EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP Recognize God In Your Ordinary Moments - Being Human is to Doubt
Humans doubt. It's what we do. We doubt ourselves and we doubt others.

Before any of us say anything about Peter's doubting the words of Jesus that told him he could get out of his boat and walk on water, we need to get real with ourselves: How would I respond in the same situation? I remember when I was child taking swimming lessons. One day I simply tightened up my muscles and sank. The lifeguard pulled me up and asked what happened. I said I did not know. The truth is that I was sinking under the weight of my own doubt. I did not believe I could do what clearly, I was told I could. That was only in five feet of water in a pool! Now that I'm older, I can look back and laugh. But an adult, the swimming pool is life, and I would be lying if I said that there are no longer times I find myself sinking due to new doubts.

Much of our doubt comes about because of a lack of trust in God. We place our trust in material things, wealth, or imperfect people instead of the One who is worthy of our trust 100 percent of the time. Our stewardship is often hampered by our doubt that God will provide all that we need. If I give more, I may not have enough to survive! When we place all our trust in God, not only do we find that we have been given all we need – our doubt that cause us to sink in the pool of life fades away. We don't suddenly become perfect in our trust, and there will be times when we find ourselves with concerns again. However, it is in those moments we find that He is still there, speaking the words we need to hear: "Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid."

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration for the week

There is something very sacred about silence. Silence connects us. It is where the heartbeat of all of creation — and its life blood and source — are embraced and where oneness is experienced. When in the presence of an environment that is silent, the worries, tribulations, struggles, and challenges of life seem to fade away, and we can experience a peaceful whisper. We can call that whisper God. Through the practice of contemplative prayer, we can find our way to that inner place of silence even in the midst of great distraction, busyness, and noise. The silence becomes one with us and grounds us. When we become friends with silence, friends with God, we can hear the gentle whisper of God's voice saying, "Come, stay here. Trust me and you will not fall."

GOSPEL MEDITATION Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Be still and know that I am God. Silence is sacred. Silence speaks the language of the soul and is the foundation of all life and eternity itself. Silence takes us beyond the limits of our minds and allows us to seek and to love the essence of all love, perfect love, and being. In silence, we can be non-verbally present to things and to God in ways that words cannot accomplish. We can discover, encounter, and be present to truths that our minds struggle to conceive and then set aside the boxes we put around things when comprehending them is challenging. We can know the unknowable and touch eternity when we encounter the core silence in our souls.

We can do this even on a noisy street and in the midst of the greatest distraction. Once we have made friends with silence, the rambling noise of the world no longer seems to matter, and we can carry a deep forgiving peace within us, even when physical silence cannot be found. We know that we are loved, cared for, sustained, nourished, embraced, and carried. There is nothing to fear in silence, and I can be present to myself in the same way that God is present to me. I can see myself as God sees me. All of my faults, weaknesses, imperfections, failings, and sinfulness melt away in the abundance of God's mercy. All of the worldly things we see as being important no longer are.

It is in silence that all of the barriers that divide us disappear. There is no more "yours" and "mine" but only the oneness of "ours." There is no longer a need to "figure things out," and we tap into our desire to simply let things be. Silence is creative and powerful and gives us hope. Silence is God's greatest blessing. God became one with humanity in silence. It allows us to be one with all of creation, with the moon and the stars and all of the creatures God has made. The smallest particle of creation radiates with beauty. Silence allows us to soar beyond ourselves and connect in ways that the mind can only imagine. When all is quiet, we begin to see that it is only our fear that keeps us from the Lord. It is our fear that causes us to sink and to fail. We can hear the gentle whisper that tells us to reach for God's hand. We discover that we yearn for the salvation and wholeness that only God can give to us. Be still my soul and be at peace.

Catholic Life Explained: Marian Feasts

Question:

Why does Mary have so many feast days and names?

Answer:

Christians first began celebrating feast days in honor of Mary, the Mother of Jesus, in the fifth century. That celebration (originally called the Feast of the Dormition and now known by Roman Catholics as the Solemnity of the Assumption) was celebrated on August 15. Very soon, however, other special days dedicated to Mary began to appear in Jerusalem, Rome, and other major cities of the Christian world. These days of feasting became important parts of the life of the community. But, more importantly, each of these unique celebrations became an opportunity to focus on a different facet of the Christian faith, as believers focused their attention on specific events or mysteries of the lives of Mary and her Son.

Over the centuries, some of these celebrations became universal (such as the Assumption on August 15, the Immaculate Conception on December 8, and the Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God on January 1). Other celebrations were more closely tied to certain religious orders (such as the Carmelites celebration of "Our Lady of Mount Carmel" on July 16 or the Servite Friars feast of the "Seven Sorrows of Mary," which is now celebrated as the Memorial of Our Lady of Sorrows on September 15).

In more recent times, Marian apparitions (like Guadalupe, Lourdes, and Fatima) have inspired special liturgical celebrations. Pope Francis has added two new celebrations of Mary to the Church's calendar: The Memorial of Mary, Mother of the Church (on the Monday after Pentecost) and the Commemoration of Our Lady of Loreto (on December 10). The various titles of Mary (like those we find in the Litany of the Blessed Virgin Mary) help us to reflect on different aspects of Mary's faith and the ways that the Holy Spirit is at work in her and through her, especially as the Mother of Jesus.

In the end, whatever the event or mystery being celebrated in a particular liturgy or the title of Mary being used, we are invited to always see Mary in connection with the saving work of her Son. She is, of course, a patroness and protector for every Christian, but she is also a model of discipleship and contemplation: "Having entered deeply into the history of salvation, Mary, in a way, unites in her person and re-echoes the most important doctrines of the faith: and when she is the subject of preaching and worship she prompts the faithful to come to her Son, to his sacrifice and to the love of the Father" (Lumen Gentium, 65).

Faith Formation News:

Faith Formation Classes Are Ready to Go! Faith Formation Classes will begin on

FAITH FORMATION

Sunday August 30th for St. Michael and St. Bernard for all children and Youth Grades Pre-School (age 4 by August 30th) – Grade 12. First, we want all of our families to know, that when your child attends sessions at our parishes, please know we are taking every reasonable precaution to prevent the spread of the corona virus. While no ordinary measures can prevent contagion 100%, we are confident that our arrival/dismissal procedures, the social distancing employed in classrooms and our cleaning protocols between sessions will go a long way toward making our parish a safe place to grow in the Faith. Please be attentive to all communications and updates about our parish faith formation program so that, together, we can help our children be physically and spiritually healthy.” We will implement the following procedures to help with this endeavor:

- Children and Youth are required to wear a mask or face covering upon entering the Faith Formation Center / Religious Education Building. When they enter their classroom, they have the option of removing their mask / face covering when they are social distanced. If due to class size social distancing is difficult the Catechist may ask them to wear their mask / face covering during class. If there is some health reason why a student is unable to wear a mask please contact Deacon John.
- Parents are asked to wear a mask or face covering when walking their child(ren) to their classroom. Whenever possible parents are asked not to enter the building simply to reduce the number of people in our hallways. At the end of classes, Parents can meet their child just outside the front doors.

- Hand Sanitizer will be available on entering the building and in the classrooms. Children will be encouraged to make use of Hand Sanitizer.
- At the end of classes, Deacon John will dismiss classes by grade level to reduce the number of children in the hallway at one time. Parents may meet their child just outside the front doors.
- We will not be eating in classrooms in the coming year.
- We will monitor the sharing of pencils, scissors, crayons, etc. in classrooms.
- Regular cleaning and sanitizing of our classrooms and restrooms will take place
- We will ask Catechists and Children / Parents to self-monitor for Covid-19 symptoms. Before each class we ask Catechists and families to go over self-monitoring questions that will be sent out to our families.

We will also have an online option for Faith Formation Classes available. If your family is interested in the online option please contact Deacon John by August 9th.

PICK OF THE WEEK

Life for Life

Auschwitz, 1941 One of the prisoners, Jan, escapes from the German concentration camp while working at a gravel pit. Thanks to the help of kind-hearted people, he finds shelter. There Jan hears tragic news about ten random inmates sentenced by the Nazis to death by starvation as a punishment for his escape. One among the convicts is Fr. Maximilian Kolbe, a Franciscan priest who volunteered to die in place of one of the inmates.

Mission Trip 2020

Over the summer I attended my third mission trip through the church. Compared to years past, this year's mission trip differed greatly, however was just as equally successful and faith filled. Instead of traveling and serving the people in Campton, Kentucky we lodged at St. Michael Church and assisted the people in the community around us. The week was filled with projects such as painting houses, building decks, and organizing donations. As a group we also grew in our faith. Over the course of the week we studied St. Catherine of Siena and were led by a quote of hers which states "Be who God meant you to be and you will set the world on fire". We spent lots of time in self-reflection and prayer searching for who it is exactly that the Lord called each of us to be. Throughout the week I learned a lot about my faith and the works of the Lord. Although the week was not what any one of us expected or planned it to look like, it was spirit led and faith focused nonetheless.
