Bishop Knestout Statement Following the Attack at Kabul Airport

"Throughout the last week, I've been offering special prayer intentions for the people of this diocese. Among those prayer requests, there have been many for the members of our military services, those serving in Afghanistan, and the Afghani people. This evening, I will add the U.S. service personnel and civilians who lost their lives or were injured in today's explosion in Afghanistan to my special intentions. I ask you, our Catholic community, to join me in prayer and lift up those family members and loved ones who may be hurting from this violent attack. I especially ask to keep our U.S. troops safe as they continue with its humanitarian mission during this turbulent transition. May the Holy Spirit protect us and give us strength."

Second Collection The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops has organized a special collection for Haiti following the 7.2 magnitude earthquake on Aug. 14 and subsequent landfall of Tropical Storm Grace that caused widespread destruction and loss of life. Although our twin parish, St. Joseph, was not directly impacted by the storm, the devastation impacts the whole country. Bishop Knestout has asked each parish to participate in a special collection this weekend, August 28/29. As a result of this, the parish will commit the cash collected this weekend plus any checks with "Haiti" in the memo line to support the USCCB relief fund. You can also give online through the "One Time Gift" option and put Haiti in the note section. Thank you for supporting your brothers and sisters.
