We want to thank everyone for their hard work and generosity this year at St. Michael's Family Picnic! Our Parish makes a great team!!

This year rain required us to think outside the box and come up with lots of last minute changes. New inside locations were needed for the Silent Auction, Special Quilt, Cedar Chest, 50/50 Booth and Cashiers. It seemed to work out well.

We are very thankful for the last minute generosity of Preferred Popcorn for the use of their parking lot and Allan Fessel who provided transportation by donating his bus all day!

Although the weather was challenging everyone stepped up to make our Family Picnic as successful as possible!

Huge THANKS to all the outside booths that hung in there all day!! The outside booths success depends on the weather and you showed your true dedication by staying open!

This year our Dining Room leftovers were donated to the Harrison County Community Services, the Soup Kitchen in Jeffersonville and a St. Michael's funeral meal. This donation provided meals for approximately 280 people. They were very grateful!!

Thanks and appreciation for everyone's hard work and generosity!!!!
