At the Fall General Assembly in Baltimore on November 15, 2016, Bishop Brendan Cahill joined his brother bishops as they approved the 2017-2020 strategic plan. The plan is centered on five strategic priorities approved by the full body of bishops. These priorities are: Evangelization, Family and Marriage, Human Life and Dignity, Vocations and Ongoing Formation, and Religious Freedom. Bishop Cahill has dedicated himself to support and guide the Diocese of Victoria to focus on these priorities.

One of those priorities, Vocations and Ongoing Formation, is one that the Serra Club of Victoria has been supporting for over 60 years. The Serra Club of Victoria began in the fall of 1958 through the vision of the late, Monsignor F.O. Beck who was pastor of St. Mary’s. He contacted Dr. Joe Hopkins, Frank Fossati, Dion R. Holm Jr., M.V. Sandhofer, and R.A. Stevenson Jr. to help him form the club. On November 2, 1959 the club was sponsored by Dr. John Thiel of Galveston and became club number 191 with R.A. Stevenson, Jr. elected as first chairman.

Serra USA was formed in 1935 when a small group of lay people in Seattle decided to form an organization to promote and foster vocations to the priesthood and consecrated religious life. They chose Father Junipero Serra as their patron and named the organization SERRA Club of Seattle.

Junipero Serra was born on the island of Majorca on the East side of Spain on November 24th, 1713. He took the name of Junipero when he entered the Franciscan Order in 1730. Father Serra moved to Mexico City, Mexico on August 28th, 1784. While he was in Mexico all of the Franciscan Monks were asked to take over the missions in Baja California. After these missions were taken over, they became the responsibility of Father Serra. Father Serra is known as the founder of many of the missions in California.

Serra Clubs are known worldwide for their efforts to foster and affirm Catholic vocations to the ministerial priesthood and vowed religious life. Serrans value not only their work, but also the sense of community they receive from knowing that they are not alone in their dedication to the men and women who have dedicated their life in ministry and service to our Church. The current president of the Serra Club of Victoria, JoAnn Bleier has been a member for 18 years. She explained that the club hosts events for the seminarians, sisters and deacons throughout the year to show their support and appreciation to them. They also have two meetings per month. JoAnn shares, “It is a real joy to be around the seminarians and sisters, they are so happy. They are a bunch of young men and women dedicating their lives to God. There is something about them that gives you joy.” Another member, John Stevenson has been a Serran for almost 20 years. His father, R.A. Stevenson was one of the founding members. John recalls “growing up” in the Serra Club and how their family vacations were always intertwined

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

In January I had the opportunity to see a performance of “The Music Man” by the Victoria School District. First of all I want to express on behalf of so many of us our gratitude for the teachers, administrators, coaches, parents and students who put so much effort into these performances for the rest of us to enjoy! We are all blessed as a community by the dedicated work of these men and women.

As I was watching the performance I remembered a conference I gave to seminarians a few years ago at St. Mary’s Seminary. I began the conference with a five-minute video of a song from “The Music Man.” If you know the musical you may remember the song - “Pick-A-Little, Talk-A-Little”. The song had a funny way of illustrating a real thing many of us deal with each day. In the song people can’t help but share unsubstantiated rumors and gossip about others. They say things like: “I really shouldn’t tell you this, but …” One of the things that is so great about some of these musicals is the truth they point out to the audience. The point I wanted to make in the talk at the Seminary was how easy it is for us to slip into the habit of gossiping and talking badly about people.

It almost seems like we’re surrounded by gossip every day. Just think about the checkout line at the grocery store – what are the messages on the covers of the magazines that are sitting there? Thinking about this little lesson from the past helped me begin to think about this upcoming Lent. As we work to cleanse our hearts for the celebration of Easter we could be challenged to cleanse our lips and minds from words that are hurtful for others to words that build up and encourage. Pope Francis offers a beautiful prayer that may fitting for us to pray this Lent:

Lord, make us instruments of your peace. Help us to recognize the evil latent in a communication that does not build communion. Help us to remove the venom from our judgments. Help us to speak about others as our brothers and sisters. You are faithful and trustworthy; may our words be seeds of goodness for the world; where there is shouting, let us practice listening; where there is confusion, let us inspire harmony; where there is ambiguity, let us bring clarity; where there is exclusion, let us offer solidarity; where there is sensationalism, let us use sobriety; where there is superficiality, let us raise real questions; where there is prejudice, let us awaken trust; where there is hostility, let us bring respect; where there is falsehood, let us bring truth. Amen.

Again, I want to particularly thank each of you who have committed to pray the Rosary for the gift of peace in the world and for the family. As St. John Paul II invited us to pray this faithfully, I believe we can maintain our confidence in the power of this prayer – more than we ever know! May God bless you and your families, let’s keep each other in prayer.

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas,

En enero tuve la oportunidad de ver una actuación llamado “The Music Man” (El hombre de la música) por el distrito escolar de Victoria. En primer lugar quiero expresar en nombre de muchos de nosotros nuestro agradecimiento por los maestros, administradores, entrenadores, padres y estudiantes que ponen mucho esfuerzo en estas actuaciones para que el resto de nosotros puedan disfrutarlo! Todos hemos sido bendecidos como una comunidad por el trabajo dedicado de estos hombres y mujeres.

Mientras miraba la actuación me recorde de una conferencia que di a seminaristas hace unos años en el Seminario de Santa Marí. Empecé la conferencia con un video de cinco minutos de una canción de del musical “The Music Man”. Si conoces el drama puede recordar la canción - “Pick-A-Little, Talk-A-Little”. La canción tenía una manera divertida de ilustrar una cosa real que muchos de nosotros tratamos con cada día. En la canción la gente no puede dejar de compartir rumores sin fundamento y chismes sobre los demás. Dicen cosas como: “Realmente no debería decirte esto, pero…” Una de las cosas que es tan grande acerca de algunos de estos musicales es la verdad que señalan a la audiencia. El punto que quería hacer en la conferencia en el Seminario fue lo fácil que es para nosotros a caer en el hábito de chismes y hablar mal de la gente.

Casi parece que estamos rodeados de chismes todos los días. Piensa en la fila en el supermercado - ¿Cuáles son los mensajes en las cubiertas de las revistas que están puestos allí? Pensando en esta pequeña lección del pasado me ayudó a empezar a pensar en esta próxima Cuaresma. A medida que trabajamos para limpiar nuestros corazones para la celebración de Pascua podríamos ser desafiados para limpiar nuestros labios y las mentes de las palabras que hacen daño a los demás a las palabras que se acumulan y fomentan. El Papa Francisco ofrece una hermosa oración que puede ser apropiado que oremos esta Cuaresma:

Señor, haznos instrumentos de tu paz. Haznos reconocer el mal que se insinúa en una comunicación que no crea comunión. Haznos capaces de quitar el veneno de nuestros juicios. Ayúdanos a hablar de los otros como de hermanos y hermanas. Tú eres fiel y digno de confianza; haz que nuestras palabras sean semillas de bien para el mundo: donde hay ruido, haz que practiquemos la escucha; donde hay confusión, haz que inspiremos armonía; donde hay ambigüedad, haz que llevemos claridad; donde hay exclusión, haz que llevemos el compartir; donde hay sensacionalismo, haz que usemos la sobriedad; donde hay superficialidad, haz que planteeimos interrogantes verdaderos; donde hay prejuicio, haz que suscitemos confianza; donde hay agresividad, haz que llevemos respeto; donde hay falsedad, haz que llevemos verdad. Amén.

Una vez más, quiero agradecer especialmente a cada uno de ustedes que se han comprometido a rezar el rosario por el don de la paz en el mundo y para la familia. Como San Juan Pablo II nos invita a orar con fidelidad, creo que podemos mantener nuestra confianza en la eficacia de esta oración - más de lo que sabemos! Que Dios los bendiga y a sus familias, vamos a mantenernos en la oración.

Serran Prayer for Vocations

O God, who will not the death of a sinner but rather that he be converted and live, grant we beseech you, through the intercession of the Blessed Mary ever Virgin, Saint Joseph, her spouse, St. Junipero Serra, and all the saints, an increase of laborers for your Church, fellow laborers with Christ to spend and consume themselves for souls through the same Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever. Amen.
Dear Bishop Cahill,

I was delighted to see the article in the January 2018 issue of The Lighthouse where Bishop Cahill mentioned Father Kram. I had been wondering about the process of Father Kram being recognized as a saint and do realize it does take years. Thank you Bishop Cahill for mentioning and updating us on Father Kram in your article.

Mary Ann Tichacek

Dear Editor,

I have been a member of Our Lady of Victory Parish since I moved to Victoria in 1963. In 2016, I had to relocate to Vitality Court Senior Living. After reading the article in the December Lighthouse about the “Ministry for the Homebound,” I felt I would be remiss if I did not tell you about a dedicated and selfless lay minister here at Vitality Court. His name is George Sherman. George comes faithfully, rain or shine, every Sunday at 9:30 a.m. for what we refer to as our Mass, without the consecration of course. We start our services with a song (a little out of tune). The clients do all the daily readings, and George does the Gospel. After the creed and the Lord’s Prayer, we then receive the consecration host. Concluding our service is another song. Because of this ministry, I knew Vitality Court was the place I wanted to be. The attendance has grown so that it has been relocated from the Chapel to a larger room.

On behalf of all the clients here at Vitality Court, let me conclude by thanking George Sherman for his selfless dedication to the “Ministry for the Homebound.”

Sincerely,
Imogene Klare

Dear Bishop Cahill,

It was with deep sadness to receive the recent notification of the death of Reverend Monsignor Lawrence John Matula. Please accept my most heartfelt sympathy for you and the entire Diocese of Victoria. May the love of God sustain you and the promises of God comfort you in this hour of sorrow.

I will be praying for the repose of Monsignor Lawrence’s soul especially at Holy Mass, giving thanks to our Lord for his many years of faithful dedication and service to the Church, both in the Archdiocese of San Antonio and the Diocese of Victoria. Be assured of my prayers for you and the Victoria community during this time of grief.

Through the intercession of Our Lady of Sorrows, may our Lord Jesus bless you with peace and comfort.

Fraternally yours in Christ,
Most Reverend Gustavo Garcia-Siller, M.Sp.S.

Love ...

Hurricane Harvey gets a lot of blame whenever we have scheduling conflicts. The events which were scheduled for last fall often were rescheduled for winter because the facilities in which they were to occur were in need of repair from water and/or wind damage. However, most of us had already filled our calendars with ordinarily-scheduled winter events. As a result we have to make decisions as to what to do when. So it is easy to say that it’s Harvey’s fault when we have these calendar conflicts.

Now there is one conflict for which we can’t blame Harvey. We have discovered that St. Valentine’s Day falls on Ash Wednesday; or should we say that Ash Wednesday falls on St. Valentine’s Day. Either way, there seems to be a conflict because we like to observe both.

Let’s look at this dilemma from another angle, remembering that on Valentine’s Day various expressions of love are present. Keeping this in mind, it might be very fitting that we commemorate Ash Wednesday as the beginning or intensifying of the greatest Love Story of all time; Jesus’ preparation in the desert for his mission of proclaiming God’s Kingdom; His actions throughout His ministry; His giving of Himself in the Eucharist and finally His enduring a horrible agony and death in order to redeem us.

Not only does Jesus demonstrate His great love for every one of us, He commands us to “Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the first and greatest commandment”. And the second: ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.” (Matthew 22:37-40).

What is this love to which we are all commanded? We all know it is much more than the catchy lines on a greeting card or cute little animals wearing cute little valentines, or even a fancy box of chocolates. While these symbols are fitting reminders; we all know that the love which Jesus talks about is much deeper. It is a self-sacrificing, unconditional love that puts God in first place in our list of priorities.

Love is not always easy. How can we grow in this love? How about hanging out with God by turning off some of our noisy electronic devices and placing our-selves in God’s presence and giving God some silent listening time? It is often difficult to deepen our emotional connection with God when our minds and hearts are distracted by the continual busyness that is too frequently present in daily life.

Not only are we called to open and develop channels of love between God and ourselves, we are commanded to “Love your neighbor as yourself.” Thus, God is calling us to extend this love with those about us. This love, if it is truly God’s love that we have, is genuine and self-sacrificing. We know that we cannot love Christ if we do not truly love those about us. Christ demonstrated His love for us by giving up His life; I am willing to share of my time or my possessions without counting the cost. Christ showed His love and humility by washing the feet of his disciples; do we have that same love and humility when we encounter the poor or unfortunate person? Are we willing to forgive others and let by-gones be by-gones? Are we willing to “walk in the shoes” of the down-trodden in order to help them? Are we willing to take time to listen to the “unheard”? Are we willing to be their “voice” when needed?

This is the love which St. Valentine’s Day celebrates. So we remember this when we exchange greeting cards with their catchy lines, or cute little animals with their cute little valentines, or chocolates in the fancy boxes. When? Perhaps our Mardi Gras celebrations won’t mind sharing with the valentine parties; then we’ll be ready to join Christ, our Master Lover, in the desert on Ash Wednesday.

Knights of Columbus Council Recognized by the City of Hallettsville

By Jimmy Appelt
Hallettsville Tribune-Herald

HALLETTSVILLE—During the Knights of Columbus Father Mathis Council 2433 meeting held Tuesday, December 5, Mayor Stephen Hunter presented the organization with a city proclamation for their service and assistance to Stevens Nursing and Rehabilitation Center (SNRC) of Hallettsville during Hurricane Harvey.

On August 25, Hurricane Harvey struck the mid-Texas coast at Rockport placing it in a direct line of Hallettsville.

Due to the hurricane taking on an erratic turn, our area was spared of major storm damage. The storm did impact the area with damage to trees and some structures from the high winds.

However, the most significant affect came from the threat of the rising waters of the Lavaca River that occurred due to the continuous and steady rain from the storm. Officially the area received 19.96 inches during its duration with the bulk of the rain falling on August 26 (9.95 inches) and August 27 (5.59 inches).

With the location of the SNRC in close proximity to the western bank of the Lavaca River and because the water threatened to rise above flood level, it was determined to evacuate the center.

The Knights of Columbus Council 2433 was quick to extend a helping hand and opened its doors to SNRC for several days providing a safe facility to house the center’s residents.

At Tuesday, December 5, Knights of Columbus meeting, Mayor Hunter presented the proclamation during a brief ceremony.

“Due to the compassion of Father Mathis Council 2433, the residents of Stevens Nursing and Rehabilitation Center were better protected from the threat of flooding from the Lavaca River,” Mayor Hunter said. “The Hallettsville City Council recognizes the Knights of Columbus Father Mathis Council 2433 for their leadership during Hurricane Harvey and extends its appreciation to Council 2433 for all of their efforts and assistance that they provided to our community.”

On behalf of the City of Hallettsville, Mayor Hunter also thanked the club for the use of the hall and supporting the evacuation of the residents during the middle of the night.

CZECH CHRISTMAS MASS CONCERT—On Sunday, December 3, at St. Mary’s in Praha, Professor Thomas Sovik and four graduate students from the College of Music at the University of North Texas put on a performance of Czech Christmas Mass (Ceska mše vanocni) by Jakub Simon Jan Ryba that was first performed on Christmas Eve 1796 in Rozmital pod Tremsinem (south Bohemia). Professor Sovik played the organ while the graduate students sang. They were also accompanied by Christopher Philipp on the cello. All of the participants were dressed in period costumes making for a wonderful site as they performed the Mass hymns. The graduate students who sang were: Soprano Julianna Emanski, Mezzo-soprano Hannah Ceniseros, Tenor Barrett Radziun, and recently graduated student, Bass-baritone Dr. Brock Johnson. A fiery sermon on “The Waste and Folly of the Season” was given in Czech by Professor Thomas Sovik. In attendance at the performance was the Deputy Head of Mission (Deputy Ambassador) at the Czech Embassy in Washington, D.C., Mr. Zdenek Beranek. The parishioners of St. Mary’s Church in Praha thanked Professor Sovik, the students and former student of North Texas University for the wonderful performance. We would also like to thank the Dean of the College of Music at The University of North Texas, John Richmond for his support of the performance. We would also like to thank The Czech Educational Foundation of Texas for continuing support of The Czech Heritage in Texas and, in particular, this performance. A reception was held after the performance where those attending were able visit with the performers, the Deputy Ambassador, the Dean of the College of Music and the representatives from the Czech Educational Foundation.

Evangelization and Human Life & Dignity = This year Sacred Heart Catholic School students and faculty brought joy to children around the world through their participation in Operation Christmas Child through Samaritan’s Purse. Samaritan’s Purse was founded by Bob Pierce in 1970 after he had traveled around the world and saw the need to provide emergency needs in crisis areas. Faculty members and students donated toys, books, clothing, and personal items for children in other countries. They spent an afternoon filling shoeboxes with the donated items and wrapping the boxes. A total of 142 shoeboxes were sent to children in Mexico, Ecuador, and Zambia. Knowing that these shoeboxes would bring much joy to children who are less fortunate instilled the true spirit of the Christmas season in our students.

Evangelization = St. Paul Student Council members delivered 175 Christmas goodie bags to soldiers and their families at Brooke Army Medical Center (BAMC), located in San Antonio before their Christmas break. They visited the Fisher House, a place where “wounded warriors” and their families are given an opportunity to heal, in a warm, supportive environment. What a wonderful way for the students at Shiner Catholic School to say thanks to our military men and women for their service to our country and to spread God’s love through service to others.

Human Life and Dignity = After Hurricane Harvey, the students at St. Michael’s Catholic School in Cuero collected canned food and other nonperishable items. The students donated the items to Camel House, which is a food pantry that serves the needy in the community. During time off from school, many of the students and their families helped their neighbors with cleanup from the storm. The students showed compassion and kindness for people in need in the community.

CATHOLIC SCHOOL

Human Life and Dignity = At the beginning of this school year, the third grade students chose to each spiritually adopt an unborn child. Each student named their unborn baby, wrote the baby a prayer and placed it in a baby bottle that had been decorated by the student. Daily, at 2:30 p.m. when the entire school is praying a decade of the Rosary, the third grade students are praying for their spiritually adopted unborn child. On January 22, students in grades 3-6 went out to the Cemetery of the Innocent (Field of Crosses) to pray the rosary. The 6th grade students annually make baby blankets and donate them to the local Women’s Pregnancy Center. These same students also sew adult bibs and then take them to a local nursing home and pass them out to the residents while visiting them.

Evangelization = The tragedy of Hurricane Harvey provided many evangelization opportunities for Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic School such as donating over $950 via the NCEA Student to Student campaign, taking in 5 students from the Catholic School in Rockport until they could return back to their hometown, partnering with other area churches to collect and distribute emergency supplies for families impacted, donating new library books to the Catholic School in Rockport, and even dedicating the 2017 Christmas OLG Christmas pageant to a Mariner alumni family that lost their home during the storm and presenting them with a special Christmas Tree of student-handmade ornaments to replace they ones the lost. The students learned that even the hardest of times can result in beautiful acts of kindness and joy, through the Grace of God.

Family Life = St. Philip Catholic School recently held a Science Night offering a fun, family, educational opportunity for students and their parents. Hosted by the PTC, this event encouraged family participation in academic experiences modeling examples of a learning atmosphere where learning can be fun! The smiles tell a great story!
Evangelization = It's a tradition at St. Joseph High School for the school to present each new student with their own copy of the holy bible at a special New Student Bible Mass. This year STJ's Chaplain, Father Stephen Vacek, celebrated Mass and blessed the bibles for 74 freshmen and 10 transfer students. The bibles are a gift, given to the students to use in their theology classes throughout high school and beyond. The gift of the holy bible provides every student who attends St. Joseph High School with scripture to study, and furthermore, serves as a resource to help share the Good News of Jesus. Pictured is Father Stephen with a group of the new students who received bibles on October 4, 2017.

Evangelization = November 1, All Saints Day, students, teachers, friends and families of St. Joseph School in Yoakum were invited to the school library to attend a saintly social. Each seventh grade student dressed up and gave an oral and visual presentation about a saint of their choice. Learning about the life of the saints inspired the students toward Christian values and the Gospel.

Evangelization = The St. Anthony student council students are pictured with the Columbus Mayor, Dwain Dungen to promote Catholic education and Catholic Schools Week. He signed a city proclamation promoting January 28-Feb 3 as Catholic Schools Week in Columbus. The students of St. Anthony evangelize by serving the community. They help with drive-through dinners for the KC and Catholic Daughters, participate in the Columbus Pro-Life March sponsored by St. Anthony Church, prepare the liturgy for Friday Masses, and prepared 11 recordings at KULM to be played during Catholic Schools Week promoting Catholic Education and St. Anthony School.
Evangelization = Students at St. Michael Catholic School in Weimar collected and delivered food items to replenish the food pantry in La Grange after Hurricane Harvey wreaked devastation in this neighboring community. The 8th grade students volunteered at Second Chance, a La Grange ministry assisting those in need, by sorting boxes of donations made to Harvey victims. The students recognized how blessed they were to have fared well during the storm and were eager to help those who were devastated by this natural disaster.

Evangelization = The heart of our mission statement is evangelizing and we strive to be God’s presence in the world in all we do. Students share the faith with weekly liturgies, seasonal prayer services, frequent reception of the sacraments and adoration throughout the school year. Service projects such as our Thanksgiving food drive, Change 4 Change donation and nursing home visits encourage students to live the corporal works of mercy and share God’s love in their community. This authentic witness to the faith is the true gift of Catholic Education. The start of the school year began much like this scripture passage as Father Ty Bazar gathered the children at the altar for a blessing. Extending his hands upon them he asked for God to bless and protect them, to guide and instruct them. This is the heart of evangelization, that we place Jesus Christ at the center of our lives and bring his message to the world in all we do.

Evangelization = Before the Christmas holidays, Nazareth Academy students, faculty, and school community conducted two separate drives: A soup and sock drive and a food drive. Approximately 600 pounds of food were given to VCAM and St. Vincent de Paul to be distributed to the needy in our area. They also donated 966 cans of soup and pairs of socks to Angels Care Home Health to be given to the elderly. Through their participation, the students truly learned that “There is more happiness in giving than in receiving.” Acts 20:35
The Sacred Heart Senior Environmental Science class recently won “Best in Country” and “Best Video” for the 8th Annual Rio Research Roundup which was held on October 11, 2017. The Rio Research Roundup is an annual student water testing project put on by the Rio Grande International Study Center that involves nearly 80 student teams from the United States and Mexico. As part of the Roundup, student teams use water testing kits, provided to them by RGISC, and on a given day in October, test the waters of their local river. Students report and analyze data for water quality parameters that include bacteria, nitrates, phosphates, oxygen, turbidity, pH, temperature and others. Additionally, students submit artwork, a video, public service announcement, and write an essay about their particular river. Students include Jordan J., John B., Ms. Alyson Klimitchek, class instructor; Annie B., Adam K., Jonathan J., Simon M., Kaitlyn R., Arin S., Maci G., Reese W., Dusty B., and Reid T.

World Marriage Day ~ February 11

World Marriage Day (WMD) is always the 2nd Sunday in February. This year it will be February 11, 2018. In observance of World Marriage Day the Diocese of Victoria wanted to recognize the longest married couple in the Diocese of Victoria. John J. and Hazel L. (Doerrich) Kobersky of Holman have been married for 75 years. They were featured in the January 2018 Lighthouse. Many blessing to all married couples of the Diocese of Victoria.

Prayer - “Father, as we prepare for WMD, we thank you for your tremendous gift of the Sacrament of Marriage. Help us to witness to its glory by a life of growing intimacy. Teach us the beauty of forgiveness so we may become more and more One in Heart, Mind and Body. Strengthen our dialogue and help us become living signs of your love. Make us grow more in love with the Church so we may renew the Body of Christ. Make us a sign of unity in the name of Jesus, our Lord and Brother. Amen” - Fr. Bill Dilgen, S.M.M.

The Season of Lent if Upon Us

The 2018 Lenten season begins on Ash Wednesday, February 14, for Latin-rite Catholics with Easter Sunday on April 1.

During Lent, we are asked to devote ourselves to seeking the Lord in prayer and reading Scripture, to service by giving alms, and to sacrifice self-control through fasting. Many know of the tradition of abstaining from meat on Fridays during Lent.

Lent is a favorable season for opening the doors to all those in need and recognizing in them the face of Christ.”

~ Pope Francis

Lent, but we are also called to practice self-discipline and fast in other ways throughout the season. Contemplate the meaning and origins of the Lenten fasting tradition in this reflection. In addition, the giving of alms is one way to share God’s gifts—not only through the distribution of money, but through the sharing of our time and talents. As St. John Chrysostom reminds us: “Not to enable the poor to share in our goods is to steal from them and deprive them of life. The goods we possess are not ours, but theirs.” (Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 2446).

In Lent, the baptized are called to renew their baptismal commitment as others prepare to be baptized through the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, a period of learning and discernment for individuals who have declared their desire to become Catholics.

Catholics are also encouraged to make going to confession a significant part of their spiritual lives during Lent.

Fortify your Lenten journey with the words of the church fathers and Pope Francis featured on a lent calendar found on the USCCB website at www.usccb.org/prayer-and-worship/liturigical-year/lent/lent-calendar.cfm, and contemplate the suggestions for prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. Print the calendar in English and Spanish and post it in a prominent place to remind you of your commitment to raise up, sacrifice, and offer, during this Lent.

Church Regulations Regarding Fasting and Abstinence

Abstinence from meat (beef or fowl) is to be observed by all Catholics fourteen years old and older on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday and on all the Fridays of Lent. This obligation prohibits the eating of meat, but not eggs, milk products or condiments of any kind, even those made from animal fat. Fasting means limiting oneself to one full meal, on a given fast day. Catholics who are eighteen years of age, but not yet fifty-nine, are obliged to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. On fast days, two additional smaller meals are permitted, if necessary, to maintain strength. However, the two smaller meals together may not equal one full meal. Moreover, eating solid foods between meals on fast days is not permitted.

Lent Cuaresma

Reglas de la Iglesia Sobre Ayuno y Abstinencia

Se les obliga ayunar el Miércoles de Ceniza y el Viernes Santo a personas de diez y ocho años y que no han celebrado sus sesenta años. Ayunar es comer solamente el almuerzo regular con el desayuno y cena con porciones más pequeños. Se les obliga abstenerse de comer carne el Miércoles de Ceniza y todos los Viernes de Cuaresma, de los catorce años más. (Puerco, Chorizo/Salchicha, Tocino, Rez, Venado, Pavo y Pollo son carne). Por esas personas de sesenta años y mayor, no tienen la obligación de ayunar; pero todavía son obligados de no comer carne el Miércoles de Ceniza y todos los Viernes de Cuaresma.
In-flight Nuptials: Pope Didn’t Glide over Church Requirements

By Cindy Wooden
Catholic News Service

VATICAN CITY (CNS) — Pope Francis’ decision to consecrate the marriage of two flight attendants in the air sent waves of turbulence through the Catholic blogosphere, where respected canon lawyers and pastors raised serious questions about the pope sending a message that marriage wasn’t so serious.

But three days later, the pope gave reporters more of the background, demonstrating that he did not make the decision on the fly and neither did the couple.

“I judged they were prepared, they knew what they were doing,” the pope told reporters Jan. 21 on his return flight to Rome. “Both of them had prepared before God — with the sacrament of penance, and I married them.”

The blessing of the marriage of LATAM flight attendants Carlos Ciuflardi Elorriaga and Paula Podest Ruiz took place during the pope’s flight Jan. 18 from Santiago, Chile, to Iquique, Chile, to Iquique January 18. (CNS photo/L’Osservatore Romano)

The next day, both attendants were on duty. They told the pope they had planned to marry in the church, but early in the morning of the day of the wedding, Feb. 27, 2010, a massive earthquake struck Chile and the church collapsed.

The couple ended up marrying in a civil ceremony, and they have two daughters. They told the pope they planned to reschedule the church ceremony but just kept putting it off.

“I questioned them a bit and their answers were clear, it was for life, and they told me they had done the pre-marriage course,” the pope told reporters. Also, he said, “they were aware that they were in an irregular situation.”

In a story Dec. 19 about the crew chosen to work the papal flights, El Mercurio, a Chilean newspaper, had interviewed the couple. Already then, they raised the hope of Pope Francis blessing their union in flight.

“We would love it, it’s our place, it’s our second home,” Podest was quoted as saying.

“One of you said I was crazy to do this,” the pope told reporters. But “they were prepared, and if the priest says they are prepared and I decide that they were prepared … the sacraments are for the people.”

“All the conditions were there, that is clear,” he said. So, “why not do it today,” otherwise they could have put it off for another 10 years.

“The pope saw an opportunity and he worked it,” said Cardinal Kevin J. Farrell, prefect of the Dicastery for Laity, the Family and Life.

“The pope saw an opportunity and he worked it,” said Cardinal Kevin J. Farrell, prefect of the Dicastery for Laity, the Family and Life.

“What he is saying to the priests and to the church is that God’s time to bestow his blessings upon anybody does not necessarily depend on a rule or a regulation,” the cardinal told Catholic News Service Jan. 23.

Cardinal Farrell said that as bishop of Dallas, he would not allow couples to get married on a ranch or in a park. But the pope was not celebrating a wedding on the plane, he was validating a marriage, and Cardinal Farrell, like most priests, has done that in a variety of settings, including hospital rooms. “He did what any good pastor will do.”

“I thought it was an example that the pope set for all of us — that we should not be waiting for the people to come to us, but we should be going to the people,” the cardinal said. “He came out of the sacristy as he has urged priests to do.

Convalidating a marriage on a plane “is not the general norm, but it is a way of bringing people back into the church, into the fold,” the cardinal said. “Why would we not do that?”

Msgr. Cuong M. Pham, an official at the Pontifical Council for Legislative Texts, was grateful Pope Francis provided extra details after the event. But even before knowing those details, it was clear that “the Holy Father, of all people, would take it seriously.”

“It is the task of the priest who officiates to take responsibility and be morally certain that couples who ask to be married are prepared and ready for the sacrament,” he said. That certainty is something that outside observers cannot presume to have.

Besides, he said, “as supreme legislator, the Holy Father has the authority to dispense from and even change merely ecclesiastical laws, if he judges it appropriate,” including canon law’s expectation that weddings take place in a church. Still, the pope’s officiating at a convalidation in midflight is “not meant to be replicated,” Msgr. Pham added.

But, he also said he hoped the pope’s outreach to the couple would encourage priests to be more solicitous toward other Catholic couples who have been married only civilly, finding ways to facilitate the convalidation of their unions as well.

Cardinal Farrell said he hoped other Catholic couples who have married outside the church would see what the pope and flight attendants did and realize that “the mercy of God and the blessing of God and the compassion of Christ is open to everybody.”

“Love Saves Lives”, what a perfect theme for the 45th Annual March for Life! The March for Life, which started in 1973 as a response to the Supreme Court’s decision in Roe v. Wade legalizing abortion in all 50 states, is an annual gathering in Washington, D.C., of pro-life leaders and organizations from around the country. On Friday, January 19th, thousands gathered on the National Mall for the Nation’s largest pro-life event.

This year, the largest group ever from the Diocese of Victoria made the pilgrimage to Washington D.C.. There were more than 90 people from Victoria, Cuero, Shiner, Hallettsville, Ganado, El Campo and Bay City who were blessed to attend. The majority of the group consisted of young people from the diocese, adults, priests, and Bishop Cahill.

Arlington National Cemetery

Early Thursday morning the group visited Arlington National Cemetery. Everyone stood quietly in the frigid morning air as the changing of the guard took place. The Tomb of the Unknown Soldier is guarded 24 hours a day, 365 days a year, and in any weather by Tomb Guard sentinels. Two wreaths were then placed at the grave and taps was played. Four boys from Sss. Cyril and Methodius in Shiner were honored to lay a wreath at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier. As we were leaving we heard the cadence of a drum and around the corner came a funeral procession with horses pulling a casket. Sandy Muñoz, a parishioner of Our Lady of Victory shared, “I remember visiting as a young teenager. This time it was different as I appreciated it all in a different way. It was so real as the funeral unfolded in front of me: the silence, the drums, the horses and the procession. It was awesome. God puts us in certain places at certain times for a reason.” Arlington National Cemetery conducts between 27 and 30 funeral services each weekday.

Vigil Mass for Life at the Basilica of the Immaculate Shrine

Thursday evening they attended the Vigil Mass for Life at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception, where Bishop Brendan Cahill, Father Jasper Liggio and Father Michael Rother concelebrated. The Basilica is the largest Catholic church in the United States. Archbishop Timothy Dolan, from New York was the celebrant and in his homily told the crowd of about 20,000, “We are here to give thanks to God for the gift of human life. Tomorrow we shall overcome!” Mary Machacek who attended the Mass with a group from Shiner shared, “When we came together for Mass at the Basilica there were so many priests and bishops! I felt a sense of unity; our church is universal.” One of the girls on the trip shared, “Mass was amazing! I am discerning religious life. It was inspiring to see so many nuns and from so many orders.”

March for Life Rally and March

Friday morning the groups arrived early at the National Mall to secure a spot close to the stage. As they anxiously waited for the march to begin, Plumb, a Christian singer performed a few songs. Everyone waited patiently and finally around 12:30 p.m. various speakers took the stage. Some speakers included: House Speaker Paul Ryan, Pam Tebow, mother of former NFL quarterback Tim Tebow, Sister Bethany Madonna of Sisters of Life and President of the United States Donald J. Trump, via video satellite.

See Diocese of Victoria, pg. 17
President Donald Trump made history as the first sitting President to ever address the rally via a live video broadcast from the White House Rose Garden. The crowd listened intently as they could see him on a jumbotron at the front of the rally. He shared, “Because of you, tens of thousands of Americans have been born and reached their full God-given potential. Because of you.” One of the students from Cuero said, “I like that we have a president in office that is pro-life.”

Sister Bethany Madonna shared a heart-warming story about a young woman who was pregnant and on her way to her doctor appointment. She entered the elevator with someone who happened to mention that she was considering an abortion. She spoke out about life to her and how she would have a girl. She told her, “Name her Raquel after me, oh and my middle name is Jasmine.” A few years later, she ran into this woman again, who had not one, but two beautiful girls. She had twins and named them Raquel and Jasmine. One of the girls on the trip found this story to be particularly touching. She shared, “I loved the story about Raquel and Jasmine. Sometimes you don’t think you can make a difference but she proved that one person can make a difference.”

The speakers concluded and the Diocese of Victoria group unrolled their beautiful pro-life banner with Our Lady of Guadalupe on one side and the Immaculate Heart of Jesus on the other. They slowly stretched across the length of the street holding the banner and began the march with thousands of people. As they marched everyone prayed a rosary led by Father Michael Rother. One student from Cuero was amazed how they were marching with so many people for one purpose. Another student from Shiner shared, “I was inspired by the large group of kids my age all coming together for one purpose, to fight for the unborn.” Kathy Gibbs, a parishioner of St. Michael in Cuero was particularly touched by the march. She shared, “What stands out to me are two signs I saw during the march. ‘If You were Born after 1973 You are a Survivor’ and ‘I am the Pro-Life Generation’. Our kids and most of the young people out there were survivors; they’ll be the ones that see this through to an end.”

An estimated 100,000 people prayed and marched together that day. “Love Saves Lives”, the theme of the 2018 March for Life was a powerful expression for the thousands who peacefully prayed together, whether present at the march or not.

For you created my inmost being; you knit me together in my mother’s womb. I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; your works are wonderful, I know that full well. My frame was not hidden from you when I was made in the secret place, when I was woven together in the depths of the earth. Your eyes saw my unformed body; all the days ordained for me were written in your book before one of them came to be. Psalm 139:13-16
Boda en vuelo: El papa no ignoró requisitos para matrimonio

Por Cindy Wooden
Catholic News Service

CIUDAD DEL VATICANO (CNS) — La decisión del papa Francisco de confirmar el matrimonio de dos asistentes de vuelo en el aire causó ondas de turbulencia en blogos católicos, donde abogados canónicos y pastores plantearon preguntas serias preguntando si el papa estaba mandando un mensaje de que el matrimonio no es algo muy serio.

Tres días después de casarlos, el papa siguió explicando a reporteros más sobre lo que sucedió, demostrando que él no tomó la decisión espontáneamente ni la pareja tampoco.

“Determiné que estaban preparados, que sabían lo que hacían”, dijo el papa a reporteros el 21 de enero durante su vuelo de regreso a Roma. “Ambos se habían preparado ante Dios, con el sacramento de la penitencia, y los casos”.

La bendición del matrimonio de los asistentes de vuelo de la aerolínea LATAM, Carlos Ciuffardi Elorriaga y Paula Podest Ruíz, se llevó a cabo durante el vuelo del papa entre Santiago, Chile, e Iquique el 18 de enero.

Cuando la pareja fue a la parte de atrás del avión y se lo contó a los reporteros, el asunto les sonó muy espontáneo.

Pero el papa Francisco le dijo a los reporteros más tarde que Ciuffardi también había trabajado en el vuelo papal hacia Temuco el día anterior; Podest, con quien él se había casado en ceremonia civil en 2010, no estaba trabajando en el vuelo del 17 de enero.

Así que el novio tuvo la oportunidad de hablar con el papa a solas. “Más tarde me dijo que él me estaba probando”, le dijo el papa a los reporteros. Ellos hablaron sobre la vida, el matrimonio y la familia. “Fue una conversación agradable”.

Al día siguiente ambos asistentes estaban trabajando. Ellos le dijeron al papa que habían planeado casarse por la iglesia pero que temprano el día de su boda, el 27 de febrero de 2010, hubo un masivo terremoto en Chile y la iglesia colapsó.

La pareja terminó casándose en una ceremonia civil y tienen dos hijas. Ellos le dijeron al papa que planeaban reprogramar la ceremonia por la iglesia, pero seguían esperando.

“Los interrogué un poco y sus respuestas fueron claras, era para toda la vida, y me dijeron que habían tomado el curso prematrimonial”, dijo el papa a los reporteros. Él dijo que además “ellos estaban conscientes de que estaban en una situación irregular”.

En un artículo del 19 de diciembre acerca de la tripulación seleccionada para los vuelos papales, el periódico chileno El Mercurio había entrevistado a la pareja. Ya para entonces ellos plantearon la esperanza de que el papa Francisco bendijera su unión durante el vuelo. “Nos encantaría, es nuestro lugar, es nuestro segundo hogar”, dijo Podest, según el periódico.

“Uno de ustedes dijo que yo estaba loco al hacer esto”, el papa le dijo a los reporteros, “pero ellos estaban preparados y si el sacerdote dice que están preparados yo los bendizo… los sacramentos son para la gente”.

“El papa vio la oportunidad”, dijo el cardenal Kevin J. Farrell, prefecto del Dicasterio para los Laicos, la Familia y la Vida.

with the Serra International Conventions held each summer. It wasn’t until he was an adult that his father invited him to join the Serra Club. He shares, “I have stayed because the club has Catholic adults who own Christian vocations to service. These needs have not changed. The Serra Club has 3 objectives that Serrans throughout the world are committed to following.

The objectives of Serra are:
• To foster and promote vocations to the ministerial priesthood in the Catholic Church, as a particular vocation to service and to support priests in their sacred ministry;
• To encourage and affirm vocations to consecrated religious life in the Catholic Church;
• To assist members to recognize and respond in their own lives, to God’s call to holiness in Jesus Christ and through the Holy Spirit.

Father Kristopher Fuchs, the current Chaplain of the Serra Club of Victoria attended the January 2018 Serra Rally with member John McQuillen. He explained that the Chaplains at the Rally gathered and discussed how they can meet the needs of the members as Chaplains. He shared, “Although the club is created to support vocations it is important to realize that the club also exists to support the personal holiness of its members. “In my role as Chaplain, I can help most with the 3rd objective. I am the spiritual support.” Father Kristopher had never heard of the Serra Club until he entered the seminary. He explained, “My first summer before I entered the Seminary I came to Victoria and lived at Our Lady of Lourdes while working at the Chancery. Father Dan brought me to one of the Serra Club meetings. I was surprised that there was a worldwide organization dedicated to promoting religious vocations. I could see the love the members have for vocations by their support, encouragement and prayers for us.”

The Serra Club of Victoria is one of the largest clubs in the United States. In 2008, at a Christmas party charter members were honored. Pictured, left-right, Bishop David Fellhauer, Otto Bleier, Gladys Vrazel representing her husband, Ervin Vrazel, as a charter member but had passed away earlier in the year; Dr. R.E. Stevenson who was the last living charter member at that time, (deceased now); Msgr. Eustace Hermes, (deceased now) was the chaplain; and JoAnn Bleier. Inset: Beatrice Trevino (deceased) past Serra Club of Victoria president.

As quoted by Pope Francis, “A disciple of Christ gets involved by word and deed in people’s lives. A disciple of Christ is supportive and stands by people at every step of the way.” We pray for the present and future members of the Serra Club of Victoria as they continue to support all religious vocations.
