MEDJUGORJE

1981 – 2021

This coming Friday, 25th June, marks the 40th anniversary of the beginning of the Medjugorje phenomenon. Newbridge parish was among the first groups of Irish pilgrims which visited the shrine and has continued to do so over the years.

Of course we cannot speak of Medjugorje in Newbridge without mentioning the name of Liam Prendergast and the trojan work which he did over many years to bring people to Medjugorje and to promote the message of Our Lady.

To celebrate this anniversary an evening of prayer will take place in Cill Mhuire this coming Friday beginning with Rosary at 6.00pm and following the usual prayer programme which takes place each evening in Medjugorje.

All are welcome to join us in Cill Mhuire this coming Friday while following the usual Covid-19 guidelines for church gatherings.

O Virgin Mary, Queen of Peace, Whose motherly hand has pointed us to Your Son for all these years, and whose words have lovingly guided us
to His heart,
as we pause to acknowledge four decades of grace
we thank you for the gift
of your presence,
for every word pronounced
to lead us to peace.

We thank you, Mother,
For all the lost souls
Who have found again the path of life,
For every pilgrim heart
That has travelled in faith
To encounter you
And who has returned home
Renewed in spirit.

As we marvel at the love
which brings you to us, we pray that we may be messengers of your message, and follow in our own lives
the direction of your hand which always points us to your Son.

Amen.
