Information for all Parishes

TRI-PARISH CELEBRATION - Have you made plans yet to attend our Tri-Parish Celebration on Sunday, June 23 at St Bernard Frenchtown? Join parishioners from all three parishes as we celebrate an outdoor mass under the shelter, enjoy an old-fashioned country picnic meal, live music, and activities for young and old and those in between. Dine inside or outside on tasty picnic food prepared by Leslie's Homestyle Catering: Fried chicken, baked ham, green beans, corn, coleslaw, roll, and dessert options of fruit cobblers, carrot cake, and fresh fruit. Sign-up today to attend on the sheets in the back of church so we can have a better attendance estimate for food preparation. We look forward to seeing you at this awesome celebration!

Watch this space for more event details each week.

Second Collection Next Week - The Vocations Office receives funds each year from a second collection taken up throughout the Archdiocese to cover the expenses of educating our future priests. The archdiocese anticipates having about 25 seminarians in formation this fall. Thank you for your spiritual and financial support which provides the necessary education and formation for our priests. Please be generous in support of this collection and please continue to pray for vocations! If you know of a young man or woman you believe would serve well in priesthood or religious life, please call (317) 236-1496 and leave the individual's name and contact information with the vocation director, Fr. Eric Augenstein.

Pentecost Sunday

The word Pentecost is Greek and it means "50th day." Fifty days after Easter Sunday, we celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles and their followers, and the beginning of their Earthly ministry to make disciples of all nations.

Pentecost is also a Jewish holiday, which the Jews use to celebrate the end of Passover. Jews celebrate the gift of the law to Moses at Mt. Sinai on this day. But we, as Catholics celebrate the birth of our Church.

At Pentecost, the Apostles and their followers were gathered in a room. Jews from all over the world were gathered with Peter, the leader of the Apostles and the Eleven. At this time, a great wind blew and a flame appeared as a tongue of fire, which split itself into many individual flames above the heads of all those present. The Holy Spirit came upon these people and each began to speak in tongues. Despite the fact many had no common language, they were perfectly able to understand one another.

Others who were not so blessed, accused those speaking in tongues of being drunk, but Peter arose and addressed the crowd, explaining that it was only 9 o'clock, and that this phenomenon was not intoxication, but rather this was the work of the Holy Spirit, prophesized in the scripture.

Peter then called all those present to be baptized and about three thousand people were baptized that day. These people were among the first Catholics, and Peter is the first pope of the Catholic Church.

The symbols of Pentecost are the flame, wind, and the dove, which represents the Holy Spirit. The color of Pentecost is red and the priest wears red vestments on this day. Parishioners are also invited to wear red on this day. Red decorations as well as celebrations are appropriate, similar to any other birthday. Special prayers are often said just for Pentecost.
