Reconciliation

While we are unable to physically participate in the Sacrament of Reconciliation it is a good practice to Examine your conscience each day and make an Act of Contrition: "O my God, I am sorry for my sins with all my heart. In choosing to do wrong and failing to do good, I have sinned against you whom I should love above all things. I firmly intend, with your help, to do penance, to sin no more, and to avoid whatever leads me to sin. Amen."

OBSERVANCES FOR THE WEEK OF MAY 3, 2020

Sunday: 4th Sunday of Easter; World Day of Prayer for Vocations

Tuesday: Cinco de Mayo

Thursday: National Day of Prayer

Next Sunday: 5th Sunday of Easter; Mother's Day

In light of new information and recommendations from health officials concerning the danger of the COVID-19 pandemic and the urgency to stop the spread of the virus the five Catholic bishops of Indiana have suspended all public Sunday and weekday Masses. The archbishop's dispensation from the obligation to attend Sunday Mass from March 13 continues until further notice. Information is continually changing. For updates from the Archdiocese you can visit www.archindy.org

Tri Parish Facebook Page - In an effort to better communicate for all three of our parishes we are in the process of changing our Facebook page to "Catholic Community of St. Michael, St. Bernard and St. Joseph." It will take a few days for the change to take place so you can search for our new name or St. Michael Catholic Church to find us.

Please continue to take care of yourself! Please continue to stay diligent in your social distancing. Wash your hands, stay hydrated, and practice good hygiene. We miss all of you and look forward to when we can pray and worship together in person again. Let us continue to pray for one another, especially for the most vulnerable, for the sick, for those who have died, and for all those who are ministering and caring for those in need. Let us also remember that we are a people of Hope and a people who believes in the promise of Jesus when He said that He will be with us always, even until the end of the age.

Our Food Pantry at St. Michael is open but we ask all neighbors to call before they come to schedule a pick up. You can call 812-364-6646, 10:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m. Monday – Friday.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK- When you wake up in the morning, whose voice is the first one you listen to? Your own? Someone else's? Or God? We all listen to someone and follow some sort of guidelines and principles. If it is a secular voice that propels us to get up in the morning and take up the task of the day's agenda, then we may find ourselves off track. The advice found in the Acts of the Apostles was as true then as it is now, "Save yourselves from this corrupt generation." Most of what we listen to in secular voices is off the axis of truth and distorted. It may sound attractive, but it is deceptive at best. Many have gone astray like sheep and need to return to the Good Shepherd. Only Jesus can offer us the gate of life, and only Jesus as the Good Shepherd can really motivate us to take on the challenges of life. If we don't recognize his voice, we can risk facing destruction.

Anyone wishing to contribute to our churches while we are closed may do so by mailing your contribution to the appropriate office. To help save on postage, you may combine and send one check for weeks at a time instead of mailing each week.

GOSPEL MEDITATION Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture - With whom do we converse and listen to the most? Believe it or not, the answer is ourselves. We are constantly having conversations with ourselves, and sometimes we even get caught! Our inner conversations reveal the truth about ourselves. We really cannot hide from ourselves, although we often pretend we can. By conversing with ourselves, we find solutions to our challenges, problem solve, work through our relationships, formulate opinions, run through dress rehearsals of possible conversations, and wrestle with and determine our system of priorities and values. What other voices affect the conversations we have with ourselves?

Often, voices from our past continue to haunt us. These voices cause us to mistrust our judgment, harbor anger, and cling to our fears of rejection, failure, being wrong, and the like. It is in these inner conversations that we face what holds us captive — our limitations, weaknesses, sinfulness, and stubborn ego preoccupations. We often go about our lives putting out one fire or another, keeping ourselves preoccupied and busy, and trying to stay on top of things. Intentionally or unintentionally, we find ourselves wandering off. We turn around and can no longer see our home. We look down at our feet and realize we have lost our anchor. Feeling scared, out of place, desolate, unsettled, and lonely, we realize that we are lost.

We listened to the wrong voices! In the midst of everything competing for our attention, the voice of the One who could truly call us home got muffled. We didn't hear it. As our inner dialogues continue to play out, the one voice we need to consult — even before our own — is God's. He is the Good Shepherd who can keep us safely where we need to be. As we graze through the stuff of our lives, we must constantly remember to look up, be attentive, and stay focused. Our habits of prayer are the only thing that can properly root us and keep us grounded. Contemplating God's presence and developing an inner awareness of love incarnate, we will then find ourselves praying unceasingly as the days and nights and the ebbs and flows of our of lives unfold. Suddenly, the inner conversations we are constantly having are no longer just with ourselves or with voices that can lead us astray but with the Trinity, who desperately wants us to stay home.
