LITURGY AND LIFE

Rising from the Jordan River, Jesus heard: "You are my beloved," and God has proclaimed these words over everyone baptized since that day. Coming to understand the meaning of Baptism, accepting the grace and responsibility given to us by that encounter with God's love, is a fundamental task of Christian life.

What hope does your Baptism give you for acting out your identity as a beloved of God?

Blessed Francis Xavier Seelos

Born January 11, 1819 in Bavaria Germany. He entered the seminary in 1842, becoming a Redemptorist. The Redemptorists were founded for the evangelization of the most abandoned. He came to New Orleans in 1866. Here he cared for the victims of yellow fever. Exhausted from his efforts he passed on October 10, 1867

Prayer for Vocations In the Archdiocese of Mobile

Heavenly Father, we thank You for the men You have called to be priests in the Archdiocese of Mobile. From the Gulf Coast, through the Wiregrass to the River Region, we pray that You sustain and inspire them in their ministry.

We also pray for those You are calling to join them as Fishers of Men. Give them the grace to hear Your call clearly and the courage to respond, trusting that your plans are "for their welfare and not for woe." Provide them with supportive families, encouraging parishioners and all the graces and experiences necessary to form them as men after Your Son's own heart. Amen
