

DIVINE MERCY

SUNDAY 2015

St Francis de Sales Parish
Island Bay, Wellington
Sunday, 12 April 2015
2 - 5pm (includes Holy Mass)

Experience the Power of Divine Mercy,
the Greatest Attribute of God,
In Every Area of Your Life...

Invoke the Ocean of Graces JESUS promised to those who approach His fountain of Mercy on this day...

Deepen your appreciation of the Chaplet of Divine Mercy
Learn why JESUS asked this prayer to be prayed unceasingly...

Program: Adoration, Sacrament of Reconciliation, Petitions, 3 O'clock Prayer, the Chaplet, Holy MASS, Blessing and Veneration of the Divine Mercy Image, Blessing of personal religious objects, Fellowship and refreshments.

Fr David Dowling

Prior to ordination, Fr David was a senior customs officer with the New Zealand Customs Service. He left a comfortable life and responded to Jesus' call to serve Him in His vineyard. A prolific preacher, a highly skilled administrator, a guide and mentor to young men discerning the call to priesthood and the Vocations Director of the Archdiocese of Wellington. He has a special commitment to promote the message of Divine Mercy.

Fr Francis D'Souza
ICPE Priest

Fr Francis has a deep devotion to the Divine Mercy, which is a family devotion. He gave up a promising career as a software engineer to become a priest. He completed a Masters Degree in Dogmatic Theology from the Pontifical Urbaniana University in Rome with Summa Cum Laude. While in Rome, he attended the daily 3 O'clock Divine Mercy Prayers at the 'Santo Spirito in Sassia' and attributes his vocation to his parents' deep devotion to the Divine Mercy.

For information on Divine Mercy Sunday celebrations in other parishes in Wellington, please visit:

www.CentreForDivineMercy.org or call Dan: 0226 290 758