LITURGY AND LIFE

In the Jewish tradition, a prophet is one who is chosen by God, listens deeply to God, and is empowered to speak God's message for everyone. In the prophetic books of the Old Testament, we read the sayings of the prophets and we also learn how they were called. God continues to call prophets as messengers to our modern world-people who give us hope. Be alert and discerning to recognize other modern-day prophets and take care not to reject their voices as the people of Nazareth dismissed Jesus. Listen carefully to the voice of God in your own life and allow God to speak words of wisdom, challenge, and guidance through you to those who seek your counsel.

Make time, quiet time, to listen to God. Consider spending time in an Adoration Chapel, your garden, as you watch the sun rise or set – "Be still and know I am God."

Saint Maria Goretti

St. Maria Goretti was born on a small farm in Italy in 1890. Her father died when she was nine years old. Maria helped out with the younger children and the housework while her mother ran the family farm. She received her 1st Holy Communion at the age of eleven. Only a few months later she repelled advances from a wicked-minded youth that shared their house. Finally he attacked her. St. Maria, not giving in fought off her attacker and was stabbed several times with a dagger. The doctors could do nothing to save her. Before dying she said she forgave her attacker and would pray for his soul and wished to see him in heaven. After eight years imprisonment he had repented his ways and eventually became a Capuchin laybrother who gave great testimony towards her canonization.
