Good Works of Lent

By Sarita Villafranca Richmond

As Lent approaches this year, many will begin to ask themselves questions like: What will I give up for Lent this year? What habits do I want to change? How can I be a better person?

On his online blog, The Purpose of Lent, Brother Henderson shares “It’s important to remember that our word ‘Lent’ comes from the Old English word for ‘springtime.’ This gives us a wonderful insight into what the days between Ash Wednesday and Holy Thursday are all about: a season when faith and the virtues of the Christian life grow and flower within our hearts and souls. The good works of prayer, almsgiving, and fasting help us focus our attention on what is most important in life. And, if we can think of our Lenten penance as a ‘good work’ to be taken on, and shift our focus away from what we ‘give up,’ we will find that our Lenten prayer and devotions will be richer and more fruitful.” Good work is exactly what Sts. Cyril and Methodius Church, in Shiner is doing. In July of 2018,

Spiritual Warfare of Lent

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Some of my first experiences of the Diocese of Victoria came when I joined a group of other priests on “the circuit.” Priests from Ft. Bend and Wharton counties would schedule Penance Services and help each other out for a few weeks every Advent and Lent. One of my best friends was the pastor in Richmond so I would make sure to schedule times to help out. Many of your parish bulletins are now publishing special times or services for the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation. I hope this can be a time of spiritual renewal.

The First Sunday of Lent tells the Gospel account of Jesus going into the desert and being tested by the devil. Though He was sinless, He freely chose to experience the temptation in the desert and enter into our spiritual battle. He entered into our battle and ultimately emerged victorious! Think about it - none of us can make the legitimate claim to be sinless yet Jesus offers to fight our battles by our side. We are never alone.

Lent is the annual season where we journey in the desert and acknowledge that the devil still tests us and we are still in need of God’s healing grace. Last year I mentioned a teaching that has been helpful to me over the years. Sometimes it can be difficult to do a good examination of our conscience, and I found something from the early church that helps me out. Pope St. Gregory the Great wrote years ago about the spiritual warfare that each soul battles, and the enemies to be fought he identified as the seven sins of pride.

Pope St. Gregory wrote:

“For pride is the root of all evil…. But seven principal vices, as its first progeny, spring doubtless from this poisonous root, namely, vain glory, envy, anger, melancholy, avarice, gluttony, lust. For, because He grieved that we were held captive by these seven sins of pride, therefore our Redeemer came to the spiritual battle of our liberation, full of the spirit of sevenfold grace.” (Moralis on the Book of Job: Vol. 3, pp. 489–490. Oxford; London: John Henry Parker; F. and J. Rivington) [1]

May God bless you and your families in this holy season. I want to particularly thank each of you who have committed to pray the Rosary for the gift of peace in the world and for the family. As St. John Paul II invited us to pray this faithfully, I believe we can maintain our confidence in the power of this prayer – more than we ever know! Let’s keep one another in prayer with the confidence that Jesus our Savior is victorious.

Mensaje del Pastor

Guerra Espiritual de Cuaresma

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas,

Algunas de mis primeras experiencias de la Diócesis de Victoria era cuando me uní a un grupo de otros sacerdotes en “el circuito”. Sacerdotes de los condados de Ft. Bend y Wharton programaban Servicios de Penitencia y se ayudaban unos a otros durante unas semanas cada Adviento y Cuaresma. Uno de mis mejores amigos era el Pastor en Richmond, así que me aseguré de programar tiempo para ayudar. Muchos de los boletines de su parroquia están publicando horarios o servicios especiales para el Sacramento de la Penitencia y la Reconciliación. Espero que este sea un tiempo de renovación espiritual.

El primer domingo de Cuaresma cuenta el relato del Evangelio de Jesús entrando al desierto y siendo tentado por el diablo. Aunque no tuvo pecado, eligió libremente experimentar la tentación en el desierto y entrar en nuestra batalla espiritual. ¡Entró en nuestra batalla y finalmente salió victorioso! Piéselo: ninguno de nosotros puede hacer la reclamación legítima de no tener pecado, pero Jesús se ofrece a pelear nuestras batallas a nuestro lado. Nunca estamos solos.

La Cuaresma es la temporada anual en la que viajamos en el desierto y reconocemos que el diablo todavía nos pone a prueba y todavía necesitamos la gracia sanadora de Dios. El año pasado mencioné una enseñanza que me ha sido útil a lo largo de los años. A veces puede ser difícil hacer un buen examen de nuestra conciencia, y encontré algo de la iglesia primitiva que me ayuda. El Papa St. Gregory the Great escribió hace años acerca de la guerra espiritual que lucha cada alma y los enemigos a ser combatidos que él identificó como los siete pecados del orgullo.

El Papa San Gregorio escribió:

“Pues el orgullo es la raíz de todo mal que Dios te bendiga a ti y a tus familias en esta temporada santa. Quiero agradecer especialmente a cada uno de ustedes que se han comprometido a rezar el rosario por el don de la paz en el mundo y por la familia. Cuando San Juan Pablo II nos invitó a rezar esto fielmente, creo que podemos mantener nuestra confianza en el poder de esta oración, más de lo que nunca sabemos! Mantengámonos unos a otros en oración con la confianza de que Jesús nuestro Salvador es victorioso.

CRS Rice Bowl is Catholic Relief Services’ Lenten faith-in-action program. It offers opportunities for your family to engage daily with the spiritual pillars of Lent: prayer, fasting and almsgiving. It is an opportunity for us as a parish/school to come together as a community and reflect on what it means to live out our Gospel call; to go out and encounter those most in need.

All parishes take up a weekly rice bowl collection during Lent - all those collections go to CRS. People may also donate directly online at https://www.crs.org/

In Memoriam

Reverend Monsignor John August Wagner was born on May 27, 1925, to John J. and Cecilia Jiral Wagner on the family farm near Poth, Texas. He passed away on Saturday, January 26, 2019, in San Antonio.

He was the sixth of seven children and grew up working in the cotton and onion fields on the farm. As a small boy, he would often go upstairs in the family home, build “little bitty altars” and play priest. At the age of fourteen he entered St. John’s Seminary in San Antonio.

In May 1949, John was ordained a priest and celebrated his first solemn Mass at Blessed Sacrament Church and first assigned to Sts. Cyril and Methodius, in Shiner. He then went to St. Philip in El Campo and returned to San Antonio.

In 1958, Archbishop Robert E. Lucey assigned him to be executive secretary for the United States Bishops Committee for the Spanish Speaking. He worked with Sen. Ted Kennedy on establishing the Peace Corps, Sen. Robert Kennedy on issues regarding migrant farm workers, and Martin Luther King Jr. in the civil rights movement. Father John was involved in the founding of the National Council for the Spanish Speaking, the War on Poverty, and the Bracero Program.

Father John was sent to care for parishioners in Nixon, Smiley and Westhoff, followed by other parishes in San Antonio. For a number of years he served as Chaplain to the San Antonio Police Department, was a long time member of the Knights of Columbus and an active member of the KKF.

During his stay at Casa de Padres, he enjoyed doing yard work and looking after flowers and plants. As his eyesight and health began to overtake him, Msgr. Wagner moved to Padua Place.

FISHING TOURNAMENT BENEFITS SCHOOL—Knights of Columbus (KC) Council #1582 in Yoakum gave $5,000 to St. Joseph Endowment Fund and $10,000 to St. Joseph School from their annual Hook Em & Cook Em Fishing Tournament held last May. Pictured are (left-right) KC Grand Knight Daniel Driskell, St. Joseph Principal Sean Mooney, and KC Recorder Alan Migl. The two KC members are the chairmen of the fishing tournament.

My name is Sadie. I am 18 years-old and a Senior, at St. Paul High School, in Shiner. I plan on attending LeTourneau University in Longview, Texas to study Aviation Management with a Professional Flight Concentration. There I will receive all of my Federal Aviation Administration certifications required to be a commercial pilot.

My career choice to be a commercial airline pilot may come to a shock to those around me, especially the area. (My family is full of farmers and ranchers.) It all started with a thought. I have always wanted to see the world, and I love to travel. When everyone else was worried on plane rides to places, I truly enjoyed them — even the turbulence. I have quite the travel bucket list. I would love to travel to all 50 states (I want to scratch all of the states off of my scratch off map). Scotland is one of my top choices because that is where my grandparents are from. I want to see London, Paris, China, Peru, and many many more. I want to be one of those people that pop up on social media at different places all of the time. I also hope that my travels will inspire the next generation of young aviators.

On February 7, I decided to fly over the top of my school for my night flight section. The first thing I thought, “It’s so tiny!” I have flown next to big cities and Shiner is very small in comparison. I decided to fly over the school because it made me into the young woman I am today. My classmates, my teachers, and the environment encouraged me to be a strong, independent, and an innovative person, that in which I can attribute to the school. Most of my classmates want to go into the medical field, education, engineering, or construction, but I wanted to be different.

I wanted to stand alone. The more I researched “commercial airline pilot,” the more enticing it became. After I came to my parents with my research, they blessed me with the opportunity to start to live my dream — they sent me to flight school. All of my classmates and teachers have been very encouraging throughout my endeavors and some have asked, “So when will you take me up?”

This year I have learned so much, especially about myself. I found that when I fly I feel closer to God. All of my worries disappear. I am privileged to see the beauty of God’s creation around me from above. It can bring tears to my eyes at times. God blessed me with a family and school that supports me in all that I do.

Isaiah 40:31—“But those who hope in the LORD will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint.”

Job OPENING
Observance of Lent – Timeless and Timely

The basic beliefs of our Catholic Christian faith endure throughout the ages; however religious practices and attitudes may be modified according to the shifts of emphasis in our society and in response to the contemporary needs of said society. For example, we all continue to believe and defend all the tenets of the Apostles’ Creed and the Nicene Creed. However, during my lifetime I have seen many changes in the way we relate to and show our reverence for God, one another, and all of God’s creation. Those of you who have been practicing Catholics for many years may remember the confusion that was experienced when the liturgical language was changed from Latin to the vernacular language of the worshippers so that we could more fully understand, appreciate, and mean what we were praying. (Actually the liturgical language of the early Church was the vernacular language of the worshippers of that time- mostly Aramaic and Greek). We were used to the Latin prayers and it was rather comfortable while traveling to go to other countries and attend Mass in Latin. I myself loved the Latin, but in time I understood the wisdom of public prayer in one’s own language.

Other changes followed and we are encouraged to develop a closer relationship with God, and to find God in one another and in all of God’s awesome creation. Along with our developing awareness of our role in bringing the reign of God, emphasis has been developing awareness of our role in bringing God’s awesome creation. Along with our values that Lent represents, let us view this season will be joyful (yes, we can be joyful even during Lent) actions showing our love and thanksgiving through our earthly home.) As we embody the timeless Gospel values found in the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy, which are summarized from gleanings from Scripture such as the command to love God and your neighbor, the Beatitudes, and more personally in (Matt 25:35) “For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me.”

So the same applies to our practice of Lent. In my lifetime, I have seen a shift from preoccupation of what we were doing (or not supposed to be doing) during Lent, to what can we do as a result of our ever-increasing relationship and love for Jesus, who suffered so much to bring about our salvation. We show our love and thanksgiving through our loving prayer, penance, and alms-giving. I know that many of our readers have been and plan to continue to be very generous in their donations of time and treasure; now the question is: Are we realizing that these actions are being done to Jesus himself? Let us keep in mind the words of Jesus, “When I was hungry, thirsty, homeless, etc…” Then any such sacrifices that we make during this Lenten season will be joyful (yes, we can be joyful even during Lent) actions showing our love for our God, our neighbor, and God’s creation. (Pope Francis added “Care for Creation” as one of the Works of Charity because of the great need for modern civilization to protect our earthly home.) As we embody the timeless values that Lent represents, let us view this season of prayer, service, and alms-giving through the lens of the social teachings of the Church.

Helping the Homeless

Promise Pointe is a non-profit 501(c) (3) organization whose purpose is to provide permanent affordable housing and a supportive community for the chronically homeless in Victoria, Texas and the Crossroads region. This new project for the homeless is being sponsored and pulled together by a group of local business and ordinary people who have felt the tug on their hearts to care for the homeless. The new adventure is a transformative residential community for the homeless. It is non-denominational, faith-based and is aimed at the chronically homeless who wish to get off the street and make a new start. Promise Pointe offers permanent affordable housing and most importantly, a supportive community. It is being modeled on the Community First! Village outside of Austin, Texas. The plan is to create a community of 20-23 single-person ‘tiny homes’ to house the residents in 2 phases. A twelve-acre piece of property outside of Victoria, in the small community of Raisin, was purchased by for this purpose.

Phase 1 has begun and Promise Pointe is accepting applications from potential residents. The first residents were accepted in mid-November of 2018. Promise Pointe is working closely with the Victoria Homeless Coalition (made-up of government, church and non-government organizations who are helping the homeless throughout the 8 counties making up the Victoria Crossroads region) and have asked Mid-Coast Family Services of Victoria to assist in the initial assessment and careful screening of potential residents. This opportunity may be available to single adult individuals, who are chronically homeless and who are willing to follow the basic rules of: obeying the law, paying rent ($300/month), and obeying the rules and regulations as set by the Promise Pointe resident community.

Each tenant is housed in a small cottage that is a single room of roughly 300 square feet and is furnished with electricity, air-conditioning/heat, a bed, a small table with 2 chairs, a comfortable lounge chair, a microwave oven and a refrigerator. Kitchen, bathroom and laundry facilities are shared among a group of 4-5 people. Initially each person will receive a welcome package which includes, linens, bedding, toiletries and a start-up kitchen pantry and kitchen supplies. Tenants cook for themselves in the communal kitchen and are responsible for purchasing their own groceries and necessities.

They are highly encouraged to work at some job and develop microenterprises to support themselves and the community. With the idea of encouraging the ‘old neighborhood’ mentality each cottage has a large front porch with 2 chairs. What makes Promise Pointe different from other organizations in the area who are helping the homeless is that there is no time-limited. If the resident wishes to live there permanently, they can as long as they pay the rent and follow the rules.

Promise Pointe is not part of any government programs unless the individual receives funding to help pay their rent. They provide a neighborhood in which trust, respect and concern for each other is primary.
N.E.T. TRAVELS THROUGHOUT DIOCESE — National Evangelization Teams (N.E.T.) Ministries visited various parishes throughout the Diocese of Victoria. One of their stops included St. Patrick’s, in Bloomington. On Wednesday, February 6, N.E.T. Ministries team presented a retreat to the CCD students from grades 9th to 12th. N.E.T. Every August, 175 young Catholics ages 18-28 leave behind their jobs, school, family, and friends to devote nine months to serving with N.E.T. Divided into 16 teams, they travel across the United States to share the Gospel with young people and their families. Since 1981, N.E.T. teams have led over 32,000 retreats and ministered to more than 2 million young Catholics.

A State of the Union Address for the Poor and Vulnerable

By Tony Magliano

My fellow Americans and fellow citizens of the world, the greatness of a nation is not measured by its military or economic power, but to the degree it is willing to help the poor and vulnerable.

Tragically, however, to a very significant extent the United States continues to ignore the poor and vulnerable.

Since the 1973 legalization of abortion in the U.S., approximately 60 million unborn babies have been brutally dismembered and killed through this barbaric practice. A civilized society does not kill babies.

And so tonight I urge the Congress to completely defund Planned Parenthood—the nation’s largest abortion provider—and to move quickly in passing an amendment to the U.S. Constitution granting full protection to every human being from conception to natural death.

Over 40 million Americans live below the poverty level—including 13 million children. Many impoverished families have at least one adult working full time for very low wages.

Therefore, I urge the Congress to pass legislation raising the minimum wage from $7.25 to $15.00 an hour.

Over 27 million Americans do not have health insurance. To remedy this ill, I ask Congress to make Medicare available to every person residing in the U.S.

The famous Trappist monk Thomas Merton said, “The God of peace is never glorified by human violence.” Yet, many in the U.S. and world glorify violence instead of God.

Gun homicide rates are far higher in the U.S. than in any other high-income country. Therefore, I call upon the Congress to pass universal gun registration and background check legislation.

Terrorism is being fueled by the countlessness of innocent civilians caused in many instances by the ongoing wars America continues to fight; as well as the presence of U.S. military forces in many countries where such forces are often viewed as supporting American corporate interests like oil.

Tonight I put before my fellow citizens a far better response to terrorism than flexing military muscles and waging war. Instead, let us undertake the highly moral and good-will creating cause of the total elimination of global poverty and hunger by 2025.

Therefore, I urge Congress to annually transfer $100 billion dollars from the astronomical $700 billion military budget to be used for this life-saving endeavor.

And I am issuing an executive order halting all sales and gifts of weapons abroad, the closing of the 800 military bases around the world, and the complete withdrawal of all U.S. forces worldwide.

Also, I have instructed our ambassador to the United Nations to sign the Treaty on the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons which is designed to eliminate all nuclear weapons from the face of the earth. And I urge the Senate to quickly ratify it.

Desperate people fleeing violence and poverty are at our southern border begging for help. As Pope Francis teaches, let us build bridges instead of walls. Congress needs to pass just, comprehensive immigration reform legislation this year.

Nearly all climate scientists agree that the catastrophic dangers of global warming are caused overwhelmingly by human use of oil, coal and gas.

Therefore, I urge Congress to pass a Green New Deal bill designed to move America toward totally clean energy—provided by wind, solar and geothermal renewable sources.

Let us ask God for the courage to move form nationalism to global solidarity, from militarism to multi-lateral disarmament, and from greed to an equitable sharing of the world’s resources.

God bless America and all the people on planet Earth!

USCCB Issues Statement on McCarrick

WASHINGTON — Cardinal Daniel N. DiNardo, Archbishop of Galveston-Houston and President of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, has issued the following statement upon the decision of the Holy See announced today regarding Theodore McCarrick.

Cardinal DiNardo’s Full Statement Follows:

“The Holy See’s announcement regarding Theodore McCarrick is a clear signal that abuse will not be tolerated. No bishop, no matter how influential, is above the law of the Church. For all those McCarrick abused, I pray this judgement will be one small step, among many, toward healing. For us bishops, it strengthens our resolve to hold ourselves accountable to the Gospel of Jesus Christ. I am grateful to Pope Francis for the determined way he has led the Church’s response.

If you have suffered sexual abuse at the hands of someone within the Catholic Church, I urge you to contact local law enforcement and your local diocese or eparchy. Victims Assistance Coordinators are available to help. We are committed to healing and reconciliation.”

Texas Locality Orders Popular Catholic Center for Migrants to Vacate

WASHINGTON (CNS) — A group of city commissioners in the border city of McAllen, Texas, voted in mid-February to remove from a building a popular Catholic-administered center run by Sister Norma Pimentel, who has been praised by Pope Francis for her work with migrants. McAllen city commissioners voted February 11, to vacate within 90 days the building that Catholic Charities of the Rio Grande Valley uses to provide temporary shelter for immigrants who cross from Mexico into the United States but who have been released by federal authorities. Sister Pimentel, who has won national and international praise for the type of work that takes place at the center, is the executive director for the charitable agency that runs the temporary shelter, which provides food, clothes, a shower and other necessities for migrant children and adults passing through the city in the Diocese of Brownsville, Texas.

Texas Localities Order Popular Catholic Center for Migrants to Vacate

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Moments ago, the U.S. Supreme Court rejected an attempt by abortion groups to pry into Texas Catholic bishops’ private discussions about religious doctrine. In Whole Woman’s Health v. Texas Catholic Conference of Bishops, several abortion advocates targeted and subpoenaed Texas’ Catholic bishops to demand their internal deliberations regarding abortion. In this role he will serve Texas legislators during the 86th Session of the Texas Legislature. Please pray for Bishop Vásquez and for all lawmakers, that they may serve our state and their constituents well.

“Thank goodness the Supreme Court saw this appeal for what it was: a nasty attempt to intimidate the bishops and force them to withdraw their offer to bury every child aborted in Texas,” said Eric Rassbach, vice president and senior counsel at Becket, which represented the Texas Catholic Conference of Bishops. “Abortion groups may think the bishops ‘troublesome,’ but it is wrong to weaponize the law to stop the bishops from standing up for their beliefs.”

Last June, a trial judge ordered the bishops to hand over their internal communications about abortion to Whole Woman’s Health—even though they had already provided 4,000 pages of external communications. The bishops appealed to the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals, which granted them permanent protection from the order. The court ruled that the bishops’ claims “go to the heart of the constitutional protection of religious belief and practice as well as citizens’ right to advocate sensitive policies in the public square.” Whole Woman’s Health asked the full Fifth Circuit to rehear the case. The full court rejected their request. They then appealed to the U.S. Supreme Court, which today also rejected the group’s bid.

The Texas Catholic Conference of Bishops is also represented by Steven Levatino and Andrew McRae of Levatino | Pace PLLC in Austin, Texas.

Wind, our heavenly companion which we cannot see but feel and know its effects. A reminder of the gift of God’s loving presence to each of us as it breezes into woodlands, soars past mountaintops, sweeps over plains and deserts, and skims the oceans. The wind is sometimes gentle, sometimes harsh, and wanders to the ends of the earth. In appointed service, the wind swoops up fertile pollen and airy seed and grandly ushers in misty clouds and then deposits them all in fruitful wonder.

As St. Francis states in the Canon of the Sun:  Praised be You, my Lord, through Brothers Wind and Air, and fair and stormy, all weather’s moods, by which You cherish all that You have made.

Let us pray: Lord of Wind and Air, bless the wind in its fertile vocation as it swirls through crops and hearts bearing gifts of heaven and earth. Let us rejoice in its animation and experience the liveliness of your Spirit. Blow into our hearts with your life giving Word. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

The following sermon was written by Father Charles Kram from the Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time, Cycle B.

The world is full of signs and symbols—the peace sign, the national flag, the wedding ring, the long stemmed rose. We like symbols because they express and stir up feelings, sometimes much more effectively than words ever could.

The miracles that Jesus worked were also signs; signs that prefigured and symbolized the reign of God which was coming upon the world through his death and resurrection.

The sacraments are also signs. They are SPECIAL signs, to which the Lord Jesus has given the power to bring about what they signify.

For example, the water of Baptism washes the sin of Adam away, the bread of the Eucharist nourishes us and makes us grow, the oil of the Anointing of the Sick heals the illness of body and soul.

We are now approaching Lent, that special season of penance and reconciliation. So this is an appropriate time to consider that special sign of forgiveness, the Sacrament of Reconciliation. We used to call it simply, Confession. Now we put emphasis where it belongs, namely, on reconciliation, that is, on the fact that the person who receives it, belongs, namely, on reconciliation, that is, on the fact that the person who receives it, belongs, namely, on reconciliation, that is, on the fact that the person who receives it, belongs, namely, on reconciliation, that is, on the fact that the person who receives it, belongs, namely, on reconciliation, that is, on the fact that the person who receives it.

The new Rite of Reconciliation stresses the fact that every sin weakens or destroys the harmony that should prevail in the spiritual world. It also reminds us that we can just as easily sin by what we FAIL to do, as by the wrong we DO. And another thing, it also reminds us that we should consider the reasons WHY we act as we do, including the BAD ATTITUDES which may lie at the root of our sins.

Have you ever gone to confession face-to-face? If not, you might try it sometime. Once an elderly patient did it that way for the first time in his life in the hospital, and when he finished he said, “Say, I enjoyed that.” Even persons who have no use for the Catholic practice of confessing one’s sins to a priest, will not hesitate to talk about them to their psychiatrist. A Methodist minister whom I knew, who had been a campus minister for 25 years, once told me, “I heard many a confession in those days.”

If God has, down through the ages, chosen certain individuals to be instruments of healing of the ailments of the body, why can’t he also grant to certain chosen ones the power to heal souls. Healing of the soul is not visible to the eye like the healing of physical illness is, but this does not make it any less real.

Consider that just after the Resurrection, Jesus appeared to the apostles and breathed on them and said, “Receive you the Holy Spirit; whose sins you shall forgive they are forgiven; and whose sins you shall retain they are retained.”

Grant that through this Sacrament of peace and reconciliation, the grace you have won for us through your death and resurrection may come upon us in great profusion, and make us ever more worthy to be numbered among your saints.

Amen

Dear Ms. Richmond, Editor
I was encouraged to read Tony Magliano’s column (February 2019 Lighthouse) recognizing the anniversary of Roe v. Wade and the annual local, state and national marches which many participate in. He noted that more needs to be done the rest of the year in terms of prolife representation at abortion clinics, communication with legislators to enact prolife laws and education for the public as to the reality of abortion.

He recognized the contribution the Knights of Columbus has made in providing 1,000 ultrasound machines to pregnancy centers and prolife health clinics in the US and several other countries. This will enable women to view their babies, recognizing that they are living beings not just “products of conception”.

Mr. Magliano stated that “abortion centers have very few people standing in peaceful, prayerful witness on behalf of the unborn babies...” I would like to bring to your attention the work of 40 Days for Life, a movement that is active here in Texas and worldwide. Individuals pledge to pray, fast and stand at abortion clinics. This movement has been instrumental in the closing of many abortion clinics I including the one at College Station as many women change their minds about aborting their babies.

Our own Bishop Cahill has stood before the largest abortion clinic in the western hemisphere in Houston with a group of youth and adults representing the Diocese of Victoria. He is to be commended for this display of leadership. Check out www.40DaysforLife.com to find a center near you.

Another area of concern that Mr. Magliano raised is the “need to put political pressure on our elected officials to do the morally right thing.” There is a very easy way to keep up with the current laws being considered and make your voices heard! EWTN ( Eternal Word Television Network) a worldwide Catholic media service which is available via cable for TV, the EWTN website or my favorite as an app on your phone, has a weekly show called ProLife Weekly. It is very simple to sign up for “action alerts” of any laws concerning abortion (pro or anti life) and then follow the prompts to reach your lawmaker.

Finally, the column addressed “education at all levels regarding the barbaric reality of abortion.” He provided several internet links and this is very helpful but I would like to add that a movie is due to be released in late March called “Unplanned”. This story chronicles how Abby Johnson, a Planned Parenthood director for 8 years realized the twisted truth of her believing that she was helping women in crisis and that she had participated in the abortion of 22,000 babies. She left the clinic and now promotes the pro-life cause and assists abortion workers who are afraid to leave the industry.

We are blessed to have the courageous leadership of our bishop and so many resources available to make it easy to participate in the pro-life cause, not just for unborn babies, but from conception to natural death.

WORLD DAY FOR CONSECRATED LIFE CELEBRATED—On Sunday February 3, 2019, Bishop Brendan Cahill celebrated Mass for World Day for Consecrated Life, at Our Lady of Lourdes, in Victoria. We pray for all who serve the diocese through religious vocations.
Five religious congregations are represented in the Diocese of Victoria. They are: Missionary Catechists of the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary; Vietnamese Sisters of the Incarnation, Consecration, and Mission; Sisters of the Incarnate Word and Blessed Sacrament; Carmelites of the Ever Virgin Mary (cloistered); Vietnamese Dominican Sisters.
Dear Lighthouse Readers,

This is a true story. We can tell you this, because it happened to us. This is a story of how a small group of friends formed with the intention of praying a daily family rosary for our Church in their homes, the domestic church. It is a story of how these friends came to truly hear the call of Our Lady: “…pray the rosary every day in honor of Our Lady of Fatima in order to obtain peace in the world…because only she can help you.” (Our Lady in Fatima, July 13, 1917)

V, like many of our generation, grew up praying the rosary in public before Mass, at a funeral, or in the car on their way to Mass, but not in the home. Growing up, they never knew the order of the mysteries or even that they should take time to meditate on them. When she began her own family, they tried to attend daily Mass as much as possible and to pray the rosary when they could, usually in the car, but never an entire rosary at home as a family.

M did not pray the rosary growing up, except at the few funeral visitations she attended. In fact, because of some family friends telling her that as Catholics they worshipped Mary, she was afraid to. It was not until, while starting their family, when she read St. Louis de Montfort’s “True Devotion to Mary,” that she came to have a real and deep love for our Blessed Mother. At this time she began praying the rosary with her children daily. They had already begun attending daily Mass, and kept both of these practices as part of their daily life as much as possible.

V and M met through a day retreat they attended. In fact, because of some family friends telling her that as Catholics they worshipped Mary, she was afraid to. It was not until, while starting their family, when she read St. Louis de Montfort’s “True Devotion to Mary,” that she came to have a real and deep love for our Blessed Mother. At this time she began praying the rosary with her children daily. They had already begun attending daily Mass, and kept both of these practices as part of their daily life as much as possible.

V and M met through a day retreat they both attended and from there a friendship started. It was around the time of Hurricane Harvey that they realized how central the rosary should be or would become in their lives. V’s family continued their practice of the rosary while they were able leading up to 2017, while M’s family had fallen away from praying it with any regularity over 2015-16.

When Bishop Brendan Cahill brought the beautiful statue of Our Lady of Fatima to St. Mary’s Church in Victoria, Texas, it was a beginning of a beautiful journey for V and M and their families. Through the monthly rosaries in honor of Our Lady of Fatima and her message, and then a 54 day rosary novena they both decided to participate in, their families had the jump start they needed to begin praying the rosary again.

Then Hurricane Harvey hit. Both families joined in prayer as the eye passed over their homes, and in thanksgiving they committed to praying the rosary every day. V and M became rosary buddies, texting each other when they were successful and prayed their family rosary. When an opportunity for the National Pilgrim Virgin Statue to come to Victoria came up, they thought it would be a wonderful time to encourage all of their friends to go see this statue of Our Lady and start praying a family rosary.

Last spring as the news of the scandals of the church began to be revealed, V and M felt convicted that we as the laity are not doing enough to lift our bishops, our priests, our religious and our seminarians up in prayer. They believe that God has inspired them with a plan. It has taken a year, but they needed to be in the habit of praying, before they could ask anyone else to join them.

V found a lovely tapestry of Our Lady of the Rosary of Pompeii and began asking families from all over the diocese to host the tapestry in their home with the intention of praying the family rosary every day as an answer to Our Lady of Fatima’s requests to pray the rosary daily for peace. Not just for physical peace in our own world but the nations, peace in our souls, in our families, in our local church and in the universal church. To pray, as well, for healing and support of the victims of clerical sexual abuse and for the conversion and just punishment of the perpetrators and convealers of sexual abuse. For the strength of the bishops to be holy shepherds in protecting and leading our sheep from all harm.

The response has been humbling to see how Our Lord and Our Lady are working in the families who have joined us. One family says, “The rosary unites our family and has created a special bond among us. It brings us peace and calm even on the most hectic days. I can’t imagine not praying it now. We’ve only missed two days in four months due to sickness, so I feel we are pretty consistent.”

When Bishop Cahill approached us with regards to the movie Power in My Hands and his desire to get it out to the diocese, we felt that was just another way that Our Lord was working to get the rosary into the life of more families. Bishop Cahill has generously purchased the license and materials to make the viewing of this movie possible for everyone in our diocese. Our hope is that all families in our diocese will get out to see this movie when it is shown at the upcoming diocesan events. Then more will view it at each parish or through organizations they are involved in. Finally, that through religious education programs and individuals at different parishes the movie will make its way into the homes of families and will inspire them to take up the rosary as a daily habit, protection, and weapon.

All around us a spiritual warfare goes on and is in full force attacking our families. As Father Donald Calloway says, “Slay the dragon with the sword, the rosary is our sword.” If you get out to see the movie, you will hear an incredible story. Please, see the movie. Pray the rosary.

Blessings,

Virginia Pilkington & Marie Immenhauser

Don de fidelidad en el matrimonio y sacerdocio sí es posible, dice el papa

Por Carol Glatz
Catholic News Service

VATICAN CITY (CNS) — La unidad y la fidelidad son pilares indispensables del matrimonio cristiano — dijo el papa Francisco. Qué dos personas se unan generosamente como una y prometan un amor fiel de por vida, no solo debe ser “adequadamente explicado a los que se van a casar”, estos valores también requieren el cuidado pastoral de los miembros y ministros de la iglesia, dijo el papa, dirigiéndose a los miembros de la Rota Romana, un tribunal que gestiona la mayoría de los casos vinculados con matrimonios.

De hecho, las parejas casadas que viven su matrimonio “en generosa unidad y con amor fiel” son “una preciosa ayuda pastoral para la iglesia” y nos ofrecen a todos “un ejemplo de amor verdadero”, dijo el 29 de enero en una audiencia con ocasión del inicio del año judicial de la corte del Vaticano.

Estos importantes modelos enseñan en silencio, dijo, y desafortunadamente, “no se convierten en titulares, mientras los escándalos, separaciones y divorcios sí son noticia”.

El mundo de hoy cada vez más secularizado, dijo, “no favorece el crecimiento de la fe, lo que ocasiona que los fieles católicos tengan que batallar para dar testimonio de un estilo de vida acorde al Evangelio, incluso en lo que respecta al sacramento del matrimonio”. Esa es la razón por la cual la iglesia necesita encontrar formas para ofrecer un adecuado apoyo espiritual y pastoral, agregó.

“Así que esto puede ser un legítimo acuerdo, el matrimonio requiere que se establezca en cada futuro cónyuge una plena unidad y armonía con el otro de modo que, por medio del intercambio mutuo de sus respectivas riquezas espirituales, morales y humanas – casi como vasos comunicantes – los dos esposos se conviertan en uno”, dijo.

Unidad y fidelidad no son solo “los dos pilares fundamentales” del matrimonio, sino de la Iglesia de Cristo misma, dijo. El papa Francisco explicó que las parejas necesitan “una triple preparación” que es “a distancia, cercana y permanente” de modo que puedan crecer concientes de los valores y compromisos pertinentes al matrimonio.

“Los cónyuges que viven en unidad y fidelidad reflejan bien la imagen y semejanza con Dios”, dijo. “Esta es la buena noticia: la fidelidad es posible porque es un don, tanto en los esposos como en los sacerdotes”. “Esta es la noticia, que también debemos hacer a la feligresía y al amoroso ministerio evangélico de los obispos y sacerdotes más fuertes y más consoladores”, dijo.

Father Bryan Heyer was on a retreat with Bishop Daniel Flores, bishop of Brownsville. While visiting, Father Bryan began inquiring about immigration and the borders, and asked if there was anything his parish could do to help. Bishop Flores responded by saying, “Really, we just need people.” Inspired by that, Father Bryan returned to Shiner with the desire to humanize a political situation and planned their first mission trip of 10 adults. It was such a great experience, that they decided to plan a 2nd trip for a senior class retreat and have a 3rd adult trip in the works.

Eight seniors, from St. Paul High School, their pastor, Father Bryan Heyer and a few adult chaperones travelled to San Juan, Texas from January 18-20 for a spiritual mission/pilgrimage trip. The spiritual pilgrimage portion of the trip was centered on the Basilica of Our Lady of San Juan del Valle, and the mission portion of the trip centered around their volunteer work at the Catholic Charities of the Rio Grande Valley (CCRGV) Humanitarian Respite Center, serving the many immigrant families of the area.

For centuries Christians have made pilgrimages with a spiritual purpose to holy places. In Texas, thousands of pilgrims visit the Basilica of Our Lady of San Juan del Valle in the Rio Grande Valley.

The origins of the devotion to Our Lady of San Juan del Valle are found in San Juan de los Lagos, Mexico, a town founded near Guadalajara. Spanish missionaries placed a small image of the Immaculate Conception in the church of San Juan de los Lagos. In 1623, an acrobat traveling with his wife and children stopped in San Juan de los Lagos to give a performance. While practicing their act, the youngest daughter lost her balance and was killed. An Indian woman, who was the caretaker of the church, begged the parents to place the image of the Virgin Mary over their daughter’s body and prayed for the Virgin’s intercession. The child was then brought back to life. As word spread of the miracle, the devotion to Our Lady, under the title of “La Virgen de San Juan”, started to grow throughout Jalisco. Today, she is recognized by many people throughout Mexico as well as the United States. More history can be found at https://www.oljbasilica.org/about-us/history.

The Shiner group was given a tour and the history of the Basilica. They also experienced reflective Stations of the Cross while walking along the Basilica’s life-size Stations on the grounds. One of the adult chaperones said, “Evening reflection was a time for the group to realize how their work that day, even though small gestures, was a blessing for each person that they served.”

During the day, the students volunteered at the CCRGV Humanitarian Respite Center. This center serves at least 200 people per day. Father Bryan observed, “The students were able to see that what is portrayed by media isn’t really a reality. The reality is that the majority of immigrants are families with children, seeking peace, safety and stability in their lives.” Father Bryan could tell that the students enjoyed the interaction with the immigrants, especially the younger ones. He shared, “The smiles and high fives that they received made up for the language barrier.” The entire senior class provided donations of various toiletries and personal items as well as monetary donations for additional needs of the immigrant families. One of the senior girls, Hope, shared, “We started helping out immediately and my first job was to clean the rooms and sleeping mats used by the immigrants. Later I helped make food bags filled with snacks and drinks that the families are given when they leave the facility. My favorite job there was serving lunch and dinner to the adults and children.”

Hope knew the people were all very appreciative and grateful for their help. She said, “I do not speak very much Spanish, but like Father Bryan said, all we need to speak is love through our smiles and open hearts.”

Sunday, the last day in San Juan the group began the morning with a moment of prayer in the Basilica and the lighting of a vigil candle by each person in the group. At the Basilica thousands of candles are lit every week when prayer requests are brought to the intercession of Our Blessed Virgen de San Juan del Valle. The trip then ended with the celebration of the Mass.

This mission/pilgrimage trip gave all the students greater insight to how others live. Hope described how she felt saying, “By seeing how they had little to no personal possessions with them made me think about during us lives with needs—physical needs and the need for love, security, and community—that we often bury or try to hide by filling our lives with “stuff” and relationships that can never really make us happy or give us peace. And so, Lenten fasting means that we set aside those things with which we self-medicate so that we can be free to recognize what our real hungers and desires are—including our desire for God. Only God can truly satisfy the deepest desires and needs of our hearts.”*
