Dear Brothers and Sisters,

It didn't take me long to learn when I was first ordained to the priesthood that there were those of us who worked, and those of us who spent a good majority of the time "eating and drinking" (Romans 14:17). I pray that I may always be found putting in a hard day's work. I thought of this when thinking about how hard and dedicated some of our parishioners worked during this year's parish Festival. I also pray their hard work, sweat, and sometimes tears will reap great rewards in heaven for helping Christ build His church, one Festival at a time.

I want to thank all those who labored by volunteering with this year's Festival. You are treasured and appreciated by your Pastor.

God's Peace,
Father David
