@ Catholic Website of the Week

If you or someone you know is inactive in the church, visit www.CatholicsComeHome.org to find information on returning to the Catholic faith. From the website: "There's an old saying that goes, "Once a Catholic, always a Catholic." Maybe you have been away from the Church for a little while or for quite some time, but now you feel a tug at your heart calling you back to the Catholic Church. Listen to that tug. It's your Heavenly Father reaching his arms out to you, the Holy Spirit whispering in your ear, hoping to draw you home."

Congratulations!

Congratulations to Josh and Cole Piepgras as they celebrate their Confirmation into the Faith this Sunday, May 6th at Immaculate Conception Parish in Colville.

Local and Regional Events

TASTY Summer Food Program Fundraiser at Quartzite Brewery, Chewelah—May 18th

On Friday, May 18th there will be fundraiser for the TASTY program at the Quartzite Brewery from 4:00 pm to 8:00 pm. This fundraiser funds a program for students in the Chewelah and Valley school districts that provides meals during the summer break.

The brewery and K.I.S.S. food truck will donate $1 from each beer or food item sold. This program is supported by our parish and other churches in the area and hopes to raise $19,000 for this year's TASTY program.

Life Principles Academy at St. Thomas More Parish, Spokane—May 19th

The Respect Life Committee of the Diocese of Spokane would like to invite you to an important pro-life training. Healing the Culture, a pro-life advocacy group founded by Fr. Robert Spitzer, SJ, will hold a Life Principles Academy on Saturday, May 19th, 9:00 am-2:00 pm at St. Thomas More parish.

The Life Principles Academy is a half-day training event that equips participants to intelligently and effectively communicate human dignity and respect for human life using ten fundamental principles of happiness, logic, ethics, and justice. Participants learn how to use a variety of Healing the Culture's programs and resources, and are awarded a complimentary set of educational materials upon graduation. The training is intended for anyone who is in a position to educate others, especially religious education ministers, school teachers, homeschooling parents, pro-life activists and volunteers. The training is also beneficial to anyone who wants to better defend their pro-life beliefs.
