Our Mission

The Mission of The Church of the Immaculate Conception is to proclaim and celebrate our Lord Jesus Christ. We fulfill our mission as Christian disciples by intentionally responding to God's call to grow in holiness.

From the Pastor's Desk

Our Lady of the Rosary

Could you imagine confronting a fierce armada of 300 warships with a mere 200 ships at your command? That was the exact situation for a group of Christian sailors on October 7, 1571. They were drastically outnumbered and considerably outmatched against the fleet of the Ottoman Empire. In spite of those odds, at the encouragement of Pope Pius V, those Christian sailors and other faith-filled believers throughout Europe prayed the Rosary. Their confident trust in the intercession of Our Blessed Mother was well-founded since the Battle of Lepanto became a decisive victory for them.

With deep gratitude for the maternal protection of the Blessed Virgin Mary it makes sense that the same Pope Pius V called for an annual celebration on the first Sunday of October to commemorate Our Lady of Victory or, as she came to be known afterwards, Our Lady of the Rosary. Within your own life do you think there are any insurmountable battles that are taking place? Do your current life circumstances seem overwhelming and you don't know what to do? I would gently encourage you to pray the Rosary.

Prayer to
OUR LADY OF THE ROSARY

O Virgin Mary, grant that the recitation of thy Rosary may be for me each day, in the midst of my manifold duties,
a bond of unity in my actions,
a tribute of filial piety,
a sweet refreshment,
and an encouragement to walk joyfully along the path of duty. Amen.

The entire month of October is dedicated to Our Blessed Mother and a time-honored way to connect with her, so as to grow in deeper connection with her Son Jesus, is through the Rosary. If a complete Rosary of contemplating five mysteries from the life of Christ or Our Blessed Mother seems too daunting be patient with yourself and start small. Aim for praying one mystery of the Rosary each day and then add to it as you are able. Ultimately, we are Christian believers who know that it is Jesus who is the Way, the Truth, and the Life. At the same time, He has a special purpose and role for Our Blessed Mother to help us along in our journey. To her, Our Lady of the Rosary, we say, "Pray for us!"

Peace in Christ

Pilgrim Virgin Statue of Fatima

Immaculate Conception Church is hosting the world-famous International Pilgrim Virgin Statue of Fatima on Thursday, October 10, from 8:00 am – 8:00 pm, as part of an Archdiocesan tour of the statue October 1-22. This historic image has been traveling worldwide since 1947, when it set forth from Fatima to bring Our Lady's message of hope and peace to a world in need after the devastation of World War II.

The image was blessed by the Bishop of Fatima who prayed that Our Lady's presence would accompany the statue on her travels. In 1952, it was blessed by Pope Pius XII, who commented: "In 1946, I crowned Our Lady of Fatima as Queen of the World and the following year, through the Pilgrim Virgin, she set forth as though to claim her dominion, and the favors she performs along the way are such that we can hardly believe what we are seeing with our eyes."

The Pilgrim Virgin Statue has visited 100 countries, including Russia and China, and is primarily how the message of Fatima spread throughout the world. Hundreds of favors and graces, including cures and countless conversions are associated with the image. The presence of this special statue, sculpted according to Sister Lucia's description of Our Lady, is a great gift to our community.

Please join us that day to hear the story of Fatima, pray with Our Lady and allow her to bring the graces of Fatima to our parish.

- 8:30 am School Mass with procession and crowning of statue
- 9:15 am Fatima presentation by statue custodian
- 9:30 am Eucharistic Adoration with Rosary, Chaplet throughout the day
- 7:00 pm Presentation on Our Lady of Fatima
- 7:30 pm Rosary
- 7:55 pm Benediction
- 8:00 pm Closing remarks and Fatima farewell

Eucharistic Adoration

*“Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving;
let us joyfully sing Psalms to him.”*
(from Psalm 95)

We at Immaculate Conception Church are so blessed to have a Eucharistic adoration chapel on our campus. In this ministry, there are 115 adorers who come each week for an hour of prayer along with many visitors who stop in the chapel for a few moments of prayer. The ministry of Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament is alive and well within our parish and in December we will mark the ten year anniversary of the opening of our chapel.

Everyone is invited to come into His presence in our adoration chapel and join this prayer-filled ministry. Our chapel is open Monday through Friday from 7:00 am until 10:00 pm.

We are looking to expand our ministry and need to fill the following hours:

- Tuesdays at noon (partner) and 3:00 pm
- Wednesdays at noon and 5:00 pm
- Fridays at 11:00 am, 7:00 pm and 8:00 pm

We also are in need of additional partner adorers and substitute adorers. If you are interested in covering an hour, please call Sandy at 763-789-3246 for more information.

Word of Life

“When the seas of life swell and we are battered by the waves, hope allows us to remain anchored in the heart of God. May we hold fast to Christ our hope, from the beginning of life to its very end.”

The Mysteries of the Rosary

Have you ever wanted to explore the life of Jesus and Mary in a deeper way? Each decade highlights a sacred episode:

Joyful Mysteries: Through the Annunciation (1) and Visitation (2), we get a glimpse at Mary’s joyful yes to God. She gives birth to Jesus in the Nativity (3). Mary and Joseph present their son at the temple (4) and bring him there again when he is a teenager (5).

Luminous Mysteries: Jesus is baptized in the Jordan River (1) before Mary gives him a nudge to his first miracle at Cana (2). Jesus proclaims the Gospel (3), is transfigured on Mount Tabor (4), and institutes the Eucharist (5). The light is shining!

Sorrowful Mysteries: Jesus prays in agony in Gethsemane (1), knowing his hour of suffering has come. After his betrayal and arrest, Jesus is scourged (2) and crowned with thorns (3). He carries his cross (4), and Mary stands at the foot of the cross as he is crucified (5).

Glorious Mysteries: Christ is risen in glory (1)! After appearing to those he loves, he ascends into heaven (2). Jesus’ followers receive the Holy Spirit at Pentecost (3). Mary, unaffected by original sin, is assumed body and soul into heaven (4), where she is crowned queen, humble mother of Christ the King (5).

Live the Liturgy—Inspiration for the Week

All of the violence and unrest we regularly witness in our world can easily distress us. We can also find ourselves wondering how long it will take before God intervenes and does something about it. Then we remember our call to discipleship and spreading the Good News of the Gospel. We recall the persecutions the early disciples endured and the fate of so many martyrs throughout history, both past and present. It is not God’s responsibility to fix our mess but ours. God has given us the power of love and a strength of endurance that comes from Him alone. Our request of God becomes that of the disciples: “Increase our faith.” It is our task to stand up for the values of the Gospel and live them regardless of the price.

Gospel Meditation

Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

“When you have done all you have been commanded, say ‘We are unprofitable servants; we have done what we were obliged to do.’” The metaphor in the story could seem harsh to us today. A servant has worked hard all day, and rather than receiving a much-needed respite, the master commands an additional task. Jesus, however, is appearing to their sensibilities. This was a hierarchical society in which everyone had a place. His listeners would know this. No servant would presume a reward for good deeds.

It’s important to remember that we do have a place at God’s table. But we don’t “earn” it. Dining with the Lord at the heavenly wedding feast requires surrender. It requires deep faith in God and His promises. It also requires commitment. The kingdom takes work! There are fields to plow and initiatives to prepare. There are sheep to tend to and family to care for. There are people waiting for our yes to generous service.

When we serve dinner at a homeless shelter, we are waiting on the table of Christ. When we visit an ill relative, we’re imitating the Good Samaritan. We’re visiting Jesus! We’re growing his kingdom of life and love.

The Gospel today reminds us to check our motives. Are we serving because we’re seeking a reward? Or because we have faith that this is who we’re meant to serve? That is, is this where we’re meant to be? The Gospel reminds us that this faith can do powerful things! “If you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you would say to this mulberry tree, ‘Be uprooted and planted in the sea,’ and it would obey you.” But, ultimately, we’re not the ones doing the deeds. We’re not the ones “earning” the grace. Faith, and the good we do for others, is a gift.

Discipleship

How Much Is Enough?

During a conversation about good stewardship of money and time, my daughter shared that sometimes doing the best thing was so hard for her to do. It wasn’t always a matter of right and wrong, black and white, but a matter of better and best. I began to reflect on the truth of her statement. When confronted with a decision, we can sometimes be given a choice of good, better, and best. We fool ourselves into believing that the good choice is not a bad one, so it must be enough. However, we have essentially placed a limit on our generosity or commitment with our false sense of good stewardship.

Jesus calls us in different ways every day. Sometimes the cost to us is clear. Yet sometimes there is no clear metric. When called to love, how much love is enough? When someone needs our time, how many hours is enough? When a small gift will bring about a positive outcome, what could a larger gift accomplish?

Don’t be fooled by Jesus’ teaching of the mustard seed. He was speaking to those who were caught up in concerns of status, uncertainty of heart, and lack of true faith. Jesus taught with parables and then demonstrated true faith and generosity by his crucifixion. Perhaps the mustard seed of faith allows us to move mountains and trees so that we may see through to the horizon of the cross. In the cross, we find the real metric of love and generosity that is for all who follow Him.
