PARISH & COMMUNITY LIFE

The Temiskaming Health Unit has declared our area a RED zone, this does not change the attendance capacity for the church. We can still have an attendance of 30% our capacity. But you must sign in with your phone number.

At communion time, do not forget to answer AMEN from the line with your mask on, then you get the host, move aside and consume the host. You should not have your mask off and talk right in front of father. If you are a Eucharistic minister, let father know how many hosts you need in your pix by a show of fingers.

FOCUS ON THE READINGS: Palm Sunday, April 4th : Together with the Church throughout the world, we celebrate Christ's resurrection from the dead.

Jesus is risen from the dead; he appeared to his disciples. His rising to new life foreshadows what God intends for us: eternal life. The darkness of sin and death has been defeated by the Light of Christ, who died for us. Together, let us sing our praise to God. Alleluia!

YEAR OF ST. JOSEPH: The webpage dedicated to Celebrating the Year of Saint Joseph is now available on the CCCB website. It contains various resources, including prayers, litanies and devotions, consecration to St. Joseph, etc. The webpage will be updated periodically throughout the Year of Saint Joseph.

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead. John 20:9

There is no mistake this Easter. Jesus died and he rose. There is no better news than that. We all know that we will die, one day. As Christians, we also know that is not the end. We will live for eternity with our Lord. Make no mistake about it.

Christ has died; Christ is Risen. Alleluia!

Father, I rejoice today. Your Son, Jesus, rose from the grave. It is not only good news for Jesus, but it is the best news for us! Though we will die, we'll live for all eternity. Help me Father, to carry with me the good news of Easter Sunday. Amen.
