I am filled with a jealous zeal for the Lord God of Hosts

Thanksgiving - This year has been a challenge to everyone - yet we have much to be grateful for. Mass will be celebrated at St. Therese on Thanksgiving morning at 8:30 AM - a wonderful way to begin this day of gratitude! Between now and then, there will be collection bins in both churches for non-perishable food donations which will be given to the food pantry at the Richmond Methodist Church. May God bless your generosity in helping to feed the poor.

Cemetery Collection - there is a special envelope in your packets for Cemetery Upkeep. If you choose to make an offering for this purpose, place it in the collection basket any time during the month of November.

Memorial Book - Throughout November - in memory of All Souls, our Book of Memories will be on the stand at the entrance of each church. Feel free to enroll the names of deceased loved ones, and the book will be placed on the altar during our weekend Masses as we remember these beloved ones in our prayer.

Jackie Steininger - as many of you may have already heard, my eldest sister, Jackie, passed away last Monday morning due to Covid19 which exasperated other health conditions. Fortunately, her children were able to spend the last few moments of her life with her before she passed. Please continue to pray for them: Eric, Jon, and Darby and her family, as they go through the grieving process. And Thank You for your prayers during this difficult time. Judy and I are very grateful for the support you have shown to our family at this time. May God bless you for your many expressions of support and condolence.

Special Collection - This weekend there is a special collection for CCHD - the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. There is a special envelope in your packet for this - please make your offering using this or another marked envelope with your name or envelope number - and note that it is for CCHD.

Advent - is just around the corner - and begins next weekend as we enter into a new Liturgical Year of Grace. As in the past, an Advent meditation booklet is available (one for each family) at the entrance of both churches. this weekend. Please take one home with you as a resource for your personal or family preparation for Christmas. You may also wish to sign up for a daily reflection on your computer, phone or tablet the is offered by Dynamic Catholic. Directions on how to sign up for Best Advent Ever can be found on a flyer on the Bulletin Boards of the churches.

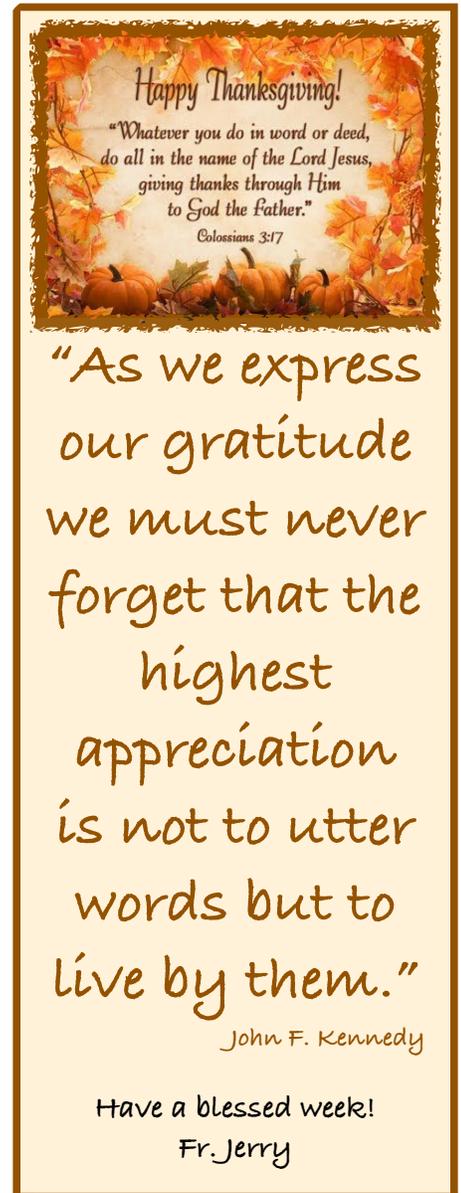

New Missalettes - I mentioned last weekend, there are a limited number of the 2021 Liturgical Year missalettes available at the entrance of the churches. More will be delivered when our congregations return to our typical size following the demise of the Covid19 pandemic. Until such time, I wanted to offer these to those who regularly participate at weekday Masses, and those who might find them helpful while participating in a televised Mass. I would ask that if you take one of these, that you ALSO take a copy of the current issue home with you. You may clean the protective plastic cover to your satisfaction, then bring your missalette back and forth between church and home. Just dispose of the old missalette in the trash or by recycling it - and PLEASE, be sure to place the laminated Marian prayers and the Flos Carmeli Hymn cards inside the front and back covers. Thanks!

Carmelite STARS - are having a fund-raiser, offering Maggie's Popcorn of Ottawa. You get a 32 ounce container for $6.00, from a selection of six flavors: Sweet Cinnamon, Maggie's Mix (cheese and caramel), Snickers, Caramel, Cheddar Cheese, and Tuxedo (chocolate drizzled). Orders will be taken until December 2nd, and the popcorn will be delivered after December 16th. Order sheets are at the entrance of both churches, or you can contact any member of the STARS. Kristy Mader, or Georgia Miller. Thanks for your support!

FYI - For your personal planning, there will NOT be a Christmas Party or pageant at either parish this year due to current health challenges. We will be preparing some sort of treat for all young people who come to Christmas Mass however, due to the kindness of the Knights and our Altar Societies and some other volunteers. I know this will be a disappointment for many - but it is the right thing to do this year! I will have more information on our planned Mass schedule for Christmas, as well as the altered ECKAN Christmas program in next weekend's Bulletin.

One Family: One Faith: One Future in Christ. Both parishes have recently received our second rebate checks representing 25% of the pledges collected thusfar. If you are in a position at this time to begin once again considering how you can participate, I encourage you to do so. Information regarding the Campaign and pledge envelopes are available at the entrance of both churches. Thank you for considering this reminder! As always, your generosity is GREATLY appreciated!

Everyone is asked to still wear masks as you enter and exit. the churches, as well as during Mass. If necessary, you may take the masks off once you are in your pew. We will continue to distribute Holy Communion as we have since we reopened.
Please remember to exit the churches in such a manner that social distancing protocols are being adhered to.
Thank you for your attentiveness to and patience with all of these precautions.

Sts. Isidore and Maria de la Cabeza - Pray for us for safety and favorable weather!
