Blessed Oscar Romero

On Sunday, 14th October 2018, at a ceremony in Rome, Pope Francis officially recognised the sainthood of Oscar Romero, Archbishop of San Salvador. It was a fitting tribute to an extraordinary man, whose life still influences the work of Trōcaire and similar organisations working for human rights around the world.

Archbishop Romero was a great friend of Trōcaire. His leadership, conviction and compassion still guide Trōcaire's values of solidarity, participation, perseverance and courage in our work today. In 1979, we began funding the El Salvador Human Rights Commission, which was set up by the Archbishop, in response to the unlawful killing of 8,000 people. Trōcaire received a letter from Monsignor Romero dated 1 March 1980 asking for funding to restore the broadcasting unit. He wrote "Not having the radio deprives us of a means so important here". He also wrote in the same letter "I would like to thank your kindness and preoccupation for our country and our Church and the kindness of the Irish Bishop's Conference and Trōcaire". Two weeks after writing this letter, Archbishop Romero was brutally murdered.

Archbishop Romero's death was not in vain. Today his legacy continues to be deeply embedded in the work of Trōcaire.

"It is not God's will for some to have everything and others to have nothing".
Blessed Oscar Romero

It helps now and then, to step back and take the long view.

*The kingdom is not only beyond our efforts,
It is beyond our vision.*

We accomplish in our lifetime only a tiny fraction of the magnificent enterprise that is God's work.

*Nothing we do is complete,
which is another way of saying* that the kingdom always lies beyond us.

We cannot do everything and there is a sense of liberation in realizing that.

This enables us to do something,

and to do it very well.

Taken from the Prayer of Oscar Romero

Share Food was established in 2014. Since then it has been helping people who are struggling because of economic circumstances, illness, migration, homelessness, bereavement and other difficulties. People in emergency situations are also assisted. Items in special demand at present include sugar, coffee, tinned meat and tinned soup, biscuits and crackers. Sincere thanks to all our contributors. Food donations may be left into the three churches in the parish and in the Parish Centre, Tesco, SuperValu and Dunnes Stores.
