FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

As we prepare these next couple of weeks to celebrate our country's birthday, I think we can all agree we are in need for greater prayer and healing. Our thoughts, conscience, and very spirit are brought into the complexity of social issues every day within the fabric of national and world events.

No matter how we feel about a particular issue or event that's going on, we are called as a brother and sister of the Lord Jesus to bring it to prayer to gain insight and work with God's grace. We are a country in need of healing. As Jesus prayed for His disciples "to be one," we often give up too easily on our collective and unitive efforts. Only when we do this will "God Bless America."

God's Peace,
Father David
