I am filled with a jealous zeal for the Lord God of Hosts

This is a very uncertain moment for our world as we collectively respond to this new Covid19 and its growing spread around the globe. In our lifetime, there has not been a pandemic that has so gripped our attention and impacted us so greatly. We are sharing this moment together and at the same time, it feels deeply personal as we wrestle with our own thoughts, fears and choices in the midst of this global crisis.

As we look to respond to all that is happening around us, it is so important that we draw near to God to seek wisdom, comfort and strength, and to God's Word for guidance, assurance and courage so we respond as our faith would call us to respond: To be compassionate to those who are suffering or fearful; to be generous to help where we can; to be discerning and share our faith with those who are looking to God for answers; to fervently pray for those in authority; to rest in God's protection and sovereign will; to be courageous in our support of family and friends; and so much more.

"Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be frightened, and do not be dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go" (Joshua 1:9).

"Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid" (John 14:27).

God wants to cast out our fears with perfect love
(1 John 4:18).

And as we surrender our fears to God, they are replaced then with God's comfort and peace - a peace that comes by trusting in God.

O Mary, Health of the Sick, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and hope. We entrust ourselves to you. You know what we need, and we are sure you will provide, so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial.

Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to do as we are told by Jesus, Who has taken upon Himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows, leading us through the cross to the joy of the Resurrection.

Amen.
