Reconciliation

While we are unable to physically participate in the Sacrament of Reconciliation it is a good practice to Examine your conscience each day and make an Act of Contrition: "O my God, I am sorry for my sins with all my heart. In choosing to do wrong and failing to do good, I have sinned against you whom I should love above all things. I firmly intend, with your help, to do penance, to sin no more, and to avoid whatever leads me to sin. Amen."

Information for all Parishes

The Return to the Public Celebration of Masses - The Archdiocese is currently devising a phased plan on how we might return to the public celebration of Masses, the celebrations of Sacraments, and Devotions. While we wish we could give you all the information you might want at this time we simply aren't there yet. There is a great number of considerations when making this calculated risk to bring people back together in large numbers. We can tell you that we will most likely begin a phased approach of having our churches open for private prayer and confessions, then perhaps daily Masses, and then the Sunday celebration of Masses. Please watch our parish website for more information, or our Tri-Parish Facebook page (Catholic Community of St Michael St Bernard and St Joseph), and make sure we have your email address so we can get information out to you.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK- What do you imagine the resurrected life of heaven to be like? When we try to get our minds around such an enormous concept, we can easily find ourselves at a loss. For some folks, the enormity of the question actually causes them to ignore the reality of heaven or even conclude that it does not exist. Jesus knew that the magnitude and grandeur of eternal life are really too much for us to grasp. He kept it simple and described it in terms of relationship. The disciples treasured their relationship with Jesus, and he assured them, “Where I am you also may be.” Ultimately, that was enough for them to know. They would be with him. Strengthen your relationship with God as He is the way, the truth, and the life. Is the assurance that you will be with Him enough for you as well?

GOSPEL MEDITATION Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture - Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

When earthly lives end, especially when the person is younger, we tend to focus upon and consider what was lost. We think of lost opportunities — things they won’t be able to see, babies they won’t be able to cradle, and adventures that now must go undiscovered. Our minds create this chasm between earth and heaven that sees the losses of this life as permanent ones, never possible to achieve again. This perception causes many folks to remain stuck in their grief as they ponder all of the missed opportunities and regrets. This is not resurrection thinking. All of the love that we can give and receive, the joy and elation that can be experienced, the adventures that can be undertaken, and the possibilities to be discovered are all part of a continuous journey. They are not ends in and of themselves but are all part of the unfolding of a relationship we have with God, who not only makes all of these wonderful things possible now but sustains them and fulfills them into eternity. The perception and experience of loss is really an illusion, because in God’s eternal kingdom and in God’s time, nothing is ever lost. Even the most intimate and tender of moments we can conceive of sharing with another human being are only part of a journey toward perfect intimate and tender moments to be shared with God in our resurrected life. We become like God and see God as He is in eternity. What greater joy, love, and hope can ever be discovered as we walk down our often dimly lit paths in this world. This is an awesome wonder and magnificent news to behold. Call to mind someone you have lost in death. How do you see them now? How do you see yourself in heaven? Remind yourself, again, that God is the Way, the Truth and the Life. Our happiness is not going to be fully realized in this world, and there is nothing we can find here that cannot be found one hundred fold in eternity. It’s all about relationship, and not solely about the relationships we have with each other, ourselves, and the world in which we live. It’s about our relationship with God. If we realize how special that one relationship really is, then there is only one particular of heaven and life eternal that really matters: namely, that we fall into love eternal and discover truth. For when we finally close our eyes in death, then all will be well as long as we are with God. There are no losses, only gains.

Parish Expenses Continue - Fellow parishioners, please be mindful that during this time of the COVID-19 pandemic our parish expenses continue. We understand that this has created financial strife for many of us. But if you are able to help, please mail your contributions to the Parish Office. Another option, you can set automatic withdrawals from your financial institution, contact the parish office to set up the process. The monthly withdrawal will occur on the second Tuesday of each month.

For those who are 70 ½ or older, the option of making TAX FREE contributions from your Traditional IRA is available, this is called a Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD). This normally satisfies the annual requirement to take a minimum distribution (RMD) but for 2020 that has been waived. However, you can still do a QCD. For more details on doing this, see the insert which is available on the parish website under bulletins.

Question of the Week for the 5th Sunday of Easter:

Question for Children: What are some ways that you can act like Jesus would if he were in your situation?

Question for Youth: Jesus is “the way, the truth, the life” and he asks us to do as he does. How do you try to follow Jesus’ way?

Question for Adults: How are the promises of this Gospel passage made real in your own life? How do you experience yourself doing greater works than even Jesus did?

Formed Movie Night – Check out this great movie with your family this week on Formed: Fat Chance

A romantic comedy about love and acceptance, Fat Chance tells the story of Alison, an overweight dental assistant who is challenged to find her self-worth when she falls into an online relationship with her long-time friend and crush, Justin. But there's a problem – she's used the photo of her attractive friend in her online dating profile, which is what caught Justin's eye. Alison spends the summer with Justin, balancing both versions of herself until the secret slips out. Inspired by a true story, Fat Chance is a heartfelt look at a young woman, struggling to love herself and to be loved by others for who she is and to find self-worth, not in physical appearance, but in the way her Heavenly Father sees her Beautiful.

Formed For Children – The Jesus Stories -

Created to help children apply the lessons found in the parables of Jesus, each 10 minute episode includes a story situation that children today can relate to, a parable, and a thought-provoking way to apply it.
