World Day of Remembrance for Traffic Victims.

During this month of November we continue to remember and pray for all who have died. This Sunday marks World Day of Remembrance for Traffic Victims. It provides us with an opportunity as road users to reflect on the loss of loved ones and the suffering of families and others bereaved by someone killed on our roads.

We might stop and think about what it is like to be involved in a road accident, what it is like to have survived a crash and live with the memories, what it must be like to receive that knock on the door in the middle of the night. A road collision can affect every parent, family member and friends and we should all remember those who have lost their lives on our roads.

Let us remember today all who have lost their lives in road traffic accidents and all who mourn their loss.

The Kingdom

It's a long way off but inside it
There are quite different things going on:
Festivals at which the poor man
Is king and the consumptive is Healed; mirrors in which the blind look
At themselves and love looks at them
Back; and industry is for mending
The bent bones and the minds fractured
By life. It's a long way off, but to get
There takes no time and admission
Is free, if you will purge yourself
Of desire, and present yourself with
Your need only and the simple offering
Of your faith, green as a leaf.
