LITURGY AND LIFE

It is hard to stay awake to the sin and suffering in this world. Even Jesus' disciples failed to keep watch with him in his deep sorrow. But the Gospel urges us to keep trying. It asks us to go with Christ to the heart of sorrow and to stand awake in solidarity with the poor and suffering.

How can we bring God's love to those that suffer? So that we can come to know Christ and his cross and can look with hope to the Resurrection.

Saint Joseph of Arimathea March 29th

St. Joseph of Arimathea was a just and devout man who was looking for the Kingdom of God. Although during Our Lord's public life he was afraid to show himself openly as His disciple, after the crucifixion he had the courage to seek out Pilate and ask for the Body of Jesus. Added by Nicodemus, he took the Body of the Savior from the Cross, bound it up in wrappings of cloth with perfumed oil, and laid it in his own new tomb.

Prayer for Vocations In the Archdiocese of Mobile

Heavenly Father, we thank You for the men You have called to be priests in the Archdiocese of Mobile. From the Gulf Coast, through the Wiregrass to the River Region, we pray that You sustain and inspire them in their ministry.

We also pray for those You are calling to join them as Fishers of Men. Give them the grace to hear Your call clearly and the courage to respond, trusting that your plans are "for their welfare and not for woe." Provide them with supportive families, encouraging parishioners and all the graces and experiences necessary to form them as men after Your Son's own heart. Amen
