LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration for the week

Secular problems require savvy secular solutions. We are trained to solve problems, be successful and productive, and find our way through all that life presents to us. Corporations value those who can decipher the best avenue to take in order to resolve an issue. How do you train and renew your mind? Facts, figures, scientific tools, analytical processes, best practices, and models of varying kinds are at our disposal. If we don't know the full and proper course of action, we can easily find it. But there is a knowledge that goes far beyond all these things that makes a direct claim on the essence of our being. It satisfies a deeper thirst and hunger that keeps us restless until it is satisfied. Our minds, hearts, and souls cannot only be nurtured purely by secular and temporal things. We must seek the enlightenment that comes from God. This allows us to see the value of suffering in order to achieve a greater good and the losing of our very self in the service of something greater. Faith only makes sense if it can bring us to this heightened awareness.

GOSPEL MEDITATION Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Secular pursuits only bring a temporary amount of satisfaction and fulfillment. As much as we may think that achieving worldly success, economic security, personal well-being, and self-fulfillment are worthy goals to obtain, they all are dependent on external variables and can lead to emptiness. We are trained to be very pragmatic and productive. Unless we are able to check off all of the boxes or comply with specific measurable requirements, our value and worth becomes questionable. Corporations, educational institutions, systems, structures, and secular ideology rarely consider deeper, more spiritual, and human contributions a person can and needs to make.

To the secular mind, the wisdom and ideals of the Gospel are making less and less sense. Consider for a moment this question: "What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life?" While Jesus is asking this very challenging question to people who are considering his message, many in our world are in a quite different place. Whether we realize it, many folks are asking a much different question. Why would you not want to gain the whole world and secure your life? If you look at where a lot of folks are investing their time, energy, and resources, it becomes obvious where current priorities rest.

Modern day comforts and possibilities are backing us out of our relationship with God. The fire burning in every human heart is trying to find its satisfaction in the things that humans have created and not God. Being altruistic and offering compassion for those most in need becomes a political responsibility or responsible gesture. We realize that our hearts need to be centered on something and someone who calls us out of ourselves, but we struggle and battle with naming the source of that call. God places the desire to seek, find, and love Him in the core of every soul. We are not abandoned and left to fend for ourselves. But we can easily get confused. We know that when we extend ourselves to another self-sacrificially, we are doing what is just and right. We know that we can work through suffering and loss and come out better and more whole on the other side.

Catholic Life Explained: Instruction on Receiving Communion

Question:

How many times a day can a person receive communion?

Answer:

To find an answer to this question, we need to turn to the Church's Code of Canon Law. Here we read, "One who has received the blessed Eucharist may receive it again on the same day only within a Eucharistic celebration in which that person participates ..." (no. 917). This tells us that the standard answer would be that we can receive communion twice in a day.

Having said that, we also want to be sure that we pay attention to the entire instruction. The phrase "within a Eucharistic celebration in which that person participates" is important. It means a) that we always have to think of receiving communion as being within a celebration of the Mass and b) we have to be participants in that celebration – we can't simply show up "in time" for communion.

So, when would this rule apply?

For example, if you attend Mass on a Saturday morning and then take part in the Sunday Vigil Mass on Saturday evening, you could licitly receive communion at both celebrations. Or, another example, if you receive communion at a wedding or funeral Mass, you could also receive communion at a daily Mass or Sunday Vigil celebrated on the same day. We always want to be sure that we observe the rules for fasting from food and drink before receiving the Eucharist (see Code of Canon Law, no. 919).

We should also remember that the Code of Canon Law instructs that anyone who is in danger of death or seriously ill may also receive communion a second time (no. 91, §2).

Our minds need to be renewed so that they can begin to understand that there is much more to who we are, and that faith plays a pivotal role in achieving our true and everlasting goals. It is when we see that it is only faith that can bring us to this heightened awareness of ourselves and God that it will begin to make sense. Then, we can put things in proper perspective and consider being a disciple.

Faith Formation Classes Are Ready to Go! Faith Formation Classes begin this Sunday! for St. Michael and St. Bernard for all children and Youth Grades Pre-School

FAITH FORMATION

(age 4 by August 30th) – Grade 12. First, we want all of our families to know, that when your child attends sessions at our parishes, please know we are taking every reasonable precaution to prevent the spread of the corona virus. While no ordinary measures can prevent contagion 100%, we are confident that our arrival/dismissal procedures, the social distancing employed in classrooms and our cleaning protocols between sessions will go a long way toward making our parish a safe place to grow in the Faith. Please be attentive to all communications and updates about our parish faith formation program so that, together, we can help our children be physically and spiritually healthy.” We will implement the following procedures to help with this endeavor:

- Children and Youth are required to wear a mask or face covering upon entering the Faith Formation Center / Religious Education Building. When they enter their classroom, they have the option of removing their mask / face covering when they are social distanced. If due to class size social distancing is difficult the Catechist may ask them to wear their mask / face covering during class. If there is some health reason why a student is unable to wear a mask please contact Deacon John.
- Parents are asked to wear a mask or face covering when walking their child(ren) to their classroom. Whenever possible parents are asked not to enter the building simply to reduce the number of people in our hallways. At the end of classes, Parents can meet their child just outside the front doors.

- Hand Sanitizer will be available on entering the building and in the classrooms. Children will be encouraged to make use of Hand Sanitizer.
- At the end of classes, Deacon John will dismiss classes by grade level to reduce the number of children in the hallway at one time. Parents may meet their child just outside the front doors.
- We will not be eating in classrooms in the coming year.
- We will monitor the sharing of pencils, scissors, crayons, etc. in classrooms.
- Regular cleaning and sanitizing of our classrooms and restrooms will take place
- We will ask Catechists and Children / Parents to self-monitor for Covid-19 symptoms. Before each class we ask Catechists and families to go over self-monitoring questions that will be sent out to our families.

Christ is Alive: Gathering of Disciples Virtual Edition – All Catechists are invited to save the date of September 12, 9:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. for an online workshop with a Keynote by Tim Staples and breakout sessions for Catechists. ### Question of the Week for the 22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time:

Question for Children: Jesus tells us that we each are called to follow him. What is hard for you to do to follow Jesus?

Question for Youth: In order to follow Jesus, we have to do hard things, to carry our own crosses. What is a cross that you are carrying right now? In what ways can you ask Jesus to help you with your cross?

Question for Adults: Jesus gives us the core truth to life and eternal happiness — the cross. Name the cross that you carry. How is it bringing you closer to God?
