FOCUS ON THE READINGS: Sunday, September 19th : Jesus calls us to humble service.

A common thread in today's readings is that the marks of faithfulness are humility, peacemaking, and service to the lowliest among us. In the midst of cynicism, which is so often the reality of our modern world, how can we better witness to the world the peace of Christ?

APOLOGY FROM YOUR PASTORAL WORKER:

Unfortunately, I misunderstood communications from the Diocese regarding the people that were to be honoured last weekend at the celebration in Haileybury. When they mentioned that they were honouring the parishioners involved in helping with Liturgy at our parish, I sent in the names of all our readers and the music director. But last Sunday, I realized that I should have included all the Eucharistic ministers and sacristans. With this pandemic, we haven't been able to serve in those positions for a long time. I sincerely apologise to all who have been helping this parish for so long and were not recognized last week. As we are getting back to a little bit of normal, be assured that your help is greatly appreciated.

CONNECTING TO THE GOSPEL

"If anyone wishes to be first, / he shall be the last of all and the servant of all."

When our lives become centered on personal gain and prestige, our interest turns inward. Others become competitors to be bested rather than brothers and sisters in Christ to be served and cared for. Cardinal Merry del Val wrote a beautiful prayer called the Litany of Humility. The last line resonates with Jesus' message to the disciples and St. James' letter to the early church:

"That others become holier than I, provided that I may become as holy as I should, Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it." May this be our prayer too.
