(Tel: 251 - 432 - 4609)

(FAX: 251 - 432 - 4647)

Office Hours: Mon - Thurs, 9 am - 4 pm (CST) and Fri, 9 am - 12 noon (CST)

Possible ways to locate a Respondent:

Use as many of the following methods as needed and complete the information in each section. This completed form is required for our records if you are not successful in determining the current address of the respondent. Without a respondent's correct address or documented efforts to obtain it, there can be no annulment case.

1. Last known address:

- a. Date mailed:
- b. Date returned to you and reason(s) (if applicable):

2. Relatives and friends:

- a. Name and relationship:
- b. Date mailed:
- c. Date returned to you and reason(s) (if applicable):

If they do not wish to give you the address, ask if they will forward the mail for you so that the respondent can correspond directly with the Tribunal Office.

3. Telephone directory assistance:

Contact telephone directory assistance in cities where the respondent has lived for possible listing(s):

- a. List cities contacted and results:
- b. Results of attempts by telephone:

4. Public library:

They have copies of current directories for large cities and metro areas in the United States. With a telephone listing, an address can be found through the main office of the public library.

- a. Note dates and results:

5. City directory:

Check for respondent's last known address:

- a. List cities consulted and results:

6. Professional organizations:

Public library has addresses for these organizations and if you think respondent might be a member of one:

- a. List organization checked and results:

7. College or University affiliations:

List organizations checked and results:

- a. College Alumni Associations:
- b. Fraternity or Sorority member lists:

8. Credit records:

Contact Credit Bureau, Better Business Bureau, and Equifax, etc. for possible information on the respondent.

- a. List any contacts and results:

9. Divorce attorney:

Respondent's divorce attorney may have a current mailing address:

- a. Ask if a letter could be forwarded to the respondent thereby allowing that person to communicate directly with the Tribunal Office.

10. Motor vehicle records:

Contact the Department of Motor Vehicles to check for violations in respondent's last known state and in turn, request an address.

11. Social Security records (you will need SSN of respondent):

Request the Social Security Office forward a letter for you (they may charge a fee) and ask that the respondent in turn contact the Tribunal Office directly.

12. Documents:

If you have a copy of the marriage license, these documents often have the social security number of the bride and groom on them and that can be most helpful in locating the other person. Also, the social security number is sometimes located on divorce decrees. Please check what you have to see if this is the case.

13. Internet search (There are many ways to do this.); these may be helpful:

INSTRUCTION AND INFORMATION SHEET FOR SF 180, REQUEST PERTAINING TO MILITARY RECORDS

1. Information needed to locate records. Certain identifying information is necessary to determine the location of an individual's record of military service. Please try to answer each item on the SF 180. If you do not have and cannot obtain the information for an item, show "NA," meaning the information is "not available." Include as much of the requested information as you can.

2. Restrictions on release of information. Release of information is subject to restrictions imposed by the military services consistent with Department of Defense regulations and the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) and the Privacy Act of 1974. The service member (either past or present) or the member's legal guardian has access to almost any information contained in that member's own record. An authorization signature, of the service member or the member's legal guardian, is needed in Section III of the SF180. Others requesting information from military personnel/health records must have the release authorization in Section III of the SF 180 signed by the member or legal guardian, but if the appropriate signature cannot be obtained, only limited types of information can be provided. If the former member is deceased, surviving next of kin may, under certain circumstances, be entitled to greater access to a deceased veteran's records than a member of the public. The next of kin may be any of the following: unremarried surviving spouse, father, mother, son, daughter, sister, or brother. Employers and others needing proof of military service are expected to accept the information shown on documents issued by the military service departments at the time a service member is separated.

3. Where reply may be sent. The reply may be sent to the member or any other address designated by the member or other authorized requester.

4. Charges for service. There is no charge for most services provided to members or their surviving next of kin. A nominal fee is charged for certain types of service. In most instances service fees cannot be determined in advance. If your request involves a service fee, you will be notified as soon as that determination is made.

5. Health and personnel records. Health records of persons on active duty are generally kept at the local servicing clinic, and usually are available from the Department of Veterans Affairs a week or two after the last day of active duty. (See page 2 of SF180 for record locations/addresses.)

6. Records at the National Personnel Records Center. Note that it takes at least three months, and often up to seven, for the file to reach the National Personnel Records Center in St. Louis after the military obligation has ended (such as by discharge). If only a short time has passed, please send the inquiry to the address shown for active or current reserve members. Also, if the person has only been released from active duty but is still in a reserve status, the personnel record will stay at the location specified for reservists. A person can retain a reserve obligation for several years, even without attending meetings or receiving annual training. (See page 2 of SF180 for record locations/addresses.)

7. Definitions and abbreviations. DISCHARGED -- the individual has no current military status; HEALTH -- Records of physical examinations, dental treatment, and outpatient medical treatment received while in a duty status (does not include records of treatment while hospitalized); TDRL – Temporary Disability Retired List.

8. Service completed before World War I. National Archives Trust Fund (NATF) forms must be used to request these records. Obtain the forms by e-mail from inquire@nara.gov or write to the Code 6 address on page 2 of the SF 180.

PRIVACY ACT OF 1974 COMPLIANCE INFORMATION

The following information is provided in accordance with 5 U.S.C. 552a(e)(3) and applies to this form. Authority for collection of the information is 44 U.S.C. 2907, 3101, and 3103, and Public Law 104-134 (April 26, 1996), as amended in title 31, section 7701. Disclosure of the information is voluntary. If the requested information is not provided, it may delay servicing your inquiry because the facility servicing the service member's record may not have all of the information needed to locate it. The purpose of the information on this form is to assist the facility servicing the records (see the address list) in locating the correct military service record(s) or information to answer your inquiry. This form is then filed in the requested military service record as a record of disclosure. The form may also be disclosed to Department of Defense components, the Department of Veterans Affairs, the Department of Homeland Security (DHS, U.S. Coast Guard), or the National Archives and Records Administration when the original custodian of the military health and personnel records transfers all or part of those records to that agency. If the service member was a member of the National Guard, the form may also be disclosed to the Adjutant General of the appropriate state, District of Columbia, or Puerto Rico, where he or she served.

PAPERWORK REDUCTION ACT PUBLIC BURDEN STATEMENT

Public burden reporting for this collection of information is estimated to be five minutes per response, including time for reviewing instructions and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding the burden estimate or any other aspect of the collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to National Archives and Records Administration (NHP), 8601 Adelphi Road, College Park, MD 20740-6001. DO NOT SEND COMPLETED FORMS TO THIS ADDRESS. SEND COMPLETED FORMS AS INDICATED IN THE ADDRESS LIST ON PAGE 2 OF THE SF 180.
