Sunday 14th February

6th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Did Lent 2020 ever really come to an end!! It was during the Lenten season last year that we entered the first lockdown, and we have been forced to give up so much since then that its difficult to consider giving up anything else!

However Lent is not simply about giving up things. This year perhaps it is worth considering joining the parish for one of our prayer initiatives on webcam, or simply praying in the privacy of your own home.

Of course there is also the option of coming to the church to pray; even though public ceremonies will not be celebrated for the moment, the churches are still open for private prayer.

Ash Wednesday ceremonies will only take place via webcam; however blessed ashes will be available in the churches for anyone who wants to receive some.

Our website, newbridgeparish.ie, has a detailed account of all the various initiatives which we are providing for this season. Why not spend sometime looking at them and choosing something for yourself?

Above all - don't be discouraged. Better days are ahead.
