Thank you for your continued generosity in our Capital Campaign: In the Seelos Tradition.

Pray for our success.

LITURGY AND LIFE

On the Fourth Sunday of Easter we always celebrate Jesus, our Good Shepherds, who protects his flock, provides for our needs, and goes in search of any sheep that are lost. The Good Shepherd lays down his life for the sheep and seeks to restore all sheep into his sheepfold. As Christians, we are called to extend the hospitality of the Good Shepherd to members of the flock who have wandered or become disconnected from the Church.

St. Catherine of Siena

St. Catherine was born March 25, 1347 in Siena and at an early age wanted to devote herself to God, against the will of her parents. She joined the “mantellate” a group of pious women, informally devoted to Dominican spirituality. Her influence with Pope Gregory XI played a role in his decision to leave Avignon for Rome. She was then sent by him to negotiate peace in Florence. She died April 29, 1380, and was canonized in 1461. She was the first woman, along with Teresa of Avila to be declared a “doctor of the Church”, on October 4, 1970 by Pope Paul VI.

Prayer for Vocations In the Archdiocese of Mobile

Heavenly Father, we thank You for the men You have called to be priests in the Archdiocese of Mobile. From the Gulf Coast, through the Wiregrass to the River Region, we pray that You sustain and inspire them in their ministry.

We also pray for those You are calling to join them as Fishers of Men. Give them the grace to hear Your call clearly and the courage to respond, trusting that your plans are “for their welfare and not for woe.” Provide them with supportive families, encouraging parishioners and all the graces and experiences necessary to form them as men after Your Son’s own heart.

Amen
