UNIVERSAL PRAYER

For the Church, the people of God and the Body of Christ on earth: that we may welcome all people who come to our door seeking the love and compassion of God; for those in positions of power: that they may govern with wisdom and integrity, serving the needs of their people; for Christians of every denomination: that we may recognize the unity we share in our faith in Christ and that our living out of the Gospel may bring us together in all ways; for those whose commitment to the Gospel brings them into conflict with earthly powers: that they may persevere in faith and always act in accordance with the Gospel of love and peace...

When the End Comes:
Scott Hahn Reflects on the Feast of Christ the King.

Many saints and Church leaders have seen a connection between Christ's words in the Gospel for the Solemnity of Christ the King and His promise to be present in the Eucharist...
