This is my Body, This is my Blood

The Gospel of Mark describes Jesus' Last Supper with his disciples as a celebration of the Jewish feast of Passover. The Jewish celebration of Passover is a memorial to and a ritual participation in the defining moment of Israel's history. It celebrates God's deliverance of his people from slavery in Egypt.

In the description of the Passover meal found in today's Gospel, Mark omits many elements of the Jewish Passover meal. Instead he describes only those elements he believes to be most essential to the Christian Eucharist: Jesus took bread, blessed the bread, broke the bread, and shared it with his disciples. Similar words and actions follow as Jesus shares the chalice with his disciples. This bread now shared is Jesus' own body. Those who drink from the chalice are invited to share in a new covenant which will be sealed by Jesus' own blood. Mark's Eucharistic theology looks forward to the Kingdom of God that Jesus inaugurates.

This Gospel reminds us that the Eucharist is a memorial of Christ's sacrifice on the cross. We believe that Jesus is truly present to us in the elements of bread and wine. Each time we celebrate this sacrament, we prepare for the Kingdom of God. This celebration, as the Second Vatican Council taught us, is the source and summit of the Christian life. Let us pray that God will help us to make our celebration of the Eucharist the highlight of our week.

Meals On Wheels

St Dominic's conference of the St Vincent de Paul runs the Newbridge Meals on Wheels service. We are producing more meals than ever arising from the Covid pandemic, our service not only provides substantial meals but also a point of contact for people, some of whom are isolated.

We are currently looking for volunteer drivers who may be able to deliver meals 3-5 days per month, it takes about 30-40 minutes to deliver the meals. If you are interested, please contact Newbridge Daycare Centre at 045-433184 or send an email to newbridgedaycare@gmail.com. If anyone would like to avail of the Meals on Wheels service, or know anyone that may need the service, please contact Newbridge Daycare Centre. We would also welcome any financial contribution you can afford as while our service receives some HSE support, we still need voluntary contributions from individuals or organisations to keep the service going. Contributions can be transferred to our Bank of Ireland account in Newbridge. Newbridge Daycare Centre, BIC No: BOFIE2D, IBAN: IE42BOFI90126382749997.
