LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration for the week

When a merchant finally finds a priceless, perfect pearl, he sells all he has and buys it. He does this because that pearl matters to him. It has significance and brings a depth of joy like none other. What matters and is of importance to you? When what matters to us has something to do with the kingdom of God, God is delighted. His exuberant happiness is hard to contain because He knows that we are happy stumbling upon this beautiful wisdom. Ask God to help you discover this pearl of great price. There are many things competing for our attention every day. But not all of these things are important. We focus too much energy on the unimportant, superficial stuff and neglect paying attention to the things that really make a difference and have the greatest impact. Things all too easily become more significant than people, and our agendas become more essential than God's. We do not have to empty our bank accounts and totally detach from everything we have in order to serve God. But, we are asked to prioritize our lives and make what matters to God what matters most to us. In doing so, when we rise each day, we will be able to see what really needs our attention and embrace it with great joy!

GOSPEL MEDITATION Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

A single mother who has a child with special needs works two jobs and sacrifices much of her own pleasures in order to be available for her son. Being the best mother possible is important to her and brings her joy. We are willing to make great and often heroic sacrifices for those people and things that matter most to us.

Unless there is something of obvious importance to us in our immediate path, we can easily approach life in a more haphazard and chaotic way. We jump from one thing to another, responding to whatever it is that is competing for our attention at that moment. When everything is important, nothing is important.

If we do not wear the right pair of glasses, we can get all too easily caught up in the superficial stuff and neglect paying attention to the things that really matter. The kingdom of God is like the pearl of great price that is worth selling everything for so that it can be obtained. Based on where I invest my time and energy each day, I really wonder whether I am serving God's kingdom or my own. Have you ever considered tracking how you spend your time? You may be surprised! We allow our agendas to set the clock of our lives. We forget that joy and a true sense of purpose are not going to be found in following that timepiece. Joy is the expression of the happiness that is discovered when living in the kingdom of God. When our agenda matches God, not only do we leap for joy but God leaps with delight as well. Our well-being is what matters most to God.

Can you imagine God delighting in you? It is easy to deaden our senses to the whole reality of God and the joy that living the Gospel can bring. The demands of secular life and the agendas competing for our attention can quickly do that. We can get tired and spiritually apathetic. But if we can see our way through all of the conflicting voices and hear the voice of God, we can rediscover our zeal and passion and redirect our efforts. When we begin to see as God sees, we can rise each day and notice what really needs our attention and embrace it with exuberance. Be careful, though. It may not be what we originally had on our list. Responding to it, however, will be worth putting everything else aside.

Catholic Life Explained: Lighting Candles in Church

Question:
Why do Catholics light candles in church?

Answer:
Candles have been part of the Church's worship from the earliest times. In the days before electricity, candles and oil lamps were the ways that people lighted buildings. Even today, we often still depend on candles during power outages, relying on their flickering flames to bring light into the dark.
Like our ancestors, we also light candles on special occasions. Think about a festive family meal or a romantic dinner for two — there will often be candles on the table, special objects for a special event. We light candles on birthday cakes and carry them in processions. We also place candles at makeshift memorials that appear when there has been an accident or act of violence. In these moments, their light casts aside a different kind of darkness — the darkness of grief, fear, and death.
The custom of the early Christians lighting candles and lamps at the tombs of the martyrs gave way to the practice of having candles at Mass, honoring the sacredness of the celebration.
As Christians decorated their worship spaces with statues and icons, they would burn candles in front of sacred images and the relics of the saints, basically "shining a light" on what they held to be sacred. When pilgrims would visit these shrines, they would often bring candles to light before the image or relic. These candles came to be a symbol of the person, and their prayer and the burning these candles came to be understood as an extension and continuation of the prayer that was offered. What began as a practical way to provide light has come to be a symbol of the hopes, desires, loves, losses, fears, and faith of everyday Christians offering their prayers to God and his saints.

Question of the Week for the 17th Sunday in Ordinary Time:

Question for Youth: Today's gospel reminds us that God's kingdom is worth sacrifice. What do you need to sacrifice in order to follow God in your own life? Why are you willing to make that sacrifice?

Question for Adults: Using Jesus' parable as your starting point, describe in your own words what the Reign of God is for you personally, and use a parable to describe it: "The reign of God is _____."

Formed is a wonderful resource of Catholic information and formation. You can access your free subscription by registering through our parish. If you have not yet registered for formed go to www.saintmichaelchurch.formed.org You will need to create a username and password. Mission Trip 2020

My name is Molly Coomer. I will be an incoming junior this fall. I was able to have the opportunity to go with the deanery on the annual mission trip for two years now. Some may know that this year's mission ship was a little different than those of past years. When our country first started to slowly shut down, due to the pandemic; I know one of my first worries was, "I hope we still get to have a mission trip." I knew that my quarantined summer would not be normal, but my greatest hope was to have a mission trip. Summer 2019 was my first mission trip. I had such a great experience, so I knew I had to go back. Whenever I heard we were eligible to go on this mission trip I was so excited. Even though the mission trip was based out of Harrison county Indiana this year; I still had a blast. Being able to help those in the community meant so much more to me. It was so neat to see how grateful the families really were, every day we would work; the families would see what they could do to help. One day I experienced a God sighting while I was working in extreme heat. The lady's whose house we were working on had just been discharged from the hospital the day before due to her back. Even though she was still in pain and in extreme heat she made sure she came out to help us. It was so amazing to see how God gives us strength even in pain. The exciting thing about the mission trip was we didn't work all day, after each day after working we would do an evening social. My favorite evening social was definitely canoeing. Many would say canoeing is preferably easy; however, our canoeing group was not particularly good at it. In my canoe was a group of three, and we could not canoe in a straight line. You can probably guess what that meant, we brought up the rear of the whole canoeing crew. Overall, the mission trip was an amazing experience of being able to help those in my community. Without the help and support of the community of Saint Michael, I would never have gotten the experience. So, thank you, it will be a "trip" to Bradford, I will never forget.
