes alms to the poor and has helped the Jews to build a synagogue. Still, he is the enemy. Yet he practices the one command Jesus gives his disciples at the Last Supper. He practices love even for those who do not like him. Peter is not so sure that he belongs in Cornelius' house until he sees the Spirit working among Cornelius' family. Then Peter realizes that God's love is for everyone. and they all sit down to enjoy themselves. That is what God wants for all of us. I like to imagine Heaven as a big dinner party where we can all eat and drink our favorite foods without ever putting on weight, getting drunk or sick. Surely, Jesus enjoyed a good meal while on this planet so I see no reason why he would not continue to do so.

God asks us to love all his creatures, especially all people because they are our brothers and sisters, not just in our own families or among our friends, but even among our enemies, and even strangers. We are called to help the less fortunate among us. Next week we will have the opportunity to share this love through donating to Catholic Charities, the formal way our Diocese practices Jesus' message of friendship and love to the poor. Next week there will be a special envelope at the entrances to put in the Offertory collection for this great service. For those of us who receive budgets in the mail, there is another envelope we can use. It is a fine way for each of us to show that we live the Gospel message of love and friendship even to the stranger. God bless us all.

The annual school walkathon fundraiser was accomplished by energetic students in mid-April. Lively music had students and staff moving around our parking lot for an hour and a half and tallying up many laps. While walking, students got to visit with their buddies and classmates and get cool Jamba Juice and shaved ice treats to beat the heat.

Peacemakers

Peter Maurin, a colleague of Dorothy Day, was a peacemaker in his own right. He was born in France and came to America as a young man. He developed the social belief that the problems of society come from our detachment from the Gospel of Jesus. He felt that we should begin at once to live by a new set of values. He found it hard to translate his thoughts into action until he met Dorothy Day. She too, was searching for a way to combine her religious faith with social change.

The two of them combined to form the Catholic Worker Movement which had the simple agenda – through the Gospel “to build a kind of society where it would be easier to be good.”

Peter Maurin died on May 15, 1949 at the age of seventy-two. Quote: “The future will be different if we make the present different.”
