World Mission Collection

Catholics throughout the diocese are asked to contribute to the World Missions Collection this weekend, October 17 & 18. A special letter from Bishop Daly has likely already arrived in your mailbox if you are a registered parishioner. (If you did not receive one, please contact the parish office.) This Collection, which is one of the Bishop's four major annual collections, includes support of ministries not covered by the Annual Catholic Appeal: Peter's Pence, Society for the Propagation of the Faith, Catholic Relief Services, Collection for the Holy Land, and our own diocesan missionary efforts in the Diocese of Solola (Guatemala). Use the envelope which came with the Bishop's letter or place a clearly marked check in the Sunday collection. Bishop Daly expresses his gratitude for all of your support throughout the year and he is confident you will be as generous as your means allow.

Spiritual Fitness and Scripture Study

Parishioner John Brugger, working together with Fr. Jeff, will lead a Scripture Study series of St. Paul's Letter to the Romans. This 4-part series will begin with a Saturday workshop called "Spiritual Fitness" (see flyers posted on parish bulletin boards).

Spiritual Fitness will take place on Sat., October 24, at St. Mary of the Rosary parish hall, from 9:00 AM to 3:00 PM. A light lunch will be provided.

This Scripture Study will consist of four sessions. There will be two opportunities to attend each session, so please choose the day that best fits your schedule. The two sets of dates cover the same information. Your choice of days are:

- Tuesdays from 6:30 to 8:00 PM on October 27, November 3, 10, & 17.
- Saturdays from 9:30 to 11:00 AM on October 31, November 7, 14, & 21.

Crystalline Luncheon

There will be a Crystalline Luncheon Fundraiser at St. Mary of the Rosary on Saturday, November 21. We are looking for people to host a table, which they will then dress with their own china, crystal, and table decorations. Hosts will then sell tickets to 7 guests for their table for $12 each. Luncheon will consist of salads and dessert. There will be prizes for best tables. Please contact Kellie Trudeau at (509) 993-4150 or Brenda at the parish office if you are willing to host a table or need more information.

Safeway is No Longer Part of eScrip

The eScrip program is still alive and well. However, Safeway is no longer a part of it. Your everyday spending can still earn money for your parish, but we have to take a different approach. There are two ways:

1. If you shop at Yoke's in Deer Park, they have a separate Community Card which you can scan at the check stand to have dollars credited to your parish. Remember, this does not add anything to your bill. Cards are available in the parish office.
2. You can register your credit card on eScrip's secure website and shop through their Online Mall. Log in to the eScrip website and click on the tab for the Online Mall where you can shop at hundreds of websites, including Amazon.com. Pay with a credit card you have registered to generate donations for your parish.

This has been a noticeable benefit to the parish and we thank everyone for participating. We also thank Safeway for the many years they were involved.

Twilight Retreat for Women

Friday, October 30, from 6:30—10:30 PM, all single women, ages 18-35, are invited to St. Joseph Family Center, 1016 N. Superior in Spokane, to learn more about religious life. Supper is included with this invitation. Please RSVP by calling Sister Anne Bosserman at (509) 995-8993 or emailing her at abossermansnjm@gmail.com.

970 AM in Spokane. Please call with questions and comments and interaction with Bishop Daly: (509) 327-3695. The question was asked about the wording of the Lord's Prayer, "Our Father, Who art in Heaven... Thy will be done on Earth as it is in Heaven." The question was raised: Is Heaven in something, like we go through some sort of portal or wormhole perhaps?

This question touches on the fairly widespread confusion of Heaven as a certain, specific, physical place, a location. And so . . . where is Heaven? Where is this dwelling of God and the saints?

Some folks are of the opinion that heaven is everywhere, as God is everywhere. According to this viewpoint, the saints and angels can move about freely in every part of the universe, and still remain with God and see everywhere. They remain everywhere also with Christ, in His sacred humanity. Because (according to the advocates of this opinion) the spatial distances of this world, of this physical reality, no longer impede, are no longer a hindrance.

In general, however, theologians deem more appropriate that there should be a special and glorious abode, in which the blessed have their peculiar home and where they usually abide, even though they can be free to go about in this world. For the surroundings in the midst of which the blessed have their dwelling must be in accordance with their happy state; and the internal union of charity which joins them in affection must find its outward expression in community of habitation. At the end of the world, the earth together with the celestial bodies will be gloriously transformed into a part of the dwelling-place of the blessed (see Revelation 21). Hence there seems to be no sufficient reason for attributing a metaphorical sense to those numerous utterances of the Bible which suggest a definite dwelling-place of the blessed. Theologians, therefore, generally hold that the heaven of the blessed is a special place with definite limits. (One such limit, of course, being that Heaven is not hell.) Naturally, this place is held to exist, not within the earth, but, in accordance with the expressions of Sacred Scripture, without and beyond its limits. All further details regarding its locality are quite uncertain.
