Merry
CHRISTMAS AND A HAPPY
New Year

HE HIMSELF WILL BE PEACE (MICAH 5:4)

The angels who appeared over Bethlehem on that first Christmas night sang of a Saviour whose coming would herald peace for all people of good will. May His peace, which the world cannot give, enter deeply into our hearts and our homes this Christmas time.

May His peace enter the homes which are disturbed through bereavement, discord among spouses, violence, abuse, addiction, financial worries, sickness or any other ill.

May His peace soothe the minds which are troubled, depressed, confused, angry, despairing, or lonely.

May His peace enter the hearts of all who are charged with the task of formulating public policy during these days of pandemic.

May His peace descend on those who govern us.

May His peace flood through the halls and corridors of our hospitals, nursing homes and medical centres bringing relief to those who are ill and rest to those who render care.

May His peace dance in our schools, lightening the burdens of those who work there and those who learn and grow there.

May His peace become a reality between all nations and peoples especially where there is war and aggression.

And may we ourselves be messengers of His peace.

Come Lord Jesus,
Do not delay.
You are a man of Your word.
Bring us that peace
which the world cannot give.
Amen.

Thank you to all who support the work of the parish in so many ways. You are too numerous to mention. May the peace of Christ be your reward this Christmas.

Fr. Ruairí Ó Domhnaill PP

Newbridge Parish Share Food

The Share Food co-ordinators, Sr. Eileen Murphy, Gaye White and Mairead Ryan wish to thank everyone who donated throughout the year. Without your help it would not have been possible to distribute 120 food parcels each week to people in need. We thank our volunteers, parish clergy & staff, staff in Dunnes Stores, Tesco and SuperValu who assist us on an ongoing basis. We send greetings to all our recipients and hope 2022 will see better prospects for them. Finally, we wish everyone connected with Share Food a Happy and Holy Christmas and best wishes for the New Year.
