Opening Prayer

Fr. Mike

Fr. Mike's last day is Tuesday, June 30. He will say mass and then turn in his keys.

Commission Reports:

Christian Service – Terry Morreau -Lockdown Lunches 15 families – Mondays. As time went on, people started going back to work, only 4 families this week. Donations came from GICC, other churches, schools. Very blessed by the generosity of all who helped.

Worship – Gregg Zuccker – spatial distancing at mass. 219 in attendance this week. Parishioners can still watch mass on Facebook. 163 is the limit in church. Commission is still working with Fr. Mike to coordinate mass.

Education – Cheryl Reynolds – 500 Bags of Encouragement were delivered to hospitals and nursing homes. 1st Communion will be in September, Confirmation will be in October. We are waiting to find out what the schools are going to do and then decide what to do regarding religious ed. Stacey is will be leaving due to her husband's new job. Looking for her replacement. This year will be the Year of Prayer.

Stewardship – Gary Ames – Fellowship is holding a Farewell Get-together on June 28th for Fr. Mike. A Boat Cruise is planned for September. Frank asked about the income during this whole time. There has been a decrease, but some have mailed in or given on line. Sue Biedlingmaier said the money coming in is about 60% of normal. Church received government funds which helped pay salaries. In the process of applying for loan forgiveness.

Adult Faith Formation – Janice Candela - Year of Prayer for adult programs. Looking at sample programs for the fall. Were able to finish programs in the spring.

Vicariate Update – no report

Final Remarks & Roundtable

- If a parishioner goes to the other church, their envelope will go back to their home parish.
- Wondering if meetings and programs start up again in September.
- Each parish will be standing on its own with Family of Parishes. They might share some things.
- Mass times – Fr. Marc will take a couple of months to evaluate what is going on and make necessary changes.
- William's last day will also be June 30.
- Richard has retired from Maintenance.
- Fr. Mike thanked everyone for everything they have done during past 12 years.

Conclusion: Closing Prayer
